Re: Joshua Sanborn v. The State
Appellate Case No. 2014-002347

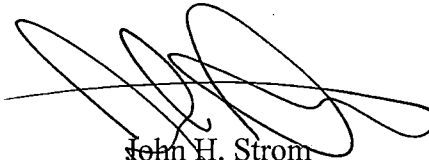

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

As evidenced by the enclosed affidavit, Mr. Sanborn has elected to withdraw his post-conviction relief claim. I have discussed the consequences of withdrawing the PCR claim with Mr. Sanborn in writing. Because Mr. Sanborn's decision to drop his application is knowing and voluntary, I respectfully request that the Court issue an order dismissing Mr. Sanborn's petition for writ of certiorari.

By copy of this letter, I am informing J. Clayton Mitchell of the Office of the Attorney General of Mr. Sanborn's decision.

Thank you for your time and assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

John H. Strom
Appellate Defender

IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA
SUPREME COURT

AFFIDAVIT

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Joshua Sanborn, who being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am the petitioner in the above-captioned case.
 2. I understand that I may request assistance from the South Carolina Office of Appellate Defense in perfecting my Petition for Writ of Certiorari from the denial of my post-conviction relief application.
 3. I have been informed that if I drop the appeal of the denial of post-conviction relief that I forever waive those issues that could be raised.
 4. In light of the risks which have been explained to me, it is my desire that the South Carolina Office of Appellate Defense not perfect my Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the South Carolina Supreme Court.
 5. I have made this decision on my own, with a full understanding of all the possible consequences of this action.
4. I do not wish to appeal.

Joshua Sanborn

SWORN TO before me this 16th day of June, 2015.
