RE: Bernard Bagley v. SCDPPPS, Appellate Case No. 2015-000478

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

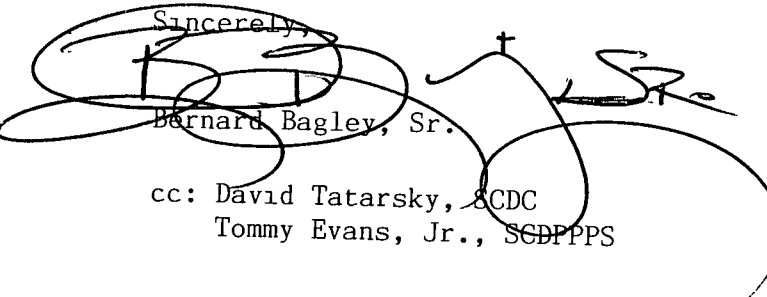

Please be advise that I've received additional information that SCDPPPS and the Parole Board pre-investigation report and recommendation for the January 14, 2015 parole hearing abrogated and violated provisions of statute §17-1-40, of S.C. Code of Laws, prohibiting retention of evidence pertaining to a charge that is dismissed and expunged. As a result, I'm suffering irreparable harm by prejudicial information and documents regarding that previous charge. The reords or documents pertaining to that criminal charge was not destroyed even though that proceeding against me have been dismissed and expunged.

SCDPPPS and the Board has, did and will continue to use that as a prejudicial factor to abrogate and deny me parole based on that charge if this Court does not adequately intervene with an injunction enjoining SCDC from forwarding information regarding that previous charge. I've contacted inmate records prison officials (#15-547998) regarding the matter, and the response on today 4/3/15, at 1:07pm, by author: 016464, "information in pending status." This has been going on since my initial parole hearing in 2010.

In addition, the commitment offense sentencing sheet 90-GS-405849, contains that prejudicial information that require redactions from that document, but SCDC and SCDPPPS still have not correct the matter.

Please make this letter as part of the record in the above case number. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

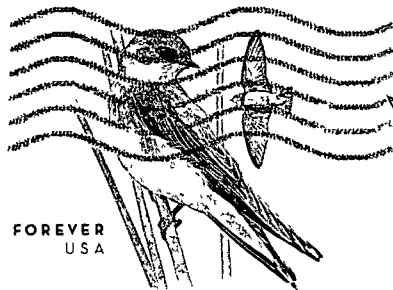

Bernard Bagley, Sr.
