SC Court of Appeals

Appellant hereby moves pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, for a 30-day extension of the time in which to serve and file Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal in this case. The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as the following shows:

1. The deadline for service and filing of Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal is currently April 8, 2015.
2. This is the second extension that Appellant has sought in this appeal.
3. The undersigned attorney has just completed a brief in another case yesterday, and he became unexpectedly involved in two other appellate cases recently, which have necessitated time being spent on those cases, in addition to his normal case load. This has kept him from devoting time to writing the brief in this appeal.
4. Further, though settlement progress has largely gone in fits and starts in this case, the undersigned would like to use this time to revive that progress, which may result in the resolution of this appeal, without having already spent the time to write the brief in this appeal.
5. Appellant's counsel believes there is good cause to grant the requested 30-day extension to May 8, 2015.

6. Appellant's counsel believes there is good cause to grant the requested 30-day extension to May 8, 2015.

WHEREFORE Appellant prays for an Order extending the time in which to serve and file Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal for thirty days.

Respectfully submitted,
