Re: Centennial Casualty v. Western Surety
Appellate Case No. 2014-001521

Dear Counsel:

This Court has received your request for costs in this matter. Since this case has been remanded to the South Carolina Court of Appeals to address other issues, no remittitur has been issued in this matter. Further, any determination of whether the judgment of the circuit court will be affirmed or reversed is yet to be determined. Therefore, your motion for costs appears to be premature and no action will be taken on it. Cf. Rule 222, SCACR (costs to be based on whether the appellate proceedings affirms or reversed the lower court or tribunal; motion for costs to be made within fifteen days of the issuance of the remittitur); Rule 242(j), SCACR (same).

Very truly yours,

CLERK
