Re: Docket No. 11-ALJ-09-0647-CC

Dear Clerk Shearouse:

I am enclosing notification of my appeal to the best of my abilities. I realize that this is nothing more than an exercise in futility. While it is most difficult to participate in this charade under the guise of seeking justice, it is merely my way of avoiding an immediate, premature and tragic death. I will make every attempt to keep this battle within the confines of the Courts, as I have been taught to do.

At some point in time, I will fail to perfect the conditions, terms and requirements to effect this appeal and, of course, I will be denied justice as most citizens understand the constitutional concepts guaranteed to all of us. I have no notion anywhere in my thought process that the Supreme Court has no other purpose greater than protecting the criminal acts and corrupt behavior of its allies within the governmental realm.

I have, long ago, resolved to defend myself against those vigilantes such as Shirley C. Robinson. I will continue to do so until my head rests on the silken pillow.

Sincerely,

Wendell Norris
