Dear Ms. Allen:

In accordance with your letter dated March 5, 2015, I am submitting with this letter an Amended Proof of Service for the documents that were mailed to you and to opposing counsel on February 28, 2015. I believe that the amendment complies with the applicable rule in that it does not describe by reference to my transmittal letter the items that were forwarded to the Court and to counsel.

Also, your letter stated that a Certificate of Counsel had been omitted from the submission. As my transmittal letter dated February 28, 2015, attempted to make clear, there actually should have been two certificates enclosed—one under Rule 210(g) and the other under Rule 211(b), SCRPC. Not knowing which one was omitted from the transmittal to the Court, or whether opposing counsel also failed to receive one, I have sent you new originals of both, with copies of them to Mr. Florence.

With respect to the mis-description of the Appellant's Final Brief, I have had 15 more bound copies made and will forward 14 of them to the Court (as well as one unbound copy) under separate cover, with a bound copy to opposing counsel, and an appropriate proof of service

Thanking you and with kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

Robert V. Mathison, Jr.
