

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Rodney Elliott, Petitioner,

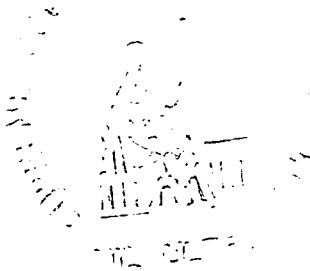

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-002323

ORDER

The State has filed a motion to compel petitioner to amend the appendix to include certain documents and to remove markings from the trial transcript contained therein. Petitioner consents to the motion and states an amended appendix will be filed within twenty days of receiving all necessary documents, to include a trial transcript devoid of markings and notations. The motion is granted and petitioner shall amend the appendix as agreed. The time limits for serving and filing a return to the petition for a writ of certiorari are held in abeyance pending service of the amended appendix.

Columbia, South Carolina

June 26, 2015

cc:

Robert M. Pachak, Esquire

Megan Harrigan Jameson, Esquire

C.J.
FOR THE COURT