Dear Mr. Thomas:

I am writing in response to your letter dated April 16, 2015 regarding a transcript request that you have indicated was made to Deborah Garrison that you indicate was paid in full on January 23, 2015. I have contacted the court reporter, Deborah Garrison, regarding this request. Ms. Garrison has informed me that she has not received a request or a payment from you.

By copy to Ms. Garrison, I am requesting that she review her records and provide you an estimate for the cost of the transcript. Once payment is received, she will have 60 days to prepare the transcript. If you have other questions regarding court reporters and/or transcripts, please feel free to contact this office again.

Sincerely,

Desiree R. Allen
Court Reporter Manager

Thomas v. Evening Post Publishing Co., et. al.
Case No. 2013-CP-10-5444
Court of Appeals Case No. 2014-002725
Date of Hearing: January 10, 2014
Presiding Judge: The Honorable R. Markley Dennis, Jr.
Court Reporter: Deborah Garrison

Dear Ms. Allen:

The Court of Appeals has notified me that my Appeal in the referenced case will be dismissed if I do not either (1) provide proof that I am seeking to establish why the court reporter, Deborah Garrison, has failed to prepare and deliver the referenced transcript; or (2) file and serve my initial brief. Be that as it may, I cannot complete my initial brief until I receive the transcript, and Garrison was paid in full on January 23, 2015. In other words, more than 60 days have lapsed, and Garrison has not been granted an extension.

I have been forwarding all relevant correspondences and court filings to your office, so you should already have a file on this case. That said, if you could look into this matter, I would appreciate it.

With kindest regards,
I am

Clark D. Thomas
