RE: Mr. Wesley Edward Smith, III Appellant v Charleston County School District et al
Respondents Case No. 2003-CP-10-4751

Dear Honorable Clerk Kitchens;

Enclosed for your immediate action is the Amended Notice to Appeal with brief.

On or about 1 May 2015, I received from this Court of Appeal Office, information regarding the correction of the appeal notices. I am entitled, and invoking the exercising of my statutory and appellant legal right to appeal pursuant rule 203 or the special referee that upon notice shall be served in the same manner as provided by Rule 203(b)(1). The determination is believed error in law for which this action now serves as an amendment to appeal and at the same time informing the administrative Law Courts such stated and objectively supported objection to the said order and the CCSD law counsel third party interference with a contract relationship while encroachment upon statutory right and requirements for which I have been injured.

This action also serves to challenge the premature court order and the lack of service for deprivation of procedural due process right (Proof Required) suffered at the hand of my adversaries. As required by duly action of notification, this action is in conformance with rule 267. Thanking you in advance.

Sincerely,

Mr. Wesley Edward Smith III
