Lieber PI Back Wage Claim Step 1 Response

Inmate Name	SCDC #	Grievance #
Carter, Thomas	249362	LCI-1897-05

As directed by the order filed July 1, 2005 and signed June 23, 2005 by Circuit Court Judge Diane S. Goodstein in Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc., civil action number 02-CP-18-0134, I have reviewed your Step 1 grievance form dated December 1, 2005 as well as any and all documents you submitted in support of your Step 1 grievance form.

Additionally, your prison industries participation and pay records were reviewed by the responsible officials at both Lieber and Division of Industries Headquarters in Columbia. These records reflect that you began participating in the prison industries project at Lieber on March 15, 2004 and that you concluded your participation in this project on October 11, 2005.

After carefully considering your grievance and the arguments you made justifying the relief you request, I deny your grievance in its entirety.

As I said at the very beginning of my response, I reviewed your Step 1 form and the other documents you submitted as directed by the order Judge Goodstein signed on June 23, 2005 order in Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc. In the last section of the order she signed June 23, 2005, Judge Goodstein lifted a stay she first imposed on November 3, 2004 by which she halted SCDC's processing of all grievances filed by inmates, like yourself, in which the inmates demanded back wages or higher current wages for the labor they had provided or were currently providing to the prison industries project at Lieber in which Williams Technologies, Inc., acts as the private industry participant. Also within the last section of the order she signed June 23, 2005, Judge Goodstein restored both the grieving inmates and SCDC to the positions they held regarding their respective grievances and responses as of November 3, 2004, and she directed that her stay would be lifted approximately 60 days from the day she signed her order. However, as the attorney who represented the inmates in Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc., (Douglas Westbrook of Charleston) appealed other sections of the order Judge Goodstein signed on June 23, 2005, the section of Judge Goodstein's order by which she lifted the stay on grievance processing she first imposed on November 3, 2004 could not go into effect until the appellate courts of our state decided with finality the appeal of the other sections of her order.

On February 26, 2007, the South Carolina Supreme Court issued its opinion regarding the appeal filed by the inmates' attorney concerning the other sections of the order signed by Judge Goodstein on June 23, 2005, and the Court's opinion is cited as Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc., 372 S.C. 255, 641 S.E.2d 885 (2007). In its opinion, the Supreme Court denied the appeal filed by the inmates' attorney and affirmed the decisions made by Judge Goodstein in the other sections of the order she signed June 23, 2005. Specifically, the Supreme Court affirmed Judge Goodstein's decision to dismiss the inmates' class action lawsuit in its entirety and the Supreme Court also affirmed Judge Goodstein's decision to dismiss the class of inmates she had recognized in earlier proceedings. The inmates' attorney filed a Petition for Rehearing with the Court, but, in an order issued March 21, 2007, the Court denied this Petition for Rehearing. On March 22, 2007, the Clerk of Court for Dorchester County received notice of the Supreme Court's denial of the Petition for Rehearing.

As a result of the Supreme Court's decision to deny the Petition for Rehearing filed by the inmates' attorney and the receipt of the Supreme Court's decision by the Clerk of Court for Dorchester County on March 22, 2007, the section of the order Judge Goodstein signed on June 23, 2005 order by which she lifted the stay on grievance processing she first imposed on November 3, 2004 finally went into effect. Therefore, SCDC had 60 days from the date the Dorchester County Clerk of Court received notice of the Supreme Court's denial of the Petition for Rehearing or May 22, 2007 to resume its processing of grievances including your Step 1 grievance.

The South Carolina Supreme Court, in two opinions it issued on August 23, 2004, first determined that you could file a grievance by which to protest any provision of the "prevailing wage" statutes that applied to the prison industries project in which you participated. These opinions are Adkins, et al., v. SCDC and Wicker v. SCDC. Both of these cases discussed S.C. Code Section 24-3-40, 24-3-310, et seq., and, specifically, 24-3-430. Under Wicker, the grievances must be filed, processed, and determined in accordance with the provisions of SCDC's Inmate Grievance System Policy.

SCDC Policy Number GA-01.12 is the policy that establishes SCDC's inmate grievance system. Paragraph 13.1 of SCDC's inmate grievance policy establishes a deadline by which inmates must file grievances for alleged incidents. Specifically, Paragraph 13.1 requires that an inmate must file a grievance "within 15 days of the alleged incident." Exceptions to this deadline appear in paragraph 13.9 of SCDC's policy.

In light of Adkins, Wicker, the deadline established by paragraph 13.1, and the exceptions to this deadline recognized by paragraph 13.9, I find that you did not submit your grievance by the deadline set forth in SCDC's inmate grievance policy. I made this finding, because you did not submit your grievance within 15 days of when SCDC first paid you an hourly wage that allegedly violated the applicable prison industries statutes and, specifically, Section 24-3-430.

My position is also supported by Administrative Law Judge Anderson's order in Wright, #200123, vs. SCDC, Docket No. 06-ALJ-04-00114-AP and Administrative Law Judge McLeod's order in Henry Williams, #187203, vs. SCDC, Docket No. 06-ALJ-04-00622-AP.

Also, even if you had met the time frames established in paragraphs 13.1 and 13.9, I find that you are not entitled to any of the relief you demand in your grievance. In making this finding, I consulted with Lieber's Inmate Grievance Coordinator's [IGC] Office. Representatives of Lieber's IGC Office, in turn, consulted with SCDC's General Counsel's Office and the outside counsel retained by SCDC to defend the inmates' class action lawsuit in the case now known as Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc.

Inmate Name	SCDC #	Grievance #
Carter, Thomas	249362	LCI-1897-05

Through these consultations, I learned that inmate Darrell Williams, the class representative identified in the inmates' class action lawsuit, filed a Step 1 grievance on September 22, 2004 demanding relief that was similar if not identical to the relief you demanded in your Step 1 grievance. I also learned that Mr. Williams' grievance claimed to be a "class action" grievance on behalf of inmates including you. As a review of your Step 1 grievance clearly shows, you referenced the Step 1 grievance filed by Williams on September 22, 2004 throughout your Step 1 grievance.

Contrary to the claims you made in your Step 1 grievance, however, I conclude that neither the South Carolina Supreme Court's opinion in Adkins nor its opinion in Wicker ordered you or any other inmate in your position to file a grievance demanding the relief you demand in your Step 1 grievance. These opinions simply acknowledged for the first time that you and other inmates in your position could file such grievances if you desired.

Also, contrary to the claims you made in your Step 1 grievance, I conclude that you have never been and are not currently an "employee" of either SCDC or Williams Technologies, and I also conclude that neither Adkins nor Wicker declared that you or inmates in your position are employees of SCDC, Williams Technologies, or, for that matter, or any other agency or company. I make this conclusion in reliance of the South Carolina Supreme Court's opinion in Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc., in which the Court recognized both that inmates are not "employees" of the State of South Carolina and that inmates are not the "employees" of prison industry sponsors like Williams Technologies.

Therefore, to the extent you use the term "inmate/employee" within your Step 1 grievance to describe your position; I reject your use of that term. You and the other inmates in your position have been, are, and remain inmates lawfully confined within an SCDC facility, and you performed all of your labor in this prison industries project inside the walls of Lieber CI.

I further conclude that while Adkins, Wicker, and, to some extent, Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc., discuss and interpret Section 24-3-430, they do not require that you or inmates in your position receive the "prevailing wage" at the rates set forth in Mr. Williams' September 22, 2004 Step 1 grievance. Mr. Williams stated that the "prevailing wage" for work of a similar nature in the private sector was $8.40 to $10.97 per hour in 1999, $9.74 to $11.79 per hour in 2000, and $10.10 to $12.06 per hour in 2001. Mr. Williams based these wage ranges upon a one page memorandum from a College of Charleston professor, Dr. Joseph Benich. Dr. Benich describes himself as an "Economic Loss Expert." Mr. Williams also claimed in his September 22, 2004 Step 1 grievance that, since July 2001, SCDC should have paid you and the other inmates in your position a "negotiated wage" of $4.00 per hour for your labor under other South Carolina statutes. Again, I conclude that no part of the South Carolina Supreme Court's opinions in Adkins, Wicker, or Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc., required SCDC to pay you or other inmates in your position the hourly wage rates stated by Mr. Williams in his September 22, 2004 grievance.

Moreover, the hourly rate at which SCDC pays inmates for the labor they provide to any prison industries project may be different than the hourly rate at which SCDC leases the inmates' labor to the private company sponsor under the contract between SCDC and the private company sponsor.

Also, to the extent that you demand overtime wages in your grievance, I conclude that neither Adkins nor Wicker nor, for that matter, Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc., require SCDC to pay you or any other inmate in your position overtime wages for your prison industries labor during the time period you discuss in your Step 1 grievance.

To the extent that you want SCDC to recognize your grievance and the grievances filed by inmates in your position as a "class grievance," none of the authorities you discuss in your Step 1 grievance requires or even considers such recognition. Additionally, none of the authorities Mr. Williams discussed in his September 22, 2004 Step 1 grievance requires or even considers such recognition. Finally, none of the applicable SCDC policies or applicable rules of court requires or even considers such recognition. Again, the South Carolina Supreme Court affirmed Judge Goodstein's decision to dismiss the class of inmates she had earlier recognized in Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc.

Finally, to the extent that you demand in your grievance the same "pre/post judgment interest, costs, and attorney fees" Mr. Williams demanded in his Step 1 grievance, no decision of the South Carolina Supreme Court nor any provision of SCDC's Inmate Grievance System Policy entitles you or any other inmate to any pre or post-judgment interest, costs or attorneys fees in connection with SCDC's review and processing of your grievance.

Therefore, I, again, deny your grievance in its entirety.

THE AGREEMENT is entered into this 30th day of September, 1998, by and between the South Carolina Department of Corrections (hereinafter called "SCDC") by its duly authorized agent Michael W. Moore, Director and Williams Technologies, Inc., (hereafter referred to as "Williams") by its duly authorized agent William S. Williams, Chairman.

