RE: Antonio Gordon v. State
Appellate Case No.: 2015-001004

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I received your letter dated June 4, 2015 on June 9, 2015 concerning the transcript in this case. I have enclosed a letter that I addressed to the South Carolina Office of Court Administration,

For the record the transcript I am seeking is from the 2008 hearing I had in this case. On the 2015 motions I filed in this case there was hearing conducted eventhough I did assert a Austin v. State, 409 S.E2d 395 (1991) claim. If there are anymore information needed please contact me. Thanks.

RE: Gordon v. State, Case No.: 2006-cp-46-0010

Dear To Whom It May Concern:

Between January 25-31, 2008 I had a hearing in York County Court Of Common Pleas on A Rule 60(b) motion before Judge Couch. I am in need of the transcript due to judicial review. I have been in contact with the York County Clerk Of Court and they have informed me that the Court Reporter is unknown because their records show I did not have a hearing. Could you please inform me whether your office have a copy of the transcript? The Court Of Appeals need it for judicial review. Thanks.
