Re: The State v. Antonio Gordon
Appellate Case No. 2013-000975
Record on Appeal – Deficiencies

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of a second pro se Record on Appeal from Antonio Gordon that I received on February 4, 2015 with a certificate of service on January 30, 2015.

The unbound Record on Appeal that I received that date does not comply with SCACR Rule 210. Firstly, it lacks an Index and material within the unbound loose material I received is not consecutively numbered.

Second, in my review of the material that I received on that date is missing matters included in the Appellant' and Respondent's Designation of Matter. Particularly, the January 30, 2014 pro se submission does not include:

1. "Motion for New Trial" dated November 12, 2012 with attachments.
2. "Order Denying Motion for New Trial" filed April 22, 2013.
3. Antonio Gordon v. State, PCR Appeal Appendix (Judge Kinard – 2001-CP-46-1866) – two volumes - missing pages 494 - 567.

Please advise me what further steps need to be taken. In light of these deficiencies, I am unable to prepare the Final Brief of Respondent. By copy of this letter, I am serving Mr. Gordon, the pro se Appellant with same.

Sincerely,

Donald J. Zelenka
Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General
