

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Daniel Lopez, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2013-000903

ORDER

Attorney Lara M. Caudy has filed a motion to be relieved as counsel, alleging she seeks to avoid hybrid representation as she believes Appellant intends to submit a pro se petition for rehearing. Counsel shall furnish proof that she has advised Appellant of the dangers and consequences of proceeding pro se. Counsel has ten days to provide the documentation. This Court will act on the motion to be relieved upon receipt or the expiration of ten days.

FOR THE COURT

Columbia, South Carolina

cc: Daniel Lopez, 00355282
Alan McCrory Wilson, Esquire
Lara Mary Caudy, Esquire
Christina Catoe Bigelow, Esquire
William Walter Wilkins, III, Esquire

FILED

May 20, 2015