RE: North Pleasant, LLC, et al. v. SCCCL, et al
Appellate Case No. 2014-000183

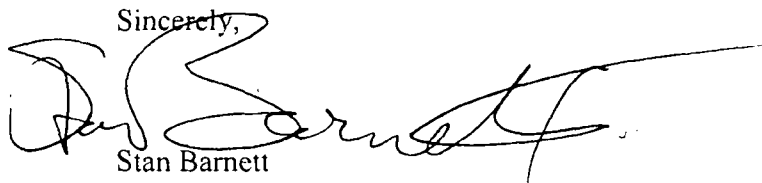

Dear Ms Kitchings:

Enclosed is the notice I recently received from the US Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit setting oral argument in a case in which I am counsel for the second week for which the above case may be set for oral argument in the SC Court of Appeals. I received this message after February 23 as I was not in my office until then. I should have immediately contacted your office and am sorry I did not. We have had some medical absences by staff here including my secretary. I should have been more vigilant in noticing the February 23 date in your letter, however.

I would very much appreciate it if you would not set oral argument in the above case on May 12 - 14 so that I may handle the argument in the Fourth Circuit and have time to adequately prepare for argument in the above case.

In the event you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Stan Barnett

TENTATIVE SESSION ASSIGNMENT

No. 14-1796, South Carolina Coastal v. United States Army Corps
2:13-cv-01543-RMG

ARGUMENT SESSION: 5/12/15 - 5/13/15

NOTIFY COURT OF ANY CONFLICT BY: 03/02/2015

This case has been tentatively calendared for oral argument during the above-referenced argument session. Any motion that would affect the scheduling of argument for that session, including motions to continue, submit on the briefs, or voluntarily dismiss, must be filed within 10 days of this notice. As required by Local Rule 27(a), any motion must state whether opposing counsel has consented. If counsel has a scheduling conflict with some or all of the session dates, counsel must file and serve notice of the conflict within 10 days using the entry Notice re: conflict with proposed argument dates. If counsel does not have any conflicts, the notice should not be filed.

Counsel will be notified that their case has either been scheduled for a date certain during the session or continued to the next available session. Once scheduled for a date certain, a case will be removed from the argument calendar only for extreme, unforeseeable problems that could not have been raised within the period set for notice of conflicts. The identity of the panel hearing a case is not disclosed until the morning of argument.
