RE: The State, Respondent v. Tracy Wheeler Stubblefield, Appellant, and AAAA Bail Bonds
And Crum and Forster Indemnity Company Sureties for the Defendant also Appellant
Appellate Case No. 2015-000051

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please accept this letter as the Appellant's Motion to Permit the Late Ordering of the Transcript in the above-referenced case. This appeal involves an Order Estreating a Bond where the judge heard counsel arguments. We do not believe we need to reference a transcript as our brief includes the bond and some relevant case law. There was no witness testimony taken. We have since been informed by opposing counsel, though, that they would like the transcript to be ordered, so we are doing so. Again, we had not ordered the transcript to date under the mistaken notion that it would not be necessary.

I have attached a copy of my letter ordering the transcript. Thank you in advance for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Lewis F. Gossett
Attorney for Appellants
