Re: Vista v Tompkins and McMaster
Appellate Case No. 2013-001385

Dear Ms. Allen:

I represent the Respondent in the above matter. Several months ago I was placed on interim suspension. A Consent Order terminating my suspension was recently submitted and I had hoped the suspension would terminate during the month of April 2015 allowing me to appear on behalf of the Respondent but I have very recently learned that no action will be taken on the Consent Order on or before May 17, 2015. I apologize for this late notice but securing a definite date for action to be taken on the Consent Order is difficult and there is no guarantee that the action will be favorable.

Based upon this unavoidable conflict, I respectfully request that arguments on this matter be scheduled to occur after May 17, 2015. Should action on the Consent Order not be favorable I will secure substitute counsel to appear on behalf of the Respondent. This request is based upon good cause, not indented for delay and I pray I will be able to appear on behalf of the Respondent in The Court of Appeals in the very near future.

Sincerely

Frank B McMaster
