Judge James E. Chellis, Master-In-Equity

Case No: 2015-000834

514-Jump Amusements, LLC, Plaintiff/Respondent Respondent vs.

Sarah Rangel et. al., Defendants/AppellantAppellant.

MOTION TO BE RELIEVED AS COUNSEL

Attorney Michael Whitsitt proposes the following Motion in regard to the case on appeal:

- (1) That he be removed as counsel for the appellants for the following reasons:
 - (a) Appellants hired Attorney Michael Whitsitt and were notified in their fee agreement that they would need to hire an attorney should they wish to pursue an appeal;
 - (b) Prior to the filing of the final order in this case Attorney Michael Whitsitt notified the appellants that as soon as the order was issued they would have only 30 days to file a notice of appeal and would need to retain a new attorney in order to file said appeal.
 - (c) Once the filed copy of the final order was served on Attorney Michael Whitsitt the appellants were notified that should they wish to appeal the matter they would need to hire a new attorney;
 - (d) The Appellants are: Sarah Rangel and Michael Dever along with Paisley's LLC d/b/a Wildjumps, LLC and reside at 123 Ashdown Drive, Summerville, South Carolina 29483.
- (2) For the foregoing reasons Attorney Michael Whitsitt requests this court to issue an order relieving him as counsel.
