Dear Mr. Shearouse:

My Return to the State's Petition for a Writ of Certiorari and my Petition for a Writ of Certiorari are due to be filed in this matter on today's date. Due to my heavy State and federal trial and appellate court schedules, I will be unable to complete my work on these documents by that date. Therefore, I respectfully request a thirty-day extension of time in which to prepare and file these documents on behalf of this client.

There has been one previous extension request in this matter. With my thanks for the Court's attention to this matter, and my best regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,
