Re: State of South Carolina v. Ashley Eugene Moore
Appellate Case No. 2013-002309

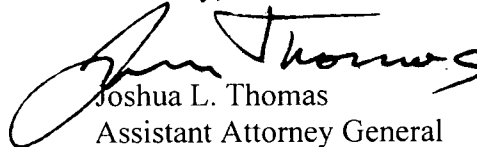

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Pursuant to Rule 208(b)(7), SCACR, I am notifying the Court of the following supplemental citation:

State v. Morris, 411 S.C. 571, 769 S.E.2d 854 (2015), reh'g denied (Apr. 9, 2015) (holding that (1) record supported a conclusion that officers who conducted a traffic stop had a reasonable suspicion that defendant and passenger were engaged in criminal activity; (2) traffic stop was not unduly prolonged or burdensome; and (3) record supported a conclusion that officer had probable cause to conduct a warrantless search of the entirety of the vehicle for drug evidence.)

The issue on appeal in the present case is whether the court of appeals erred in determining an officer's decision to extend the scope and duration of a traffic stop was not supported by reasonable articulable suspicion based on the totality of the circumstances. (Final Brief of Petitioner p.1; Final Brief of Respondent p.4). Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please do not hesitate to contact me at (803) 734-3737 should there be any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Joshua L. Thomas
