RE: Kan Enterprises v. SCDOR
 Appellate Case No.: 2015-000733

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please accept this letter as our request for an extension of time to file the Initial Brief and Designation of Matter. The deadline for filing this is today. We were prepared to file the document by noon today. Unfortunately, our basement flooded as a result of last night's thunderstorms. Our servers are partially under water and we have no access to our internal server at all. Our information technology staff has informed us we will not have computers all day and will not likely have them for the rest of the week.

The Initial Brief and Designation of Matter were contained on the servers. Without these servers, we have no way of submitting our Initial Brief and Designation of Matter on time. Due to this flooding, we are requesting an extension past the weekend to June 15th to file our Initial Brief and Designation of Matter.

If our servers come on line today we will do what we can to file Initial Brief and Designation of Matter. Based on the flood damage I have seen, it is extremely unlikely this will happen. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me on my cell phone 803-960-1403, as our office lines are routed through the servers and are off line as well.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Yours very truly,

John C. Bradley, Jr.