WHEREAS, Prison Industries is a division of the South Carolina Department of Corrections charged with establishing business relationships with private enterprise so as to fulfill the intent of Section 24-3-310 Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976 as amended; and has all necessary authorization to enter into this agreement and to bind the State of South Carolina to all the terms contained herein; and,

WHEREAS, Williams represents and warrants that it is a duly qualified South Carolina corporation, licensed to conduct business in South Carolina; and,

WHEREAS, Williams intends to engage in the business of disassembly and/or remanufacturing of its product lines at Lieber Correctional Institution (hereinafter referred to as"LCI"); and ,

WHEREAS, this agreement is made in the best interest of the State of South Carolina:

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto do agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 General:

In consideration of Williams' expenditures to construct on behalf of the State of South Carolina a building of up to 45,000 square feet on the LCI premises (the "Building") , SCDC hereby enters into this Agreement to permit Williams to use such Building and related premises during the term and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. The State Engineer's approval of all building plans is required. Attachment A hereto shall indicate the location of the Building and the related premises, which shall include circulation space for delivery and shipping via tractor-trailers, parking outside of the secured area sufficient for a minimum of six (6) trailers and access to the facility via access roads. SCDC shall be responsible for maintenance of such roadways and related premises.

The Building shall be constructed according to plans approved by the state in accordance with all applicable federal and state and local rules and regulations and SCDC security requirements. The State Engineer's approval of all building plans is required. The cost of the Building (excluding personal property located in the Building such as furnishings and equipment) is estimated to be $ 1,200,000 [illegible]. Within 90 days of completion of the Building, Williams shall provide to SCDC documentation of the expenditures to construct the Building for its review and acknowledgment.

to and from LCI reasonable access up to twelve (12) hours per day, subject to the Department's security requirements in Section 3.1.4.

(c) Other access. SCDC will provide access to the facility during Williams' hours of operation for Williams' employees, agents, and business invitees, subject to SCDC's security requirements.

3.3 Mutual Duties of the Parties:

1. Payment for Services: Williams agrees to pay SCDC $4.00 per hour per inmate for work performed including training hours and hours in excess of the inmate's normal shift. SCDC shall be responsible to pay inmate workers, cover security costs and P.I. overhead, including any costs for health, safety and welfare of the inmates, taxes or other payroll deduction. No compensation will be paid for time not worked. In order to accommodate holidays not observed by Williams, SCDC and Williams may agree to work ahead or to work on holidays if a mutually acceptable agreement can be reached.

Thirty (30) days prior to each anniversary date of this agreement, SCDC and Williams may negotiate an increase in the per hour rate paid by Williams to SCDC. If such an increase is requested, it shall be limited to a maximum of five percent (5%) annually or the annual percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index, whichever is lower. It is the intent of the parties that such increase shall only reflect SCDC's increased costs of prison overhead.

Williams and SCDC may mutually agree upon a bonus plan for inmates based on productivity and quality control. Such bonus will be paid in its entirety by Williams to SCDC for distribution to inmates.

2. Compliance with Convict Labor Laws: Williams and SCDC agree that no goods produced under this agreement shall be placed in commerce in violation of the laws of the State of South Carolina or the United States as they relate to the utilization of prison labor. Should either Federal or State Law (or the interpretation thereof) change preventing interstate shipments of goods produced under this Agreement, this Agreement shall terminate as provided in Sections 4.0.7 and 4.0.9.

ARTICLE 4 General Terms and Conditions:

4.0 General:
Williams, its employees or agents performing under the agreement are not to be deemed to be employees of SCDC nor as agents of SCDC in any manner whatsoever. Williams will not hold itself out nor claim to be an officer or employee of SCDC or of the State of South Carolina by reason hereof and will not make any claim, demand, or application to, or for any right or privilege applicable to an officer or employee of SCDC or the State of South Carolina, including, but not limited to, workers' compensation coverage, unemployment insurance benefits, social security benefits, or retirement membership or credit.

The State of South Carolina, SCDC, their employees (including inmates performing labor pursuant to this Agreement) and agents, are not to be deemed employees of Williams nor agents of Williams in any manner

PLAINTIFF'S EXHIBIT 5

To: Douglas Westbrook, Attorney at Law

From: Dr. Joseph Benich, Economic Loss Expert

Subject: Your 9/14/04 request

Date: 9/20/04

This note is in response to your "prevailing wage" request for work generally described by the Williams Technologies Job Description of Production Associate. You have asked for my opinion of the "prevailing wage" for work of a similar nature in the private sector for 1999/2001 (I assume that you mean 1999, 2000, and 2001). It is also my understanding that the term " prevailing wage" not only implies work of a similar nature, but that the work should be performed in the same general geographic area.

The U.S. Department of Labor (Bureau of Labor Statistics) publishes wage data for a range of occupations in the Charleston – North Charleston Metropolitan Area. The Installation, Maintenance and Repair Occupation Sub-Category of "Maintenance and Repair Workers, General" had mean hourly wages of $11.44 in1999, $12.62 in 2000, and $13.24 in 2001 for the Charleston - North Charleston Metropolitan Area. The Production Occupations Sub-Category of "Team Assemblers" had mean hourly wages of $10.49 in 1999, $10.56 in 2000, and $10.88 in 2001 for the Charleston – North Charleston Metropolitan Area. The average of these two Sub-Categories is $10.97 for 1999, $11.59 for 2000, and $12.06 for 2001.

The possibility exists that the average prison worker would be less experienced with his prison position than his non-prison counterpart. It is also possible that the average prison worker would require more supervision than the average non-prison worker performing the same tasks. The concept of "prevailing wage" implies the average wage for a specific category of average workers. The Installation, Maintenance and Repair Occupation Sub Category of "Helpers—Installation, Maintenance, and Repair Workers" had mean hourly wages of $9.53 in 1999, $11.21 in 2000, and $10.45 in 2001. The Production Occupations Sub-Category of "Helpers--Production Workers" had mean hourly wages of $7.61 in 1999, $8.27 in 2000, and $9.09 in 2001. The average of these two "Helpers" Sub Categories is $8.40 for 1999, $9.74 for 2000, and $10.10 for 2001.

These "Helpers" Sub Category averages represent the lower end of the "prevailing wage" range for the Williams Technologies Job Description of Production Associate for 1999, 2000, and 2001. Thus the "prevailing wage" range estimate for prison workers for the Williams Technologies Job Description of Production Associate is $10.97 - $8.40 for 1999, $11.59 - $9.74 for 2000, and $12.06 - $10.10 for 2001.

AMENDMENT TO GRIEVANCE OF WILBUR JORDAN, #272264

Grievant was/is employed in the Williams Tech/Lieber Prison Industries/Private Sector Program for the provision of services. The Program was established under S.C. Code §24-3-310, 430. From 1999 to July 2001, §24-3-430 required WTI/Lieber to pay Grievant the prevailing wage for work of similar nature in the private sector. The prevailing wage was $8.40/$10.97 for 1999, $9.74/$11.59 for 2000, and $10.10/$12.06 for 2001 (Exh. G,H; Exh. A-H to two grievances filed by Darrell Williams and counsel 9-22-04 are incorporated herein by reference).* Since July 2001, WTI/Lieber were required to pay Grievant the negotiated wage of $4/hour (Stat. at Large, No. 66, §37.31; Exh. B,C). In fact, SCDC policy was to pay a maximum of about $1/hour, and usually less. Exhibits document a $.35 per hour base rate (Exh. B,D,E); maximum of $1/hour (Exh. E); the 9-30-98 contract specifying a $4/hour wage (Exh. B,C); employee roster (Exh. A); and pay dates, hours, rates, and pay for Grievant (Exh. F). SCDC states rates/hours in Exh. F are incorrect after a certain date, however, as an SCDC document Exh. F should stand as prima facie evidence unless shown incorrect by other evidence.

Grievant requests back wages owed for hours in 1999 at $9.68 per hour; hours in 2000 at $10.66 per hour; hours in 1-1-01 to 6-30-01 at $11.08 per hour; and 3755.20 plus hours* in 7-1-01 to present at $4 per hour; less wages paid, §24-3-40 deductions, and soc. sec./medicare; plus interest, costs, and attorney fees.

(Grievant Signature) (Date)

* Attached are Exh. A, 0786; C, 0081,0086; F, 1179-1180; H, 1-3.
* An hours "plus" figure here means Grievant may have worked past the latest date in Exh. F, June 2004, requiring addition to figure.

4593 Douglas H. Westbrook

D/M B. Williams, #261486 LC10774-04

find that SCDC does not owe you back wages for the labor you provided as part of your articipation in the prison industries project located here at Lieber. I also find that one of the authorities you discuss in your grievance require SCDC to pay you a different ourly rate than the hourly rate SCDC currently pays you for your prison industries labor. herefore, I deny your grievance.

n making these findings, I consulted with Lieber's Inmate Grievance Coordinator. The nmate Grievance Coordinator, in turn, consulted with SCDC's General Counsel's Office and CDC's attorney in the class action lawsuit that raises the same issues you raised in your rievance, Williams, et al. v. SCDC, etal., Case No. 02-CP-180134. This attorney also epresented SCDC in the South Carolina Supreme Court cases you reference in your grievance, dkins, et al., v. SCDC and Wicker v. SCDC.

s a result of these efforts, I learned that a circuit court judge will soon consider otions filed by both SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc. (WTI), the other defendant in he Williams lawsuit, to completely dismiss the case.

also learned that former Inmate Darrell Williams, the named plaintiff in the class action awsuit discussed above, also filed a grievance demanding SCDC take action similar if not dentical to the action you demand in your grievance. I also learned that Mr. Williams' rievance claims to be a "class action" grievance on behalf of inmates like you. However, learned that SCDC, in accordance with SCDC policy, terminated Mr. Williams' grievance hen SCDC released him from its custody on October 1, 2004.

conclude that neither the Adkins opinion nor the Wicker opinion ordered you or any other nmate in your position to file a grievance demanding the relief you demand in your rievance. These opinions merely allowed you and other inmates in your position to file uch grievances.

conclude that you are not an "employee" of WTI and that neither Adkins nor Wicker declare hat you or inmates in your position are employees of WTI or any other private business. herefore, to the extent you use the term "inmate/employee" to describe your position or tatus; I reject your use of that term. You and the other inmates in your position have een, are, and remain inmates lawfully confined within an SCDC facility, and you performed ll of your labor in this prison industries project inside the walls of Lieber CI.

I conclude that while Adkins and Wicker discuss and interpret Section 24-3-430, they do ot require that you or inmates in your position receive the "prevailing wage" at the rates set forth in Mr. Williams' now terminated grievance. Mr. Williams stated that the "prevailing wage" for work of a similar nature in the private sector was $8.40 to $10.97 per hour in 1999, $9.74 to $11.79 per hour in 2000, and $10.10 to $12.06 per hour in 2001. Mr. Williams based these wage ranges upon a one page memorandum from a College of Charleston Professor, Dr. Joseph Benich. Dr. Benich describes himself as an "Economic Loss Expert". Mr. Williams also stated in his now terminated grievance that, since July 2001, SCDC should have paid you and the other inmates in your position a "negotiated wage" of $4.00 per hour for your labor under other South Carolina statutes.

