Re: Perry Watford 289215 vs. SCDC ~~South Carolina Court of Appeals~~
Appellate case No.: 2015-000379

Mrs. Kitchings,

I received your letter March 3, 2015, in the Allendale Legal mailroom. Please find the copy of the NOTICE OF APPEAL to the Administrative Law Court. Appellate would like to ask why the Administrative Law Court shouldn't have heard this case. Due to that there is a state-created liberty interest implicated in this case. (20) twenty days of Good Time was taken from Appellate. The Honorable Judge DURDEN STATED that Appellate had No Good Time taken from Appellate. The ALJ had and has jurisdiction on this case, right? if the Appellate has good Time taken, then it's a state-created liberty interest implicated. Appellate would like to bring this to the S.C. Court of Appeals clerk's attention, that Appellate has not gotten the ($100.00) one hundred dollars filing fee. Appellate receives anywhere from ($25.00) twenty-five dollars to ($50.00) fifty dollars a month in Appellate's Account. Appellate would allow the S.C. Court of Appeals and SCDC to Debit Appellate's Account until the ($100.00) filing fee is paid in full to the Courts. All parties has been served a copy of this letter to the S.C. Court of Appeals.

Thank you for your Assistance . . .
