RE: City of Charleston v. Derrell Beckley
Appellate Case No. 2014-002243

Dear Ms. Allen:

As of April 8, 2015 I have yet to receive a letter from the Responded. I found out about their letter by calling the Clerk. I don't think The Responded should get a thirty (30) day extension. The Responded knew of this case the day it entered his office. From that day they knew why I appealed this matter.

The way I see it they had plenty time, the delay with the transcripts, my thirty (30) days and from the start of their thirty (30) days up to April 2, 2015. Poor planning and procrastination on their behalf is no excuse to delay this matter any further. I understand that extensions are needed in some cases, but not in this one. The request for the extension should be denied.

Sincerely,

Derrell Beckley
