

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

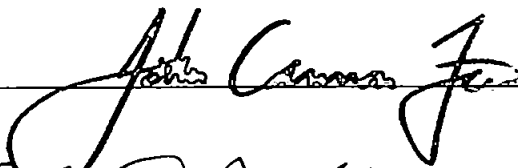

Joseph Charles Tice, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2015-000253

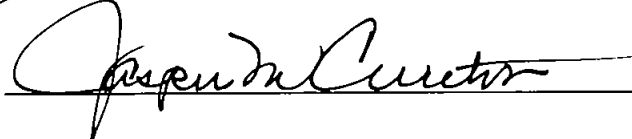

ORDER

This appeal was dismissed due to Appellant's failure to timely serve the notice of appeal. Appellant has filed a motion to relax Rule 203, SCACR, which we construe as a petition to rehear the dismissal of this appeal.

After careful consideration, Appellant's petition is denied. See Rule 263(b), SCACR ("The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended or shortened by the appellate court, or by any judge or justice thereof."); Mears v. Mears, 287 S.C. 168, 337 S.E.2d 206 (1985) (explaining the notice of appeal is a jurisdictional requirement, and the appellate courts have no authority to extend the time in which the notice of intent to appeal must be served).
