SC SUPREME COURT

John J. Moore, Petitioner

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-000786

Motion to Extend Time to File
Brief Due to Extraordinary Circumstances

Please accept this letter as a proper motion to the Supreme Court requesting an extension of time to file and serve my Petition for Writ of Certiorari. I am the named Petitioner in the above referenced P.C.R. appeal. I moved to relieve Counsel and proceed pro se in this matter, which this Court granted. This Court so ordered that the Petition for Writ of Certiorari be filed and served within thirty (30) days of the date of the order, March 10th, 2015. This extension request is due to the Broadriver Correctional Institution being on complete lockdown due to a health crisis (Flu outbreak). Warden Stevenson and Associate Warden Stefan stated that this lockdown

SC SUPREME COURT

Will be indefinite until there is no new cases of the Flu arising. This institution has been on lock-down since Friday, March 20th, 2015. This lock-down has denied me complete access to the law library and it will be closed throughout the duration of this lock-down. I ask that you take all of the above into consideration grant me an extension of time to file and serve my Petition for Writ of Certiorari. The prison suspended the notary service, per the wing c/o telling me so. I attest to the truth of this document under penalty of perjury.