I conclude that neither Adkins nor Wicker required SCDC to pay you or other inmates in your position the hourly wage rates as stated by Mr. Williams in his now terminated grievance.

Also, to the extent that you demand overtime wages in your grievance, I conclude that neither Adkins nor Wicker require SCDC to pay you or any other inmate in your position overtime wages for your prison industries labor during the time period you discuss in your grievance.

To the extent that you want SCDC to recognize your grievance and the grievances filed by inmates in your position as a "class grievance", none of the authorities you discuss in your grievance require or even consider such recognition. Additionally, none of the authorities Mr. Williams discussed in his now terminated grievance require or even consider such recognition. Finally, none of the applicable SCDC policies or applicable rules of court require or even consider such recognition.

To the extent that you demand in your grievance the same "pre/post judgement interest, costs and attorney fees" Mr. Williams demanded in his now terminated grievance, SCDC's Inmate Grievance System Policy does not entitle you or any other inmate to any pre or post-judgement interest, costs or attorneys fees in connection with SCDC's review and processing of your grievance. Furthermore, SCDC's Inmate Grievance System Policy does not allow for your representation by an attorney at any phase of its review and processing of your grievance.

Therefore, I, again, deny your grievance.

If you desire you may appeal my response within five days of receipt via the Inmate Grievance Coordinator.

SECOND AND FINAL SET OF MATERIALS SUBMITTED BY SCDC IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE COURT'S AUGUST 5, 2011 ORDER

On August 5, 2011, this Court issued an order by which it ruled on a myriad of issues raised by the Appellants in their motion dated May 23, 2011. By their motion, the Appellants moved to include additional materials in the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal filed May 6, 2011 by the Respondent, the South Carolina Department of Corrections ["SCDC"].

The first deadline from the Court's August 5, 2011 Order appeared on page 19, and it required SCDC, by and through its undersigned counsel, to "[r]eview materials in its possession for any items identified by Appellants as inadvertently omitted from the Record and submit those materials" to the Court. By their filing dated August 29, 2011, SCDC's undersigned counsel submitted hard copies of these materials to the Court, and, accordingly, complied with the Court's directive from page 19 of the August 5, 2011 Order.

The second, and final, deadline from the Court's August 5, 2011 Order appeared on page 20, and it required SCDC, by and through its undersigned counsel, to "provide written verification to this Court and Appellants' counsel that it has taken the action ordered by the Court within the tables that appear on pages [17 through 19]" of its order.[1]

By their instant submission, SCDC's undersigned counsel hereby verifies that it has taken the action ordered by the Court within the tables which appear on pages 13 and 14 of the Court's August 5, 2011 Order.[2] Specifically, SCDC's undersigned counsel hereby respectfully submits with the instant narrative an amended version of the spreadsheet which appears at "Tab A" of Volume 1 of the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal filed May 6, 2011. This spreadsheet serves as a substitute for the spreadsheet which appears at "Tab A" of Volume 1, and, like the original version, it totals 30 pages. Each page is numbered sequentially from 1 to 30, and, before the page numbers, the following stamp appears: "Ackerman 9-6-11." The stamp allows the Court and counsel to distinguish this version of the spreadsheet from the version of the spreadsheet which appears at "Tab A" of Volume 1.

Finally, in satisfaction of the request made by Appellants' counsel in his letter dated August 30, 2011,[3] SCDC's undersigned counsel hereby respectfully submits with the instant narrative the three (3) pages of materials identified by Appellants' counsel in his letter. These three (3) pages serve as substitutes for pages 877 – 879 of the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal, all of which appear within "Tab E" of Volume 1. Each page is numbered sequentially from 877 to 879, and, before the page numbers, the following stamp appears: "Ackerman 9-6-

[1] The action referenced by the Court in its August 5, 2011 Order appears in the tables from pages 17 – 19 rather than pages 13 – 14.

[2] The corresponding stamp of the original version of the spreadsheet reads as follows: "Ackerman 5-6-11." The markings on the new version of the spreadsheet, like the original version, appear on the bottom right hand corner of each page.

[3] Appellants' counsel addressed his August 30, 2011 letter to SCDC's undersigned counsel, but he also sent a copy of his letter to this Court.

11." The stamp allows the Court and counsel to distinguish these pages from the pages which appear at "Tab D" of Volume 1.[4]

In light of their submission dated August 29, 2011 as well as their instant submission, SCDC's undersigned counsel respectfully submit that the provisions of the scheduling order which address substantive briefing and which appear on pages 20 and 21 of the Court's August 5, 2011 Order are now in effect.

Respectfully submitted,

[4] Again, the corresponding stamp of the original version of these pages read as follows: "Ackerman 5-6-11." Also, the markings in the three (3) pages of materials which accompany the instant narrative appear in the upper right hand corner of each page.

Appellants Francis Ackerman, et al. (inmates) respectfully submit their principal brief for the Level Two stage of this appeal.*

STATEMENT OF ISSUES ON APPEAL

1. Do inmates' grievances concern policies/procedures under §13.9 of SCDC's grievance policy because of the grievances' express language and substance, Adkins/Wicker, and notices of appeal, and was there a time limit to file under §13.9?

2. Was there reasonable cause under §13.9 not to file within the original time frame because, assuming inmates had grievance and appeal rights before Adkins/Wicker, they were effectively barred from exercising those rights, and was there a time limit to file under §13.9 after Adkins/Wicker?

3. Did SCDC's application of §13.1 violate due process because it cut off inmates' claims before they accrued and denied inmates a meaningful opportunity to file grievances before the bar took effect?

* The Court has instructed the parties to brief this appeal in three levels. Level Two shall consist of only the timeliness issues of step 1 grievances.

4. Did SCDC waive §13.1 because §13.9 and step 1 instructions were inconsistent with an intention to rely on §13.1, SCDC did not raise §13.1 until the step 2 appeal, and SCDC considered grievances on the merits before invoking §13.1?

5. Was SCDC estopped to raise §13.1 under principles of equitable estoppel?

6. Did inmates comply with §13.1 because it was tolled by their class action and they filed grievances no later than 15 days after the class action remittitur filing date or within 45 days of notice posting under the 2005 court order?

7. Did §13.1 require filing within 15 days after Adkins/Wicker, and if not, did inmates still comply with §13.1 because it was tolled while inmates were effectively barred from exercising any grievance and appeal rights they may have had before Adkins/Wicker, and after those decisions recognized such rights inmates filed their grievances within 15 days after the Adkins/Wicker remittitur filing date?

8. Did §13.1 require filing within 15 days after initial employment, and if not, did inmates still comply with §13.1 by filing during or within 15 days of a term of employment?

STATEMENT OF THE CASE*

This case involves 197 inmate grievances for prevailing wages under S.C. Code §24-3-430(D). Appellants are inmates and former inmates who worked in the Lieber/Williams Technologies (WTI) work program at various times between 1998 and present.

* The Statement of the Case contains a concise, uncontested history of the proceeding necessary to an understanding of this Level Two brief (ALC Rule 60 B(2). For Level Three, additional history may be stated.

 Work and grievance file dates are in Appendix 1 to this brief which inmates respectfully request to be included in the record on appeal (Order of Aug. 5, 2011, 19).

On January 29, 2002, inmate Darrell Williams filed a civil action for back wages earned in the program (SR & JN Document 12).* On July 1, 2002 and February 12, 2003, amended class action complaints were filed (SR & JN Documents 13-14).

On August 23, 2004, decisions were issued in Adkins, et al. v. SCDC 360 S.C. 413, 602 S.E. 2nd 51 (S.C., 2004) and Wicker v. SCDC 360 S.C. 421, 602 S.E. 2nd 56 (S.C., 2004), holding inmates could file a prevailing wage grievance and appeal to the Administrative Law Court (ALC). On September 9, 2004, the Court's remittiturs were filed in Circuit Court (SR & JN Document 15).

Beginning on September 22, 2004, 200 inmates retained undersigned counsel to file grievance, and many filed step 1 grievances that day. An April 2005 Circuit Court order found, "(O)n September 22, 2004, plaintiffs' counsel submitted nearly 200 grievances to SCDC's Inmate Grievance Coordinator at Lieber Correctional Institution" (SR & JN Document 16, p. 8). Certificates of Service document 94 filings on September 22, and 84 (plus 7 repeat filers) on September 30 (R, 877, 880). An additional 3 filed on September 22 and 23, and 17 at other times. Two (McNeill, Perez) apparently did not file grievances.

All grievances were denied by SCDC. On November 3, 2004, the Circuit Court stayed the grievance process. Also in early November, inmates filed step 2 appeals.

The 2005 order dismissed the class action and decertified the class (SR & JN Doc 16, p. 8). In May 2005, inmates appealed the order and SCDC invoked the automatic stay in SCACR 225 (SR & JN Doc 19-21). In February 2007, the Supreme Court affirmed the dismissal and the Court's remittitur was filed March 22, 2007 (SR & JN Doc 22).

* SR & JN means inmates request supplementing the record and judicial notice of the document numbered in Exhibit 2 to their May 23, 2011 motion to supplement record, herein incorporated by reference. All such documents are in Appendix 2 to this brief.

 R or Record means the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal.

On April 19, 2007, inmates filed 188 Amendments/Exhibits to their grievances pursuant to SCDC's in court agreement to accept them for filing and consider them on the merits (SR & JN, Doc 23-24, 30-31). A few inmates filed Amendments on their own as evidenced by certificates proposed for record inclusion (SR, Doc 41-48).

On or about May 21, 2007, the stay was lifted and the grievance process then resumed (R, e.g., 949). SCDC then issued final decisions to many step 2 appeals. Again, all grievances were denied. SCDC invoked the 15 day rule for "incident" grievances in §13.1 of Grievance Policy GA-01.12 (Record 328), contending inmates filed more than 15 days after initial employment and Adkins/Wicker (Record, e.g. 950).

From June 2007 to February 2008, counsel filed 116 appeals in the ALC. On November 7, 2008 and April 10, 2009, counsel filed 81 automatic appeals in the ALC. One inmate (S. Sanders) did not appeal.

The 2005 order directed SCDC to post notice that inmates who had not filed grievances had until 45 days after notice posting to do so (SR & JN Doc 16 p. 12-13). This notice was posted from October 20 to December 6, 2008 (SR Document 26).

ARGUMENT

1. Inmates' grievances concern policies/procedures under §13.9 of SCDC Grievance Policy because of their express language and substance, Adkins/Wicker, and notices of appeal, and there was no time limit to file under §13.9.

