RE: State v. Gorny
Case No. 2014-002322

Dear Madame Clerk:

By Order of this Court, our office was substituted as counsel for Mr. Curtis B. Gorny. Mr. Robert M. Dudek, was relieved as counsel by this same order. At this time, Our office does not have the transcripts associated with this appeal, however, we should be receiving them in the near future.

In short, our office and Mr. Dudek's office are not affiliated with each other, as such, and we do not have the transcripts received by Mr. Dudek. The same being ordered and shall have the same shortly. As such, we are respectfully requesting: 1) the time for our initial brief to be due thirty days after we receive the transcripts [we will inform the court when received]; and 2) our office/this request not count as an extension request as outlined by the South Carolina Supreme Court order of March 18, 2001.

I have spoken with Deputy Attorney General Salley W. Elliott and she understands and has no objection with this request.

Sincerely,
COCKRELL LAW FIRM, PC
