Thomas Cooper, Circuit Court Judge

Case No. 2015-000216

JP Morgan Chase Bank, National Association, Respondent, v.

Michael Hill aka Michael W. Hill, Holly Hill aka Holly H. Hill, Carolina National Bank and Trust Company, and First National Bank of South Carolina, Defendants,

Of Whom Michael Hill aka Michael W. Hill and Holly Hill aka Holly H. Hill, Appellants.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO REQUEST TRANSCRIPT

Comes now, William H. Sloan, attorney for Appellants, to request additional time to request the transcript of hearing from the Circuit Court.

While not to be used an excuse, this is the first appeal of the undersigned.

He misread the Rules as to when the letter to the Court Reporter requesting the transcript needed to be mailed. He thought it needed to be ordered 10 days after the FILING of the appeal when it is actually 10 days after the SERVICE of the appeal. He originally thought the date to order the transcript was February 12, 2015 when it was actually February 2, 2015. He discovered this error on February 5, 2015 and sent the letter ordering the transcript that same day while also serving a copy of this letter on this Court, Court Administration and opposing counsel. All relevant parties in this case should already have a copy of the letter to the court reporter.

Appellant believes this three day delay in ordering the transcript will result in no prejudice to Respondent.

WHEREFORE, Appellants respectfully ask this Court to allow the three day tardy request of the Court Transcript.

Respectfully,

February 23, 2015
