Importance: High

Hi Leah,

I am representing the State in this appeal (I volunteered to take a few of the pool cases for them). An initial extension was given, and pursuant to that the IBOR is due this Thursday, April 23. Because of other work, I have yet to finish the brief.

I know it is not necessary, but I am contacting you to see if you will consent to my request for a second extension to prepare the State's IBOR.

Thank you,

Amie

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings
Clerk of Court, South Carolina Court of Appeals

Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Re: State v. Kenneth Ordell Murray (Appellate Case No. 2014-000051)

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am writing to request a 30-day extension within which to serve and file the Initial Brief of Respondent and Designation of Matter in the above-referenced case. I have volunteered to handle this case for the South Carolina Attorney General's Office and have been designated a Special Assistant Attorney General for that purpose. Because of other work including work in two other appeals and trainings, I have been unable to complete this brief by today's deadline. This is my second request for an extension in this case.

I have communicated by email with opposing counsel, Leah B. Moody, and she has no objection to my request.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Annie L. Clifford
Special Assistant Attorney General
