Re: Gertrude Shiver v. Palmetto Health Richland
Appellate Case No. 2013-000887

Dear Ms. Shiver:

The Court received your letter dated February 19, 2015. The Court's letter of February 13, 2015 stated that if you were to file a motion to amend your designation of matter a filing fee would not be charged, because you had already filed a filing fee with your January 29, 2015 letter. If you do not file a motion for the Court to accept the amended designation of matter, the Court will not accept it.

A motion to correct the record on appeal must be filed within ten days of the date of this letter, or your appeal will be dismissed. The motion must meet the requirements of Rule 240, of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Specifically, the motion should identify the changes you propose to make to the record you have filed with the Court.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