Inmates' primary contention is these were not "incident" grievances under §13.1, but grievances "concerning policies/procedures" under §13.9 with no time limit to file. Section 13.9 states, "(E)xceptions to the 15 day time limit requirement will be made for grievances concerning policies/procedures" (Record 330).

First, inmates note the express language of their grievances concerns policies/procedures. At least 92 step 1's state the following (Record, e.g. 1026):

> STATE GRIEVANCE (include documentation, and date of incident; if SCDC policy, indicate which policy)
> ..From 1999 to July 2001, WTI/Lieber were required by S.C. Code 24-3-430 to pay IE's the "prevailing wage"..Since July 2001, WTI/Lieber were required to pay IE's the negotiated wage of $4.00 per hour (Statutes at Large, No. 66, §37.31..Exh. B,C). In fact, WTI/Lieber's policy was to pay IE's, in most cases, under $1.00 per hour.

Moreover, all 188 Amendments to grievances have similar language (Record, e.g. 938):

> ..From 1999 to July 2001, §24-3-430 required WTI/Lieber to pay Grievant the prevailing wage..Since July 2001, WTI/Lieber were required to pay Grievant the negotiated wage of $4.00/hour (Stat. at Large, No. 66, §37.31; Exh. B,C). In fact, SCDC policy was to pay a maximum of about $1/hour, and usually less.

Second, the grievances concern policies/procedures in substance. SCDC wage policy is found in a 1998 contract with WTI and in various memos. These documents are attached as Exhibits B-E to Darrell Williams' grievance; incorporated by reference in the step 1's and Amendments quoted above; and Exhibit C is attached in part to the Amendments (R, 359-375; R, e.g., 938, 1026). The contract has two unlawful provisions, the $4/hour wage and a provision to pay "PI overhead" (R, 365). The $.35/hour base rate (R, 359), plus unauthorized (§24-3-40) overhead deductions, reduced inmates' pay to under $1/hour. This wage policy violated §24-3-430(D) from 1998 to 2001, and the $4/hour negotiated wage from 2001 to present. Inmates' grievances seek to set aside this illegal policy and enforce the public policy in §24-3-430(D) and Adkins/Wicker. Thus, these grievances "concern" and are based on policy entirely.

Third, Adkins/Wicker support inmates' position. In Bennie Wicker, #122304 v. SCDC Dock. No. 00-ALJ-04-00781-AP, Aug. 13, 2001, SCDC argued that Wicker's grievance was not grievable. The ALC disagreed, stating at page 2 of its opinion:

> Moreover, Wicker's wage dispute falls under the listed issues considered "grievable" under DOC policy at GA-01.12 (OP), Specific Procedures, paragraph 7: the first issue listed is Department policies/procedures, directives, or conditions > which directly affect an inmate. Wicker is directly affected by DOC's arrangement with private industry to pay inmates less than the "prevailing wage"..

In its March 10, 2011 order, this Court reached the same conclusion, stating at page 6 of its opinion:

> Unquestionably, inmates are "directly affected" by DOC policies that cause them to be paid less than that required by law. Thus, this provision, which is very broad in scope, encompasses prevailing wage claims.

The Adkins case is also instructive. In describing inmate wages, the Court stated at 602 S.E. 2nd 53:

> At the time of their initial employment, inmates were paid a .25/hour "training wage".[1] After 160 hours, they were paid a .75/hour "training wage".
> [1]The policy of paying a training wage ended July 1, 1999.

Adkins held inmates could grieve their illegal wages (602 S.E. 2nd at 55).

Inmates contend that several conclusions can be made from Adkins/Wicker: First, SCDC wage policy is the cause of illegal wages. Second, inmates may file a grievance to protest these wages. Third, such a grievance falls under §7.1 of SCDC grievance policy. And finally, if grievances protest illegal wages, which are caused by SCDC wage "policy", the grievances are probably "concerning policies/procedures" under §§7.1, 13.9 of grievance policy.

Fourth, the notices of appeal expressly challenge wage policy by "contesting SCDC policy/procedure of paying below prevailing/negotiated wages" (R, e.g. 956).

In conclusion, there should be no time limit to file. First, §13.9 has no limit. It excepts policy/procedure grievances from the 15 day rule, and provides no time limit in its place. As an exception to §13.1, §13.9 is removed "absolutely" from §13.1's operation (73 Am Jur 2nd (2001), Statutes, §212). Also, §13.9 is plain and unambiguous, and the courts should not change its terms (Wiggins v. Edwards 442 S.E. 2nd 169, 171 (S.C., 1994). Finally, SCDC's own application of §13.9 supports inmates' position. In its step 1 instructions (R, e.g. 935), SCDC directs inmates to:

> Submit the completed form to the Institutional Grievance Coordinator within fifteen (15) days of an alleged incident; policy grievances at any time.

In some final decisions, SCDC contends the inmate filed years after he started work (R, e.g. 950). Again, Adkins/Wicker are helpful. In Wicker, the courts upheld Wicker's grievance filed on April 19, 2000, over six months after his work (February 18 to October 8, 1999) had ended (Bennie Wicker, #122304 v. SCDC Dock. No. 00-ALJ-04-00781-AP, Aug. 13, 2001, Op. p. 4; Wicker's ALC Brief, filed Nov. 22, 2000, p. 1). In addition, the Adkins Court approved grievances to protest an SCDC wage "policy" of 1999, over five years in the past (602 S.E. 2nd at 53, note 1; 55). Although the timeliness issue was not presented in Adkins/Wicker, these rulings are entirely consistent with the view that policy grievances have no time limit to file.

Inmates submit that their grievances were "concerning policies/procedures" under §13.9, and there was no time limit to file. This rule applies to all inmate grievances. Inmates contend they had to file only once to cover all work in the past, present and future. This is because policy grievances can be filed at any time. Also, inmates are prohibited from filing repeated grievances on the same matter or for an issue previously addressed (R, 325,332). For inmates still working, the back pay period should include the time this case is on appeal until the Court's order is fully complied with by SCDC (45 C Am Jur 2nd (2002), Job Discrim., §§2596-2597). If the Court agrees, inmates respectfully request that briefing proceed to Level Three.

2. There was reasonable cause under §13.9 not to file within the original time frame because, assuming inmates had grievance and appeal rights before Adkins/Wicker, they were effectively barred from exercising those rights, and there was no time limit to file under §13.9 after Adkins/Wicker.

If the Court believes these were "incident" grievances, inmates contend there was reasonable cause under §13.9 not to file until Adkins/Wicker were decided, and also the 15 day rule in §13.1 did not apply. Section 13.9 (Record 330) provides:

> Exceptions may also be made for incident grievances..provided that documented reasonable cause can be demonstrated as to why the original time frame was not met..The waiver must be requested by the grievant.

Assuming inmates had grievance and appeal rights before Adkins/Wicker, they contend that SCDC's practice of denying grievability, as in Wicker, and McNeil's limitation of ALC jurisdiction to cases other than prevailing wage disputes, effectively barred them from exercising those rights before Adkins/Wicker (Court's order of March 10, 2011, 6; Bennie Wicker, #122304 v. SCDC Dock. No. 00-ALJ-04-00781-AP, August 13, 2001, 2; James E. McNeil, #147700 v. SCDC Dock. No. 00-ALJ-04-00336-AP, Sept. 5, 2001, 4-5)(en banc)(limiting ALC appeal jurisdiction to sentence/credits/custody and liberty interests); Yoder v. Nu-Enamel Corp. 145 F 2nd 420, 427 (CA 8, 1944)(limitations period could not run against a right while court decisions prevented enforcement of right); 51 Am Jur 2nd (2000), Limit., §§170, 210 (courts recognize limitations exception for inability to sue or exercise one's remedy).

In Al-Shabazz v. State 527 S.E. 2nd 742, 750 (S.C., 2000), the Court stated that due process "consists of notice, a hearing, and judicial review". For special appeals, the rules require compiling a record, briefing, and a "decision" rendered by the ALC (ALC Rules 58, 60-61, 65). Furthermore, a merits decision seems to be required by statute (S.C. Code §§1-23-600(E), 1-23-380(5).

On October 23, 2001, the ALC cited McNeil in dismissing an inmate's wage appeal for lack of subject matter jurisdiction (Willie Ingram, #83404 v. SCDC Dock. No. 01-ALJ-04-00190-AP, 1-2). Thus, while Ingram had "appealed" his wage dispute, the Court held it had no jurisdiction "to decide this matter". Inmates contend this should not be considered judicial review under Al-Shabazz or due process.

Dismissal in Ingram was apparently required by ALC Rule 70F. This rule states that issues addressed in an en banc decision, such as McNeil, are "binding" upon individual administrative law judges in subsequent cases unless a majority of judges determines otherwise. Rule 70F was effective on May 1, 2001, before McNeil was decided. After the McNeil en banc opinion was issued, the ALC dismissed McNeil's appeal stating the en banc opinion was "binding", citing Rule 70F (James E. McNeil, #147700 v. SCDC Dock. No. 00-ALJ-04-00336-AP, October 1, 2001 Order of Dismissal). Inmates contend that McNeil and Rule 70F prevented wage appeals from receiving a hearing and decision on the merits before Adkins/Wicker.

In sum, even if grievance and appeal rights pre-dated Adkins/Wicker, inmates contend they could not exercise those rights in any meaningful way or enforce wage claims to successful conclusion. For that reason, their claims should be held unaccrued and any limitations period tolled before that time (Bergstrom v. Palmetto Health Alliance 596 S.E. 2nd 42, 46 (S.C., 2004)(cause of action accrues when plaintiff has legal right to sue on it); Wooten v. Standard Life 122 S.E. 2nd 637, 640 (S.C., 1961)(cause of action accrues so as to start limitations period as soon as right to sue arises); King v. James 694 S.E. 2nd 35, 40 (S.C. App., 2010)(In analyzing a limitations defense, the fundamental test for determining whether a cause of action has accrued is whether the party asserting the claim can maintain an action to enforce it); 51 Am Jur 2nd (2000), Limitations, §148 (accrual occurs when claimant first may maintain an action to successful conclusion and is remediable in court).

Inmates contend that their inability to enforce any rights they had or grieve and appeal to successful conclusion before Adkins/Wicker should be considered reasonable cause for delayed filing under §13.9 of SCDC grievance policy.

