Ronald Tate, #114188,.....Appellate,

v.

S.C. Dept. of Probation,
Parole and Pardon Service.....Respondent.

MOTION TO EXTEND THE FILING OF APPELLANT'S FINAL BRIEF

Comes now, Ronald Tate, Appellant, respectfully makes this Motion to Extend the Filing of Appellant's Final Brief in this matter. Appellant is experiencing difficulty with having the fifteen (15) copies of the final brief and copies on every other party to the appeal pursuant to Rule 211.

Appellant has been slowed by memorandum from the General Counsel's office of the Department of Corrections not to copy computer or hand/type written documents of inmates.

Appellant request the Court to allow him at the least ten (10) days from the issuing of it's order to comply with Rule 211(b) SCACR.

RE: Ronald Tate v. SCDPPP'S (4)
Appellate Case No. 2014-001047

Honorable Kitchings:

The appellant in this case request that this Court allow him an extension of time in the filing of his final brief in this matter before the Court. Appellant is experiencing difficulty in having computer or typewritten generated copies made by order of the Department's General Counsels office.

Moreover, appellant's living unit has been restricted of all movement and have been placed on security lock-down since Friday March 20, 2015. Appellant will have to place his mail in the hands of security officers posted in the unit to place his legal mail in the unit mail box.

Also, appellant has no access to bounding/binding or any construction paper to make a blue cover for the final brief, however, I do have access to masking tape. Appellant's unit lock-down status as of the date of this letter is uncertain and will make every effort to comply with the Appellate Court Rules in the above-reference case.

Sincerely,

Ronald Tate, #114188
