Transcript Request

Dear Mr. Cartrette,

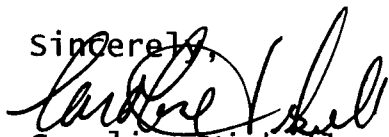

I am in receipt of your transcript request dated February 16, 2015 in the above-referenced hearing. After review of my records, I have estimated this transcript to be 20 pages. At $3.25 per page, the cost of the production will be $65.00. Upon payment, production will begin and I have 60 days to complete the transcript.

Under the Rules, if I have underestimated the page count and amount due, I will notified you in writing of the difference. If I have overestimated, a refund will be distributed along with delivery of the transcript.

If for any reason a 30 day extension is needed, you will be notified as well. No personal checks will be excepted. Postal Money Orders are to be made out to Caroline Hiskell and sent to the address listed above.

As always, your request and business is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Caroline Hiskell

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Sir:

Cartrette is writing after the 6-1-15 letter from clerk's office about document(s) enclosed for appeal transcript where transcript has not been forwarded. Of course, if mailing and forwarding times are applied; 60 days may not have expired but there has not been an extension issued by your office so we need to be informed of the relevant status of processing.

Respectfully requested,

/s/