There should also be no time limit to file after Adkins/Wicker. Again, §13.9 has no time limit. As with policy grievances, the reasonable cause provision in §13.9 is an exception to §13.1 and thus "absolutely" removed from §13.1's operation (73 Am Jur 2nd (2001), Statutes, §212). Section 13.9 is also plain and unambiguous, and the courts should not change its terms (Wiggins v. Edwards 442 S.E. 2nd 169, 171 (S.C., 1994). In addition, a time limit is contrary to SCDC's own application of §13.9, at least for policy grievances. Finally, as a limitations period §13.1 should be strictly limited in application to its express terms (S.C. Juris., vol. 26, Limit., §9). Reasonable cause is not a term in §13.1, so the 15 day rule should be limited to incident grievances without reasonable cause.

Inmates submit that their grievances were timely as there was reasonable cause under §13.9 and no time limit to file. This rule applies to all inmates' grievances. Inmates contend they had to file only once to cover all work in the past, present and future, as non-accrual of their claim excused pre-Adkins/Wicker compliance with §13.1 and there was no time limit to file after. Also, repeated grievances are prohibited, and back pay periods extend to the date of SCDC's compliance, for the reasons stated in issue 1, last paragraph. If the Court agrees, inmates respectfully request that briefing proceed to Level Three.

3. SCDC's application of §13.1 violated due process because it cut off inmates' claims before they accrued and denied inmates a meaningful opportunity to file grievances before the bar took effect.

If the Court believes these were "incident" grievances and §13.1 applied, inmates contend it violated due process. Due process requires that a limitations period afford a party a reasonable time to file suit considering the situation at hand. A limitation is not reasonable which does not afford full opportunity to sue before the bar takes effect (Hite v. West Columbia 66 S.E. 2nd 427, 429 (S.C., 1951); S.C. Juris., vol. 26, Limitations, §7; 51 Am Jur 2nd (2000), Limitations, §40). Due process requires an opportunity granted at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner for an appropriate hearing (Logan v. Zimmerman Brush Co. 102 S. Ct. 1148, 1159 (1982).

Inmates contend their claims did not accrue until Adkins/Wicker and could not have been enforced or filed successfully at an earlier time. See issue 2. However, SCDC applied §13.1 to pre-Adkins/Wicker claims. These applications denied inmates a meaningful opportunity to file before the bar took effect. It cannot be said that reasonable and meaningful opportunity to file is granted where claims, such as these, are cut off before they ever accrue.

Inmates submit that application of §13.1 denied them due process. This rule applies to all inmates who worked on or before September 9, 2004, the Adkins/Wicker remittitur date (SR & JN Document 15). Inmates contend they had to file only once to cover all work in the past, present, and future. This is because application of §13.1 to pre-Adkins/Wicker work violated due process and was thus ineffective. Also, repeated grievances are prohibited, and back pay periods extend to date of SCDC's compliance, for the reasons stated in issue 1, last paragraph. If the Court agrees, inmates respectfully request that briefing proceed to Level Three.

4. SCDC waived §13.1 because §13.9 and step 1 instructions were inconsistent with an intention to rely on §13.1, SCDC did not raise §13.1 until step 2 appeals, and SCDC considered these grievances on the merits before invoking §13.1.

If the Court believes these were "incident" grievances and §13.1 applied, inmates contend SCDC waived the right to raise it. In Anonymous Taxpayer v. Dept. of Revenue 377 S.C. 425, 661 S.E. 2nd 73, 80 (S.C., 2008), the Supreme Court stated how a party can waive the statute of limitations:

> A party can waive a statute of limitations defense, but the waiver must be shown by words or conduct, including an express agreement, failure to claim the defense, or any action or inaction inconsistent with an intention to use the statute of limitations defense.

A statute of limitations must be pleaded as an affirmative defense or it is waived (Glen v. School District 366 S.E. 2nd 47, 49 (S.C. App., 1988). Generally, the statute cannot be raised for the first time on appeal (Verizon Maryland, Inc. v. Global Naps, Inc. 377 F 3rd 355, 369 (CA 4, 2004). If a prison accepts and considers on the merits a late filing, it is considered timely (Ross v. County of Bernalillo 365 F 3rd 1181, 1186 (CA 10, 2004).

Here, at least 92 step 1's filed in September 2004, plus all 188 Amendments to grievances, expressly protested SCDC "policy" of paying below prevailing wages. See Record, e.g. 938, 1026. In addition, all inmates' grievances "concern" policy in substance, as discussed in issue 1.

When these grievances were filed, §13.9 provided that, "(E)xceptions to the 15 day time limit requirement will be made for grievances concerning policies/procedures"

(Record, 330). Section 13.9 provided no alternative time limit for policy grievances. Moreover, SCDC step 1 instructions directed inmates to file "policy grievances at any time" (Record, e.g. 935). As of 2004, this step 1 form had been in use and was last revised in November 1997 (Record, e.g. 981). Thus, the form was in effect the entire time this work program existed until grievances were filed.

Inmates contend §13.9 and the step 1 instructions were words, conduct, and actions which were inconsistent with an intent to raise §13.1 for grievances such as these, and waiver should apply.

In addition, for some 153 inmates SCDC failed to plead §13.1 in step 1 responses, and did so only on appeal in step 2 decisions (R, e.g. 936,950; 1897,1910; 2500,2517; 3105,3121; 3837,3852). Also, SCDC's step 1, 2, and responses all refer to step 2 as an "appeal" (R, e.g. 935,937,948,949). Moreover, step 2 instructions prohibited inmates from raising new issues in the step 2 appeal (Record, e.g. 948), as SCDC did by invoking §13.1. Inmates contend the same rule should apply to both parties. SCDC failed to plead §13.1 in its step 1 responses, and should be held to have waived it on appeal (Glen; Verizon Maryland, Inc.).

Finally, SCDC considered grievances on the merits before invoking §13.1. First, the step 1 responses which failed to plead §13.1 were merits decisions because they disputed inmates' claims for "employee" status, class grievance recognition, prevailing wage rates, overtime pay, interest, costs and attorney fees (R, e.g. 936-937, 1897-1898, 2500-2501, 3105-3106, 3837-3838). Thus, having accepted and considered on the merits these step 1's, SCDC should be held to have waived the right to raise §13.1 even if they were filed late (Ross).

Second, SCDC considered Amendments/Exhibits to grievances on the merits before invoking §13.1. The Amendments allege each inmate's work hours, but otherwise paraphrase much of the language in the 92 step 1's filed in September 2004 which protested SCDC "policy" (Record, e.g. 938,1026).

At an April 19, 2007 Circuit Court hearing on inmate's motion to allow filing of Amendments, SCDC agreed to file all Amendments/Exhibits and consider them on the merits (SR & JN Documents 23-24, 30-31). This became an order of the Circuit Court (SR & JN Document 24). The in court agreement is summarized in the following colloquy between Judge Williams and counsel at pages 19-20, 22, 26 of the April 19, 2007 transcript (SR & JN Document 23):

> The Court: Well, wait a minute. What is the harm and why won't the Department accept the delivery of the documents and just say, okay, we've got them and this is what we got but we're not going to consider it, if that's your position. Now it appears to me that your position is you're not going to consider any new---
> Mr. Summers: No, sir, I---
> The Court: ---new allegations made or any new evidence. It seems to me that's the crucial thing, whether it's filed or not filed.
>
> Mr. Summers: Well, sir, number one---
>
> The Court: But that gets it into the record, it protects the inmate, it protects Mr. Westbrook's position. And I mean, I've had things presented to me and I'll say, I'm sorry, you're out of the deadline, I'll mark it as an exhibit and hand it to the court reporter but I'm not going to consider it. Why can't you do that?
> Mr. Summers: Yes, sir, and I -- what I wanted to, hopefully I made that clear. I'm willing -- SCDC is willing to do that but there may be some confusion about some letter I sent in the context of what Mr. Westbrook was talking about. Again, we'll consider it, but as far as it restarting the clock, as far as it being an amendment in the context of a civil procedure ---
>
> The Court: So you're saying you will consider it?
>
> Mr. Summers: Oh, yes, sir.
> The Court: Well then what's the problem, Mr. Westbrook?
> Mr. Westbrook: Your Honor, he's told me in the letter October 19th they won't accept any of my grievances. If he will accept it ---

The Court: He's telling me now that he will physically accept whatever it is that you want to submit, and he's telling me now that they will consider whatever you submit on the merits but they will not go back and change any deadlines. And I don't ---

Mr. Summers: Or any submission dates from the original step one or step two grievance.

Mr. Westbrook: Your Honor, I'd like to know, I'd like -- can I -- will this be considered filing with the SCDC because, I mean, that's what the thing requires, not just giving to its lawyer. I want to file it with SCDC, Lieber Correctional, and these other ---

The Court: Will you accept service of filings on behalf of Department of Corrections?

Mr. Summers: Yes, sir, I will.

Mr. Westbrook: And just so I clarify the record, Your Honor, I'm going to tender Mr. Summers after we finish it's roughly 100 or 200 -- I'm not sure exact number. I think are at legal er original grievances with exhibits, and I'm also going to tender roughly 100 copies of amendments without exhibits for people whose grievances I have sent to other institutions and that's why in most cases I don't have those exhibits nor the original grievances so that's what I'm going to give him.

Mr. Summers: That will be fine, sir. I'll make sure it goes through general counsel and to grievance branch for management and placement in individual files.

After the hearing, undersigned counsel tendered to SCDC's counsel the original Amendments with Exhibits for Lieber inmate-clients, and copies of Amendments without Exhibits for non-Lieber inmate-clients. On April 25, 2007, undersigned mailed to SCDC's counsel the Exhibits for non-Lieber inmate-clients to pair up with Amendment copies hand-delivered on April 19. The Amendments/Exhibits tendered to SCDC on April 19 and 25 pertained to 188 inmates now on appeal.

Confirming letters were sent on April 25, 2007 to SCDC's counsel, and on June 4, 2007 to counsel with a copy to Judge Williams (SR & JN Documents 30-31). These letters confirmed: (1) the filing of inmates' Amendments/Exhibits whose names appeared on exhibits A and B to the April 25 letter, among which were 188 of the 197 appellants in this appeal; (2) SCDC's agreement to consider the merits of these Amendments/Exhibits with respect to each inmate's grievance; (3) SCDC's agreement to include all Amendments/Exhibits in the record for this appeal; and (4) a June 4, 2007 phone conference with Judge Williams, again confirming these matters with the Court. SCDC did not dispute or respond to anything confirmed in these letters.

