Dear Court,

5-24-15 pg. 1

In my appendix I received last week I have some more things I'd like looked out by the court. The appendix is 78 pages all together.

I also would like to know if the same judge which is Judge Cottingham can sentence me, grant a motion of relief and arraign me again after he relieved my counsel Mr. Frederick. on page 63 Questions 5-8 Mr. Frederick clearly does not tell the truth when he tells the court he doesn't know who relieved him as my counsel.

Him and Judge Cottingham were long time friends as stated on page 8 #20. Also on page 41 Questions 12-24 my attorney Mr. Frederick notified me of any trial. I only found out at court before he told me of the plea on Oct 24, 2012. Also on page 49 Answer 8-15 I was told my main witness Chris Brown was going to testify against me and my attorney told me that when in fact when I got in touch with Mr. Brown he told me he was never asked and was never at court to testify on me that someone ~~at~~ must have lied to me because he told my attorney that I did put the windows in the house.

Also how can my paid attorney send me into a trap? Page 39 Questions 13-15. my attorney all but admits it was a trap. I just want what's fair

I can accept the max 10 year sentence on all these charges. a 4 year sentence and a 15 year sentence on the same charges is a little too much. I was charged with all these charges on Dec of 2010. It was a crime spree extending from Nov-Dec of 2010. no dates are exact, they were all rental properties. None of these homes were dwelling where someone lived year round. They were summer homes and rentals. Please consider my plea so I can go back and get re-sentenced and hopefully get the 10 year sentence that fits with all these charges. I was in the county jail for almost 4 years and I'm only getting credit for 826 days. All of these days are day for day also. I did not receive no good time for any of this. Thank you for your time and I hope we can get a resolution to all this soon.

Sincerely

James E. Glessing
