Re: Gregory #221394 vs. Riley Moore & Lamey, LLC
Appellate Case No. 2015-00740

Subject: Respectfully Request For Records of TRANSCRIPT, Archives

Dear Ms. Smith / Record Division:

Recently, I've contacted, Ms.
Jenny H. Williams, Fifth (5th) Judicial

Circuit Court, Richland County, 901
Richland Street, Columbia, South
Carolina 29201

Ms. Jenny H. Williams, transcribed
a motion hearing, before Judge G.
Thomas Cooper, Jr. on/or about,
January 08, or 10, 2008, at The
Richland County Court of Common
Pleas, in the case of, 2007-CP-40-
-03742;

Ms. Kaven Ambroziak, Court Reporter,
Transcribed a motion hearing in
The case, 2007-CP-40-03742, and in
The case, 2009-CP-40-02442, before Judge J. Michelle Childs, on/or about, January 14, 2010, at The Broad River Correctional Institution
via Courtroom area; For The 5th
Judicial Circuit, Court of Common Pleas;

These TRANSCRIPTS, To my

Understanding, has been lost or no longer in The Court Reporter's possession, since it has been over 5 years, time allotted.

On The Contrary, I've been informed by a state Senator, That The Transcripts of Records, could be researched and located in The "Archives of Records" at The S.C. Court, Administration, and That, I or my Family members may have to pay an additional cost for researching and could get a higher Court's order if it's necessary to obtain it, pending a need for it in a hearing;

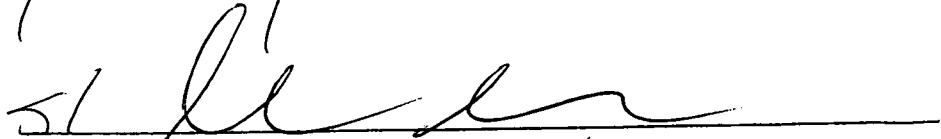

If you can be of any assistance to me, please return to me the necessary information

so, I may prepare my Family members to pay for them;

"AT This present Time, I am in the S.C. Court of Appeals pending an Order For Transcripts;"

I'm in process to file my initial Brief, but I'm in dire need for those Transcript of Record;

Thank you so kindly in regard, for your Cooperation and assistance!

Respectfully Submitted,

Appellant Pro'se Case No.,
