Appellate Case No. 2009-142286

ORDER

By order dated February 19, 2015, this Court stayed all proceedings in the Aiken County Circuit Court involving the Estate and Trusts of James Brown and the marital status of Tommie Rae Hynie a/k/a Tommie Rae Brown. We hereby lift that stay.

This Court greatly appreciates the attention the Honorable Doyet A. Early, III, has paid to the management of these complicated and contentious matters and expects the actions in the circuit court to continue as expeditiously as possible as set forth in the status report and in accordance with this Court's opinion in Wilson v. Dallas, 403 S.C. 411, 743 S.E.2d 746 (2013). Judge Early shall order payment of any personal representative and trustee distributions that have been finally determined.

Adele J. Pope has filed a motion seeking confirmation that the stay does not affect Richland County cases in which she is involved. Because we lift the stay, we deny Pope's motion as moot.

In addition, Pope has filed a motion to reopen another case involved in the Estate and Trust. In that case, the Court of Appeals dismissed Pope's appeal because she was not an aggrieved party. This Court denied Pope's petition for a writ of certiorari, and the remittitur was sent on October 28, 2014. We deny Pope's motion to reopen the case because this Court no longer has jurisdiction over the matter. State v. Keels, 39 S.C. 553, 17 S.E. 802 (1893) (the appellate court has no jurisdiction in a matter when the remittitur was properly sent).

By opinions filed simultaneously with this order, we affirmed Pope's appeals in Appellate Case Nos. 2013-001649 and 2014-000250. David C. Sojourner, Jr. has filed a motion to intervene in those appeals. Based on the affirmance of the circuit court's orders, we deny the motion to intervene as moot.

Pope is hereby prohibited from filing any further motions or appeals in actions involving the Estate and Trust of James Brown, such as the above actions, in which she clearly has no standing. We caution Pope that continued attempts to involve herself in the resolution of the Estate and Trust may result in contempt charges.
