THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM THE APPELLATE PANEL OF THE
SOUTH CAROLINA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

Appellate Case No. 2012-211916

Leonard Anthony Sharpe,..... Respondent,

v.

County of Lexington, Employer, and South Carolina
Association of Counties, Carrier, Appellant,

PETITION TO REINSTATE APPEAL

RECEIVED

AUG 08 2012

SC Court of Appeals

The Appellants' Counsel, undersigned for the County of Lexington, Employer and South Carolina Association of Counties, Carrier, respectfully submits this petition and requests the Court to reinstate this appeal.

This matter is an appeal from a Decision and Order of the Workers' Compensation Commission. It was dismissed administratively on the grounds that Rules 208 and 209 of the SCACR were not followed. Specifically, The Appellants failed to serve and file the Appellants' Initial Brief and Designation of Matter.

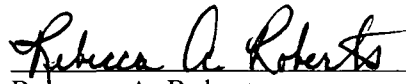

The Appellants would respectfully offer that its failure should not be grounds for a dismissal of this action as this was a clerical error in scheduling on the part of the staff of Appellants' counsel and it would unduly prejudice the Appellants due to its counsel's error. Therefore, the Appellants' counsel would respectfully request the mercy of the court in granting an enlargement of time in order to file.

The Appellants would offer that this failure and subsequent dismissal is strictly administrative in nature and that dismissal is not mandatory. The Notice of Appeal sets forth the specific grounds for the exceptions taken to the Decision and Order being appealed.

Therefore, Appellants respectfully requests that the Court reinstate this appeal and allow for an enlargement of time to submit the Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be filed.
