RE: Relief of Counsel
Ms. Lara M. Caudery

Dear Mr. Shearouse,

I received your letter plus a letter from the Attorney Ms. Lara M. Caudery saying she wasn't my lawyer from your letter I took it that I had 10 days to file my appeal

I put it in the mail today's hands here and had it stamped and sent off to you. plus I wrote copies to the Attorney Generals office and the Clerk of Court at the county I was convicted in.

My petition for writ of certiorari was 40 pages long x 3 plus my copies was alot of writing. Today I got a letter from the Attorney Generals office saying that they weren't my lawyer and her writ to stand that we have a m's understanding, and highly skilled and experienced she is.

The only reason the Attorney General is asking this is because they were just as dirty as the Charleston County Solicitors office.

I asked her she refused to fix it. Said if the court asked to look at my case she'd fix it then, that the judge turned my PCR down, lied about how long it took. After, I told her my case was full of lies and deceits.

She did this. I told her I'd fire her and try my best and that's what I did! Now if the Attorney General wants to play hard ball on this fine.

I will bypass the Supreme Court since his office don't want the truth to come out. And I have a terminal disease I am dying of cancer so I can file with the federal courts on that grounds. I feel the case law on it.

I will not let the Attorney General tell me that the lawyer he gives a check to did a good job. I only want the truth to come out. That's all I'm asking for.

Thank you Sincerely
Wendell E. Jackson