In SCDC's record spreadsheet, some 180 Amendments are noted as having been filed (Record 1-30). However, the part of the record containing grievance documents shows that, of the 188 client/appellants who filed Amendments/Exhibits, some 38 Amendments are missing.* Also, some 58 Amendments in the record are missing various Exhibits. Fortunately, the missing Exhibits A, C, F, and H are in the record elsewhere (R, 31, 335,360,865). Inmates request that the record be supplemented with the missing Amendments, or in the alternative, that they be deemed filed on April 19, 2007 and considered on the merits by SCDC pursuant to the Circuit Court order of April 20, 2007 (SR & JN Document 23, pp. 19-20, 22, 26; Document 24).

Finally, there are some 32 step 1 responses, and 136 step 2 final decisions, which raised §13.1 and considered the merits by disputing the same claims discussed on page 13 above (32 step 1's: R, e.g. 1446-1447, 2095-2096, 2779-2780, 3066-3067, 3895-3896; 136 step 2's: R, e.g. 997-998, 1001-1002, 1659-1660, 2235-2236, 2555-2556, 3141-3142). Some 30 step 2 final decisions do not expressly dispute claims, but they "completely adopt and endorse" step 1 responses which do (R, e.g. 1085-1086, 1095).

* Aiken, #244428, Allen, H. Baker, Brannon, Brewer, E. Bryant, P. Bryant, Bude, Cobbs, Deveaux, English, Etheredge, Evans, C. Graham, J. Hayes, Hickenbottom, Joyner, Kelsey, Knight, Lambrose, Linen, Livingston, Martino, J. McFadden, E. Miller, Pressley, L. Richardson, Samuel Simmons, Sims, Singleton, Thomas, R. Wells, White, B. Williams, Derrick Williams, Witt, Wright, Youmous. Inmates' motion to supplement, Exhibit 3, incorrectly stated Amendments were missing for Austin, J. Williams, L. Wilson, Wojcik.

In analogous circumstances, cases apparently go both ways on the issue of whether a document that is rejected as both late and unmeritorious counts as properly filed (Pozo v. McCaughtry 286 F 3rd 1022, 1025 (CA 7, 2002). Inmates urge the Court to conclude that it does count as properly filed because SCDC's merits consideration of their grievances should trump its simultaneous assertion of §13.1.

Inmates contend that SCDC's merits consideration of their grievances in the above ways was inconsistent with an intent to rely on §13.1, and waiver should apply.

Inmates submit that SCDC waived §13.1 for all of the reasons stated herein. This rule should apply to all grievances because §13.9 and step 1 instructions were not consistent with an intent to rely on §13.1 for grievances such as these, which in form and substance were "policy" grievances. Waiver should also apply to all step 1 responses where SCDC failed to plead §13.1. Finally, waiver should apply to all grievances considered on the merits by SCDC in the following ways: (1) step 1 responses which failed to plead §13.1 but considered the merits by disputing inmates' claims; (2) considering inmates' Amendments/Exhibits on the merits before invoking §13.1; and (3) step 1 responses and step 2 final decisions which raised §13.1 and also considered the merits by disputing inmates' claims.

Inmates contend that they had to file only once to cover all work in the past, present, and future. This is because SCDC's waiver excuses compliance with §13.1 for pre-waiver work. For post-waiver work, repeated grievances are prohibited, and back pay periods extend to date of SCDC's compliance, for the reasons stated in issue 1, last paragraph. If the Court agrees, inmates respectfully request that briefing proceed to Level Three.

5. SCDC was estopped from raising §13.1 by equitable estoppel.

If the Court believes these were "incident" grievances and §13.1 applied, inmates contend SCDC was equitably estopped from raising it. In RWE Nukem Corp. v. ENSR Corp. 373 S.C. 190, 644 S.E. 2nd 730, 734 (S.C., 2007), the Supreme Court stated how a defendant can be estopped from raising the statute of limitations:

> A defendant may be estopped from claiming the statute of limitations as a defense if the delay that otherwise would give operation to the statute had been induced by the defendant's conduct (cite).

Earlier, the Court in Kleckley v. Northwestern Nat. Cas. Co. 338 S.C. 131, 526 S.E. 2nd 218, 220 (S.C., 2000) described the conduct which can create an estoppel:

> The defendant's conduct may also involve inducing the plaintiff either to believe that an amicable adjustment of the claim will be made without suit or to forbear exercising the right to sue.

An intentional misrepresentation is not required. It is sufficient if claimant reasonably relied on defendant's words or conduct in allowing the limitations period to expire (Hedgepath v. A.T.T. 348 S.C. 340, 559 S.E. 2nd 327, 338 (S.C. App., 2001).

Here, inmates and counsel reasonably believed these were "policy" grievances under §13.9 and/or step 1 instructions, and could be filed "at any time". The belief that these were policy grievances seems consistent with the ALC opinion in Wicker, and also this Court's March 10, 2011 order, to the effect that prevailing wage grievances fall within §7.1 of SCDC grievance policy (Bennie Wicker, #122304 v. SCDC Dock. No. 00-ALJ-04-00781-AP, Aug. 13, 2001, Op. p. 2; March 10, 2011 order, p. 6-7). See issue 1.

In Dillon County School v. Lewis Metal Works 332 S.E. 2nd 555, 561-562 (S.C. App., 1985), a school had sued to recover for the defective design and construction of a roof. Defendant raised the statute of limitations. School contended defendant's investigation of the roof, meetings, repair attempts and correspondence had lulled the school into a false sense of security and induced it to delay filing suit before the statute ran. The Court held a jury question existed as to whether defendant invited the very delay defendant now asserted as a defense.

In much the same way, inmates contend that §13.9 and/or step 1 instructions lulled them into a false sense of security that no limitations period applied to grievances such as these, and they could be filed "at any time".

Inmates submit that SCDC should be estopped from raising §13.1 in these cases. This rule applies to all grievances. Inmates contend they had to file only once to cover all work in the past, present and future. This is because SCDC's estoppel excuses compliance with §13.1 for pre-filing work. Post-filing work should also be covered because repeated grievances are prohibited, and back pay periods extend to date of SCDC's compliance, for the reasons stated in issue 1, last paragraph. If the Court agrees, inmates respectfully request that briefing proceed to Level Three.

6. Inmates complied with §13.1 because it was tolled by their class action and they filed grievances no later than 15 days after the class action remittitur filing date or within 45 days of notice posting under the 2005 order.

If the Court believes these were "incident" grievances and §13.1 applied, inmates contend it was tolled by their class action. In Crown, Cork & Seal Co. v. Parker 103 S. Ct. 2392, 2397-8 (1983), the Supreme Court held the filing of a class action tolls the statute of limitations as to all class members who timely file individual actions after class certification is denied. Since the plaintiff in that case did not receive a right to sue letter until after the class action was filed, he had the full 90 days to sue after class certification was denied (affirming, Parker v. Crown, Cork & Seal Co. 677 F 2nd 391, 394 (CA 4, 1982). See also Hunter v. American Gen. Life & Acc. Ins. Co. 384 F. Supp. 2nd 888 (D.S.C., 2005)(doctrine recognized).

Here, inmates' class action was filed on July 1, 2002, which itself was an amended complaint relating back to the original complaint of January 29, 2002 (SR & JN Documents 12-13). See SCRCP 15. Thus, under the above cases if §13.1 applied, it should be considered tolled on January 29, 2002.

In August 2004, Adkins/Wicker first recognized inmates' right to grieve and appeal wage disputes, thus removing the bar to exercise of any rights inmates had. In April 2005, the Circuit Court decertified the class and gave inmates who had not filed a grievance 45 days after notice posting to do so (SR & JN Document 16, p. 8,13). Inmates appealed this order, and SCDC invoked the automatic stay rule in SCACR 225 (SR & JN Documents 19-21). This stayed all matters decided and relief ordered, including decertification and the right to file grievances, for the "duration of the appeal" (SCACR 225). In February 2007, the Supreme Court affirmed the order, and the remittitur was filed on March 22, 2007 (SR & JN Document 22). From October 20 to December 6, 2008, SCDC posted the notice required by the order (SR Document 26).

Most grievances were filed in 2004 when the limitations period was tolled and before the class action order in 2005. A few were filed during the class action appeal and a few after. Inmates contend that since the bar to exercise of any rights they had was not removed until after the class action was filed, they had until 15 days after the remittitur filing date of March 22, 2007, or until April 6, 2007, to file grievances (Crown, Cork & Seal Co. v. Parker). See issue 7. For inmates not filed by April 6, 2007, the Circuit Court's order gave them until 45 days after notice posting, or until December 4, 2008 to file.

Inmates submit they timely filed under these rules since all step 1's were filed before December 4, 2008. For those who filed by April 6, 2007, work should be covered if performed within 15 days of filing date (not counting the period tolled from January 29, 2002 through March 22, 2007) and any term of employment existing during that period, or occurring thereafter, the latter since policy prohibits repeated grievances for the same matter (Calvin Byrd, #257319 v. SCDC Dock. No. 07-ALJ-04-00410-AP, Oct. 10, 2007, Op. 2; R, 325, 332). For example, if an inmate filed on March 23, 2007, all work from January 15, 2002 to March 23, 2007, and any term of employment existing during that period, or occurring thereafter, should be covered.

For those who filed on or after April 7, 2007, work should be covered if performed within 15 days of filing date and any term of employment existing during that period or occurring thereafter. Finally, back pay periods extend to date of SCDC's compliance for the reasons stated in issue 1, last paragraph. If the Court agrees, inmates respectfully request that briefing proceed to Level Three.

7. Section 13.1 did not require filing within 15 days after Adkins/Wicker, but inmates still complied with §13.1 because it was tolled while inmates were effectively barred from exercising any grievance and appeal rights they may have had before Adkins/Wicker, and after those decisions recognized such rights, inmates filed grievances within 15 days after the Adkins/Wicker remittitur filing date.

In its final decisions, SCDC contends inmates had to file within 15 days after the decisions in Adkins/Wicker (Record, e.g. 950). Inmates respectfully disagree for the reasons stated in issues 1 and 2. However, if the Court believes these were "incident" grievances and §13.1 applied, inmates contend they complied by filing within 15 days after the Adkins/Wicker remittitur filing date.

