This matter comes before the Court by way of two applications filed for Post-Conviction Relief, Case No. 2013-2403, filed on June 4, 2013, and Case no. 2013-2608, filed on June 20, 2013. The Respondent submits that the Applicant's two applications violate the Order Restricting Future Filings and should be denied.

I.

Respondent submits that the Applicant, following numerous frivolous and repetitive filings, was served with an Order Restricting Future Filings<sup>1</sup> on April 4, 2012. In the Order Restricting Future Filings, the Honorable J. Mark Hayes II made the following rulings:

1. The Clerk of Court is directed to refuse to accept further petitions and applications from the Applicant asking the Court to entertain matters unless he pays a filing fee generally required for filing motions and petitions with this Court.
2. The Applicant is prohibited from filing any legal actions in any jurisdiction in South Carolina without submitting the requisite filing fees<sup>2</sup> and providing a properly notarized affidavit certifying that the Applicant believes in good faith that the matter raised is not frivolous. The requisite filing fee must also be submitted with any subsequent filings.

3. Any Applications submitted with properly notarized affidavits will be submitted to the Administrative Judge for Common Pleas to make a finding on whether the allegations are non-frivolous and proper for the Court before they are filed; and
4. The Clerk of Courts should be instructed to return all documents that do not comply with this order.

The Applicant subsequently submitted for filing the above listed applications without the required filing fee, without a properly notarized affidavit certifying that the matters raised were not frivolous, and without the approval of the Administrative Judge for Common Pleas. Therefore, the Respondent submits that the above listed applications should be dismissed with prejudice.

II.

WHEREFORE, the State requests that this Court dismiss with prejudice the two above listed applications.

This matter comes before the Court by way of two applications filed for Post-Conviction Relief, Case No. 2013-2403, filed on June 4, 2013, and Case no. 2013-2608, filed on June 20, 2013.

The applications are denied and dismissed for the following reasons:

This Court notes that the Applicant, following numerous frivolous and repetitive filings, was served with an Order Restricting Future Filings on April 4, 2012. In the Order Restricting Future Filings, the Honorable J. Mark Hayes II made the following rulings:

1. The Clerk of Court is directed to refuse to accept further petitions and applications from the Applicant asking the Court to entertain matters unless he pays a filing fee generally required for filing motions and petitions with this Court.
2. The Applicant is prohibited from filing any legal actions in any jurisdiction in South Carolina without submitting the requisite filing fees<sup>1</sup> and providing a properly notarized affidavit certifying that the Applicant believes in good faith that the matter raised is not frivolous. The requisite filing fee must also be submitted with any subsequent filings.

- 4. The Clerk of Courts should be instructed to return all documents that do not comply with this order.

The Applicant subsequently submitted for filing the above listed applications without the required filing fee, without a properly notarized affidavit certifying that the matter raised is not frivolous, and without the approval of the Administrative Judge for Common Pleas.

This Court finds that the applications should be dismissed for failure to comply with the Order Restricting Future Filings. The Spartanburg Clerk of Court's Office is instructed to accept no future applications or petitions from the Applicant unless he fully complies with the Order Restricting Future Filings. Any application or petition received that is accompanied by the filing fee and notarized affidavit shall be forwarded to the Administrative Judge for Common Pleas for his review prior to filing in the Clerk's office; however, if Applicant attempts to file a petition or application without the filing fee and affidavit, the documents shall be returned to Applicant.

For the foregoing reasons, the applications for post-conviction relief are hereby denied and dismissed.
