I further state that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant named above did commit the crime set forth and that probable cause is based on the following facts:
On or about September 4, 2013 @ 10:30 PM: the defendant along with his co-defendants did force entry into the dwelling house of another located at 4685 Southland Drive, in the Longs section of Horry County, South Carolina without consent and with intent to commit the crime of larceny while armed with a shotgun and did display and threaten to use that weapon to the occupant. Moreover, as his co-defendants stood guard at the threshold of the dwelling and act as a lookout, he did kidnap, strike, and beat, assault, bound with ligatures and forcibly drag by her feet from one room to another the female victim and occupant of the home. The defendant was positively identified by a co-defendant who had personal knowledge of the crime as well as the property stolen by the defendant.
