RE: Goldie G. Reeves vs Dr. Rogers C.Reeves ,et al.
Appellate Case #2013- 002082

Dear Ms. Abbott Kitchings:

Please note the return address above is my official and current address for all written correspondence and information purposes. Please consider it as permanent until and unless I notify you of a change.

Therefore, please direct or redirect any correspondence to me to that address.

I have had to relocate five times since November 2014 in order to keep safe and protect my health. With each move I have located closer to downtown Greenville. I am now near the Patewood Campus of the Greenville Hospital system and my physicians and treatment

Having lived in my original former address in Simpsonville, SC for about forty-five years only. I had no understanding of the United States Postal Service's rules of procedure for forwarding mail and change of address rules. I was told they only allow one permanent change of address per month. Each time I moved I handled the mail notices with the post offices properly and timely as directed.

However I have come to find out some of my mail fell through the cracks, sort of speak and has been returned.. I regret this unfortunate problem occurred and apologize for any inconvenience to the court or individuals involved in this case. If any additional cost need to be paid for postage, please notify me ,so I might cover the expense.

Sincerely yours

Goldie G.Reeves
