APPELLANT'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE REPLY BRIEF

Appellant respectfully requests an extension of thirty days to file the Reply Brief. Appellant's Initial Reply Brief is currently due June 15, 2015. Appellant has communicated with counsel for Babcock Center, who did not object to this motion and counsel for the agency Respondents is on vacation, but he did not object to an email informing him of this request for an extension. An extension of 30 days, until July 15, 2015, is respectively requested because the parties are in settlement negotiations. This is the second request for an extension of time to file the Reply Brief. The first extension was requested due to the death of the Appellant.
