RE: Mare Baracco v. Beaufort County, Case No. 2013-CP-07-00918 (Original Case Number 2012CV0710401536)
Appellate Case No.: 2014-000636

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

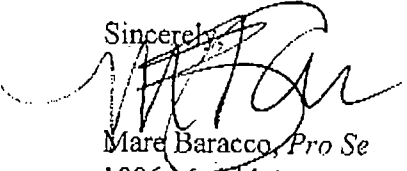

Please see the attached correspondence to your office dated April 13. I had sent a package to your office, in regard to a Petition and Motion. I realized after I'd mailed it that several documents were not included. Therefore I first contacted your office and indicated I did not want to have this Petition/Motion entered at this time and I would pick the package up at the Court if that would be ok.

I then contacted the US Post Office April 13 and did a "package intercept" (receipts attached), thus assured by USPS it would be returned to me.

Clearly USPS did not intercept this package, as they should have. As I sent this package in error, I do not want it heard, or any action taken on it at this time. I also did not forward it to the other parties of record, as I explained in my letter to you of April 13.

My apologies for any confusion this created at your office; again, a mistake on my part I tried to correct.

Sincerely,

Mare Baracco, Pro Se

Hello mare baracco,

Thank you for using USPS.com.

We received your Package Intercept Request

The total price is an estimate based on the weight, dimensions, and mail class of your package. The actual postage is determined after your package arrives at your local Post Office™ and is weighed and rated.

USPS does not charge your credit card until the package's actual postage is determined. USPS only charges the estimated amount or less.

If the actual postage is more than the estimated postage, USPS will notify you by email or text and the entire actual postage price must be paid with cash, check, or Money Order when your package arrives.

Example: If your estimated postage is $11.50 but the actual postage is $13.50, you must pay the carrier $13.50 with cash, check or Money Order when your package arrives.

RE: Mare Baracco v. Beaufort County, Case No. 2013-CP-07-00918

Appellate Case No.: 2014-000636

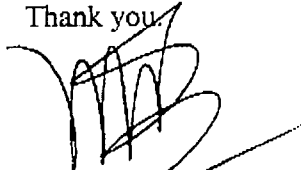

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I mailed a package today, for a Petition for a Hearing and Motion, to the Sumter Street address (overnighted – see attached letter).

I realized afterwards several documents were not included; therefore, I did not follow through with the "Proof of Service" to the attorneys of record, as indicated in my letter to your office.

I will actually be in Columbia tomorrow and would appreciate being able to pick up my package at the Sumter Street location if possible; I will send it in when it's complete and ready to be forwarded to your office.

Thank you.
