Dear Mr. Jones:

Thank you for the money order in the amount of $33.25, which was delivered by Ms. Sharon Jones-Wise. If I have over estimated the amount, I will be sure to send a refund to her when I mail your transcript to you.

Cordially,

Elizabeth B. Harris, CVR-M

In Re: State of South Carolina vs. Nakia Jones - November 9, 2013

Dear Mr. Jones:

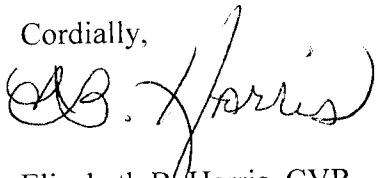

Thank you for money order in the amount of $48, which was delivered by Ms. Sharon Jones-Wise. I received it February 7, 2015.

When I pulled the records today, I discovered I made a mistake with the estimate. Rather than 15 pages, I expect the transcript will actually be 25 pages. That will bring the final total to $81.25.

The money order I received from Ms. Jones-Wise was for an even $48. That leaves a balance of $33.25 that I will need before I can finish the work. Once the balance is received (either certified check or money order, please), I will finish the last pages and mail your transcript.

I am sorry for any inconvenience this may cause you. It's such a short hearing, though, that it will not take long at all to complete your job.
