RE: Mr. Wesley Edward Smith, III Appellant v Charleston County School District et al Respondents Appellant Case No. 2015-000787

Honorable Clerk Jenny A. Kitchens:

Enclosed for your immediate action is relief sought in case of 2003-CP-10-4751 (the premature awarding of Civil Summary Judgment, believed to be an error in law) to be reverse under reconsiderations pursuant rule 240, motions to reinstate and or remand pursuant the South Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedures. The Summary Judgment as it stand is prejudicial to this moving party, it lacks legal memorandums of law arguments and without the substantive evidence of proof of the law enforcement agency that authorized the claims for relief due to a substantiated violation.

This is an attempt collect a debt owed to me by Charleston County School District. At the same time, I am reporting a violation of my appellant rights, to have tested the legal sufficiency of CCSD action and the continued encroachment and infringement by third parties that routinely are acting without regards of the law of such protections owed to the State citizens. Individuals acting along side CCSD in concert of this deprival or bullying of due process. I Wesley Edward Smith III was terminated from employment after being accused of a crime but CCSD decided to skip the mandated requirements which was to serve a notice of my right to appeal such determinations. Ultimately, I am being deprived my legal right to appeal under the State Appellate rules for which reasons are given to believe CCSD and its interveners are liable under the expressly written and posted laws.

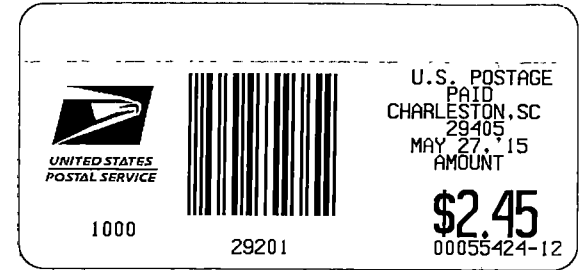

Thanking You in advance,

Sincerely,

Mr. Wesley Edward Smith III
