Re: The State v. Joseph T. Rowland
Appellate Case No. 2014-001051

Dear Mr. Rowland:

The Court received your correspondence dated June 8, 2015. Because you are represented by counsel, all filings must be made by your attorney. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exceptions of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel."). Accordingly, your document is returned enclosed and no further action will be taken.

Very truly yours,
