Re: Linda Rodarte v. USC
Appellate Case No. 2013-002295

Dear Counsel:

This office has received your letter requesting protection for multiple dates. Please be advised that the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court, unlike the trial courts, do not grant orders of protection.

Instead, if you have a case pending before the Court of Appeals and some action is required in your absence, you or a member of your firm will need to seek an extension in that individual case. You must file a motion pursuant to Rule 240 (c), SCACR. Should the court decide to set this case for oral argument, you will be notified by letter of the possible dates for argument. At that time, you can send the Court a response to let us know the dates on which you have a problem.

Very truly yours,
V. Claire Allen
DEPUTY CLERK
