Re: The State v. James C. Williams
Appellate Case No. 2013-001849

Dear Mr. Williams:

It has come to this Court's attention by way of a letter from the respondent dated May 18, 2015, that the record on appeal that was served on the respondent did not contain everything that was designated in your designation of matter nor the respondent's designation of matter. Attached is the respondent's letter and list of what was not included. Pursuant to Rule 210 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the record on appeal should contain all items designated by both parties designation of matters filed with their initial briefs. Serve an amended record on appeal on the respondent, including all designated items, within twenty days of the date of this letter or your appeal may be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
