Re: Bobby Wayne Stone v. State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2013-001968

Dear Counsel:

This is in response to your letter of March 23, 2015 regarding the Court's request for a proper index to the appendix you have filed in the above entitled matter.

The supplemental appendix you have referenced in your letter is not an issue the Court is concerned with. The index contained in the original appendix needs to be more specific and comply with Rules 243(f) and 210(e), SCACR, especially given the magnitude of testimony and exhibits contained in this record.

Rule 210(e) states:

(e) Index. Every Record on Appeal shall contain an index to the principal matters therein to include orders, judgments, decisions, pleadings, pretrial matters, opening statements, testimony, motions, closing arguments, jury charges, post-trial motions and exhibits. For witness testimony, the index shall show the pages on which direct, cross, redirect and recross examination begins.

Please be advised a proper index which complies with the above referenced rules must be received in this office within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

Daniel L. Shearouse
