

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

George Cleveland, III, #357770, Appellant, v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2015-000957

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion to allow a late filing of his notice of appeal. After a careful consideration, the motion is denied and this appeal is dismissed because Appellant failed to timely serve the notice of appeal. See Rule 203(b)(6), SCACR (providing a notice of appeal from the administrative law court must be served within thirty days after receipt of the decision); Rule 263(b), SCACR ("The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended"); Mears v. Mears, 287 S.C. 168, 337 S.E.2d 206 (1985) (explaining the notice of appeal is a jurisdictional requirement, and the appellate courts have no authority to extend the time in which the notice of intent to appeal must be served).