The legal obstacles to exercising any grievance and appeal rights inmates may have had (see issue 2) ended upon final disposition of Adkins/Wicker. Inmates contend that occurred when the remittitur in those cases was filed in Circuit Court on September 9, 2004 (SR & JN Document 15). Until then, these cases were still "pending" on appeal (J. Toal, Appellate Practice in South Carolina, p. 294, citing Christy v. Christy 452 S.E. 2nd 1, 4 (S.C. App., 1994); McDowell v. DSS 386 S.E. 2nd 280, 281 (S.C. App., 1989)(issue of timeliness of attorney fee petition within thirty days of case final disposition, held, final disposition occurred when remittitur was filed in Circuit Court, not on date of Court of Appeals' opinion); Brackenbrook v. County of Charleston 623 S.E. 2nd 91, 93 (S.C., 2005). SCDC itself observed the remittitur rule in its final decisions (Record, e.g. 949).

Inmates contend that all grievances filed within 15 days of the remittitur, or by September 24, 2004, were timely. At worst, under SCACR 221 the remittitur could not have been sent earlier than 15 days after the Adkins/Wicker opinion date (August 23, 2004), or September 7, 2004. Allowing a day for mailing and filing on September 8 would make all grievances filed within 15 days, or by September 23, 2004, timely.

These grievances should cover work performed within 15 days of the filing. They should also cover pre-remittitur work because §13.1 should not run against inmates' right to prevailing wages while legal obstacles barred the free exercise of any rights inmates had. See authorities discussed in issue 2. Post-filing work should also be covered since repeated grievances are prohibited, and back pay periods extend to the date of SCDC's compliance, for the reasons stated in issue 1, last paragraph. If the Court agrees, inmates respectfully request that briefing proceed to Level Three.

8. Section 13.1 did not require filing within 15 days after initial employment, but inmates still complied with §13.1 by filing during or within 15 days of a term of employment.

SCDC contends inmates had to file within 15 days of their initial employment in the program (Record, e.g. 950). Inmates respectfully disagree for the reasons stated in issues 1-3. However, if the Court believes these were "incident" grievances and §13.1 applied, inmates contend they complied by filing during or within 15 days of a term of employment.

If SCDC's contention is meant to require filings every pay period after the first, it could constitute a "misuse or abuse of the inmate grievance system" by the repeated filing of grievances on the same matter (Record, 325,332). This could lead to an SCDC "sanction" against filing multiple grievances (Record 332).

A similar provision was addressed in Calvin Byrd, #257319 v. SCDC Dock. No. 07-ALJ-04-00410-AP, Oct. 10, 2007, where the Court stated at page 2 of its opinion:

> Applying this policy provision to the instant matter would lead to an absurd result for this tribunal to find that an inmate must file a separate grievance for each day of work performed or for each pay period. A more logical result would be to interpret the policy so as to find that an inmate has timely filed a prevailing wage grievance if he filed during the course or term of employment, regardless of when he initially began employment with the prison industries program.

Here, some inmates clearly worked one continuous term of employment, and the records so reflect (e.g., Ackerman, R, 1; App. 1, 1). But for many, it is hard to determine if multiple terms were worked or when one term stops and the next begins. Often there is ambiguity or inconsistency on these issues. See Appendix 1. For example, some final decisions state "work assignments" in separate periods or with unexplained "interruptions" (e.g., Carter, App. 1, 6). Obviously, any number of issues can cause a disruption of work, e.g., illness, without terminating employment.

In addition, Exhibit F records may have occasional gaps, or apparent time lapses, between certain pay periods. These gaps appear to indicate separate periods of work in some cases. Obviously, this would not be true if the gaps were caused by computer error or some other reason. A comparison of Exhibit F with other SCDC records illustrates the discrepancy between them. As shown on Appendix 1, many inmates have multiple work periods for Exhibit F, while other SCDC document sources show single or fewer work periods for the same work.

Inmate James Bogan's Exhibit F is a good example. His Exhibit F shows two work periods, the first from July 14, 2003 to May 2, 2005, and the second from August 22, 2005 to November 14, 2005 (R, 2; App. 1, 3). There is an apparent 112 day gap between the two periods. However, as indicated on Appendix 1, Mr. Bogan's final decision and Officer Geathers' dates both show one period of continuous work from June 26, 2003 to November 2, 2005. The gap in Exhibit F could be caused by an error of exactly 8 pay periods: 112 days divided by 14 days per pay period = 8.

Moreover, for many inmates Exhibit F last pay dates are also disputed by other SCDC records. For example, inmate Baylor's Exhibit F shows a last pay date of December 17, 2001 (R, 2; App. 1, 2). Again as indicated on Appendix 1, other SCDC records show a last pay date of October 2, 2002 (Exhibit A in column 1), January 8, 2004 (Officer Geathers' dates in column 4), and January 12, 2005 (EWC in column 5).

In sum, Appendix 1 shows some 24 instances where other SCDC records state fewer work periods than Exhibit F (e.g., Bogan, Burke, Choice, Linen, Pringle). There are also about 26 inmates whose other records state more recent "last pay dates" than Exhibit F (e.g., Benninger, Deveaux, A. Scott, R. Scott, Sellers).

For these reasons, inmates contend the record does not show multiple terms of work, or at best the evidence is ambiguous. "Ambiguity" is uncertainty of meaning (Black's Law Dictionary, 8th ed., p. 88). Ambiguity should be resolved against a discriminating employer, and when it is impossible to reconstruct a claimant's work, back pay equal to the maximum amount which could have been earned but for the employer's discrimination is proper (45C Am Jur 2nd (2002), Job Discrim., §2607).

On this record, inmates request the Court to construe alleged multiple work periods as one term of employment for filing timeliness purposes. So construed, an inmates' work should be considered continuous from his first work day to the last regardless of alleged gaps or work periods.

Inmates contend that all step 1's filed during or within 15 days of completion of a term of employment should be considered timely regardless of when they began work (Calvin Byrd, #257319 v. SCDC). If the Court construes alleged multiple work periods as one term of employment, step 1's filed between periods should be timely, and all work covered, between an inmate's first and last work dates.

As reflected on Appendix 1, some 94 inmates filed step 1's while working. Of these 94, 89 filed on September 22 or 30, 2004 as documented in Certificates of Service (Record, 877,880). Inmates contend these 94 inmates should be entitled to back pay for the entire term of employment in which (or within 15 days of which) they filed (Calvin Byrd, #257319 v. SCDC). At a minimum, these inmates should receive back pay for the 15 days preceding the step 1 file date. Back pay periods extend to date of SCDC's compliance for the reasons stated in issue 1, last paragraph. If the Court agrees, inmates respectfully request that briefing proceed to Level Three.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, inmates respectfully request the following rulings from the Court:

For issue 1, inmates' grievances concern policies/procedures under §13.9 of SCDC grievance policy, with no time limit to file.

For issue 2, there was reasonable cause under §13.9 not to file within the original time frame because inmates were effectively barred from exercising any grievance and appeal rights they may have had before Adkins/Wicker, and there was no time limit to file under §13.9 after Adkins/Wicker.

For issue 3, SCDC's application of §13.1 to pre-Adkins/Wicker work violated due process because it cut off inmates' claims before they accrued and denied inmates a meaningful opportunity to file grievances before the bar took effect.

For issue 4, SCDC waived §13.1 because §13.9 and step 1 instructions were not consistent with an intent to rely on §13.1, SCDC did not raise §13.1 until step 2 appeals, and SCDC considered grievances on the merits in the ways stated on page 17.

For issue 5, SCDC was equitably estopped from raising §13.1.

For issue 6, inmates complied with §13.1 because it was tolled by their class action and they filed grievances no later than 15 days after the class action remittitur filing date or within 45 days of notice posting.

For issue 7, inmates complied with §13.1 because it was tolled while inmates were effectively barred from exercising any grievance and appeal rights they may have had before Adkins/Wicker, and after those decisions recognized such rights inmates filed grievances within 15 days after the Adkins/Wicker remittitur filing date.

For issue 8, inmates complied with §13.1 by filing during or within 15 days of a term of employment.

For issues 1-5, 7, grievances covered all work in the past, present, and future up to the date of SCDC's compliance with the Court's order.

For issue 6, where inmates filed by April 6, 2007, work is covered if performed within 15 days of filing date (not counting the period tolled from January 29, 2002 through March 22, 2007) and any term of employment existing during that period or occurring thereafter up to date of compliance with the Court's order. For inmates not filed by April 6, 2007, they had until December 4, 2008 to file. For those filing on or after April 7, 2007, work is covered if performed within 15 days of filing date and any term of employment existing during that period or occurring thereafter up to date of SCDC's compliance with the Court's order.

For issue 8, grievances filed during or within 15 days of a term of employment cover, for a first alternative, all work from inmates' first to last work dates; for a second alternative, all work during the term of employment in which (or within 15 days of which) inmates filed; for a third alternative, all work within 15 days of filing.

If the Court agrees with inmates on one or more of the above issues 1-8, inmates respectfully request that briefing proceed to Level Three.

Notes

1. Exhibit A is an SCDC Prison Industries list of employees for this work program as of June 24, 2004. Many inmates worked past this date. The list has "hired" and "released" work dates for each employee. It is appended to Darrell Williams' September 22, 2004 grievance. It is also incorporated by reference in many step 1's and is in part an exhibit to all Amendments to grievances. As to inclusion in the record, Exhibit A is found in the 1st Supplemental Record on Appeal at R, 335-358.

2. Exhibit F is an SCDC Prison Industries list of employees in the program through May 31, 2004, updated to March 28, 2011. Many inmates worked past this date. Exhibit F purports to contain all pay dates, pay rates, hours, and pay amounts for each worker from start to finish. It is appended to the Williams grievance and is incorporated by reference in many step 1's. It is also in part an exhibit to the Amendments. Parentheses enclosing multiple work periods means SCDC has combined them into one period in its March 28, 2011 update. Work dates on Exhibit F to March 28, 2011 are stated to "present" on Appendix 1. As time moves on, this could prove incorrect for some inmates. As to inclusion in the record, Exhib F is found at R, 31-312.

3. Final decision means SCDC's final step 2 decision. Many of these contain the inmate's start/stop work dates. Final decisions appear with each inmate's grievance papers in the record at R, 934-3911.

4. Officer Geathers' work start/stop dates are stated in SCDC's August 8, 2008 spreadsheet (SR Doc 8).* These dates are identical to the dates in the record spreadsheet's two columns designated "start/end date per SCDC grievance response(s)" (R, 1-30). Appendix 1 designates them "O. Geathers' start/stop dates" because they were designated in SCDC's August 8, 2008 spreadsheet as "PI start/end date Gethers". Where the August 8, 2008 and record spreadsheets use the term, "active", Appendix 1 uses "present" to indicate that work may well be continuing to the present time. This could prove incorrect in any given case.

