and

Goldie Grier Reeves v Dr. Rogers C. Reeves et al.
Appellate case#2013-002082

Dear Ms Abbott Kitchings:

Ms. Hollie Jenkins hand delivered to my motel residence in Greenville in the evening of March 18, 2015 a certified Transcript of the hearing in Judge Verdin's court for the case noted in the above styled caption. Also included in the official USPS official envelope was an uncashed money order in an amount of $72.00 which I had previously sent with the request for Judge Verdin's Official transcript, prior to the Post Office's unfortunate confusion of Multiple changes of address orders, circumstances I have explained in my letter of March 6, 2015 to all parties in this appeal. I appreciated Ms. Jenkins personal delivery service.

Coincidentally, the next morning March 19, 2015, I also received a returned letter marked not deliverable addressed to Mr. Terry Chasteen, as he, evidently had a change of address of which I had no knowledge. I believe at this time all errant postal deliveries regarding Judge Verdin's transcript have been corrected.

I am, however still awaiting another official transcript. This case has had multiple hearings in family court as well as civil court. I will promptly notify the appeals court when it arrives.

Sincerely yours,

Goldie Reeves