5. EWC means SCDC's earned work credit assignment record. These have the inmate's job description, work start/stop dates, and termination reason. As to the record, inmates request supplementing the record with selected EWC's (those selected for column 9 on Appendix 1), consisting of 125 pages (SR Doc 9).

6. 19-54's are records supposedly generated with each new hire or termination. Abbreviations "st" and "sp" mean "start" and "stop". Inmates request supplementing the record with selected 19-54's (those selected for column 9 on Appendix 1), consisting of 87 pages (SR Doc 10).

* SR means inmates request supplementing the record with the document numbered in Exhibit 2 to their May 23, 2011 motion to supplement record, herein incorporated by reference. All such documents are in Appendix 2 to this brief.

7. Most step 1's were filed in September 2004. Certificates of Service show 94 inmates filed on September 22, and 84 (plus 7 repeat filers) on September 30. See R, 877, 880. These dates are reflected on Appendix 1 in column 7. (Appendix 1 - "Exhibit 1" to the motion to supplement record - "9-22-04 or 9-30-04" dates were changed to "9-30-04" due to substitution of equitable estoppel for judicial estoppel in issue 5) An additional 20 inmates filed at other times. Under the file dates on Appendix 1 are the issue numbers in inmates' brief which discuss or support timeliness of the filing.

8. Column 8 on Appendix 1 is left blank since step 2 file dates are not an issue for the Level Two brief.

9. Appendix 1 has start/stop dates and pay date information from the SCDC source documents in columns 1-6. Inmates contend these sources create ambiguity as to correct dates because they often disagree on work periods or dates within periods. For this reason, the suggested dates in this column 9 are the most complete dates stated in the preceding columns (45C Am Jur 2nd (2002), Job Discrim., §2607) (Ambiguity should be resolved against a discriminating employer and when it is impossible to reconstruct a claimant's work, back pay equal to the maximum amount which could have been earned but for the employer's discrimination is proper). Dates from preceding columns are underlined for easy reference. Work periods to "present" in column 9 may be ended in some cases as these are based on 2007-2008 records. Column 9 dates may have errors due to disagreement among source documents in columns 1-6.

10. Work periods overlapping or ending and resuming within a short time were combined, as it seems unlikely a rehiring or new term of employment was required. Inmates contend this conclusion is supported by the rule in note 9, and also SCDC's combining many previously stated multiple periods into one in its March 28, 2011 update of Exhibit F.

AMENDED COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs, complaining of the Defendants, would show unto the Court as follows:

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(S.C. CODE 24-3-430)

41

1. The Plaintiffs are present and former inmates at Lieber Correctional Institution in Dorchester County, South Carolina, who, during the period 1999 to present, have been employed by Williams Technologies, Inc. in a prison industries service work program. Plaintiffs' work involved the disassembly of used transmissions, cleaning the parts, and returning them to the companies from whence they came.

2. The Defendant South Carolina Department of Corrections (SCDC) is the South Carolina State agency which operates and maintains the prison system, including the Lieber Correctional Institution.

3. The Defendant Williams Technologies, Inc. (Williams) is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of South Carolina, is authorized and does business in Dorchester County, South Carolina, and at all times material to this action was the employer of the Plaintiffs at Lieber Correctional Institution in a prison industries service work program established pursuant to S.C. Code 24-3-430(A).

4. This Honorable Court has jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter herein pursuant to S.C. Constitution, Art. V, Sec. 11; S.C. Code 24-3-430; 15-78-100(b); 41-10-10, et seq.; and the common law of South Carolina. Also, venue is proper in Dorchester County, South Carolina pursuant to S.C. Code 15-78-100(b), which requires that any action be brought in the county where the act or omission occurred.

5. Plaintiff Darrell Williams brings this action on his own behalf, and pursuant to South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure 23, as representative of a class defined as follows:

> All inmates, past and present, who, since Jul. 01, 1999, have worked in the Williams/Lieber service work program.

6. The members of the Plaintiff class are so numerous as to make joinder of all members impractical. The precise number of members is unknown, however, it is believed that class membership will exceed dozens if not hundreds of people. Many members, on information and belief, will be ascertainable from information and records in possession of the Defendants.

7. There are questions of law and fact common to Plaintiff Williams and to all members of the Plaintiff class. Such questions, on information and belief, will predominate over questions affecting the individual Plaintiff or members of Plaintiff class, as the unlawful activity alleged herein is generally applicable to Plaintiff Williams and all class members. Among the questions of law and fact common to Plaintiff Williams and the class are:

(a) Whether Defendants paid Plaintiffs the correct wages under prevailing law;

(b) Whether Defendants made the correct deductions from wages under prevailing law;

(c) Whether, if Defendants failed to pay the correct wages, such failure constitutes gross negligence under the Tort Claims Act;

(d) Whether Williams was Plaintiffs' employer, and SCDC Williams' "agent", under S.C. Code 41-10-10(1);

(e) Whether SCDC and Williams should be enjoined from future violations, and mandated to pay Plaintiffs back wages.

8. Plaintiff Williams' claims are typical of the claims of the members of the Plaintiff class; they have all worked in the Williams/Lieber service work program, and on information and belief, have been underpaid under prevailing law.

9. Plaintiff Williams will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Plaintiff class, in that his interests are consistent with, and not antagonistic with, those of the Plaintiff class.

10. The amount in controversy exceeds $100 for each member of the class.

11. Class action treatment of the matters at issue is superior to the alternative, because it will permit a large number of persons to prosecute their claims in a single forum, at one time, without the duplication of effort and expense that individual actions would involve.

12. Plaintiff Williams is aware of no difficulty in the management of this action as a class action to prevent it from being maintained.

13. Pursuant to S.C. Code 24-3-315, 430, the Director of the SCDC may establish, and in fact did establish with Williams from 1999 to present, a program involving the use of inmate labor in private industry for the provision of services; the Director may enter into, and in fact did enter into with Williams, contracts necessary to implement this program; the Director must determine prior to using inmate labor that the rates of pay and other conditions of employment are not less than those paid and provided for work of similar nature in the locality in which the work is performed; and, no inmate participating in the program may earn less than the prevailing wage for work of similar nature in the private sector.

14. Pursuant to Statutes at Large, No. 66, Section 37.31, effective July 1, 2001; and No. 289, Section 37.25, effective July 1, 2002, the Department of Corrections may negotiate the wage to be paid for prison industry service work, which wage may be less than the prevailing wage for work of a similar nature in the private sector.

15. Pursuant to S.C. Code 24-3-430(H) and 24-3-40(1)-(6), the Director of SCDC is required to deduct the following amounts from gross wages of the inmate:

(a) 20%, for any court ordered victim assistance, or to the State Office of Victim Assistance;

4966 45

(b) 35%, for any court ordered or agreed upon child support;

(c) 25%, for room and board, if there are no child support obligations;

(d) 10%, to the inmate, if there are no child support obligations;

(e) 10%, to the inmate, for purchase of incidentals;

(f) 10%, held in escrow for the inmate;

(g) balance for any taxes required by law;

(h) balance to the inmate.

16. Pursuant to S.C. Code 24-3-40(B), the SCDC is required to return an inmate's wages held in escrow as follows:

(a) An inmate released without community supervision must be given his escrowed wages upon release;

(b) An inmate serving a life or death sentence must be given the option of having his escrowed wages included in his estate, or distributed to the persons of his choice;

(c) An inmate released to community supervision shall receive $200, or the escrow balance, whichever is less, upon release, with any remaining balance to be used by the inmate's probation officer to supply inmate's needs, and disburse the remainder to the inmate at the end of the supervision period.

17. During the period from 1999 to present, Plaintiff inmates have at all times performed the work required of them during their employment in the Williams/Lieber service work program.

18. The SCDC and Williams, in violation of law, have failed to pay Plaintiffs the proper compensation to which they were entitled, to wit:

(a) By paying them, in most cases, less than $1.00 per hour, instead of the required prevailing wage for work of similar nature in the private sector; or the negotiated wage, as applicable to each inmate;

(b) In failing to make the required deductions and disbursements, or the correct ones, from gross wages, as applicable to each inmate; and

(c) In failing to return to released and life/death sentence inmates their proper wages held in escrow, as applicable to each inmate.

19. The SCDC and Williams have, by virtue of their failure to pay Plaintiffs the correct wages, become indebted to them in an amount to be determined by the Court.

20. As a direct and proximate result of the aforesaid violation, Plaintiffs have incurred, and are entitled to judgment against the Defendants, for lost wages in an amount to be determined by the Court; pre-judgment and post-judgment interest; costs; attorney fees under S.C. Code 15-77-300; and such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(S.C. TORT CLAIMS ACT, NEGLIGENCE)

21. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations in paragraphs 1-20 above.

22. Defendant SCDC is a political agency, entity, body, and/or subdivision of the State of South Carolina, and as such, is subject to this action pursuant to the South Carolina Tort Claims Act, 15-78-10, et seq.

23. Pursuant to S.C. Code 24-3-40, 315, 420, and 430(D), the Defendants SCDC and Williams had the following statutory duties of care with respect to the Plaintiffs:

(a) To assure that Plaintiffs' rates of pay were not less than those paid for similar work in the locality, or not less than the negotiated rate;

(b) To assure the correct deductions and disbursements were made from Plaintiffs' gross wages; and

(c) To assure that released and life/death sentence inmates were paid the correct amounts from their escrow accounts.

24. The SCDC and Williams, through their agents and servants, were negligent, willful, wanton, careless, reckless, grossly negligent, and negligent per se at the time and places mentioned, in one or more of the following particulars:

(a) In failing to pay Plaintiffs the aforesaid prevailing locality wage, or the negotiated rate;

4969 48

(b) In failing to make the aforesaid correct deductions and disbursements from gross wages; and

(c) In failing to return to released and life/death sentence inmates the correct wages from escrow.

25. Pursuant to S.C. Code 15-78-40, the SCDC, as an agency of the State of South Carolina, has consented to be sued for its negligent and tortious conduct, as if a private individual, and is liable to the Plaintiffs for the injuries and damages resulting from the aforesaid conduct, which occurred within the scope of SCDC's employees' official duties and within the course of their employment.

26. (b) Keep records of names and addresses of all employees, wages paid each payday, and deductions made for three years (41-10-30(B));

(c) Furnish each employee an itemized statement showing gross pay and deductions from pay for each pay period (41-10-30(C));

(d) Not improperly withhold or divert any portion of an employee's pay (41-10-40(C));

(a) First Cause of Action, for lost wages in amounts to be determined by the Court; pre-judgment and post-judgment interest; costs; attorney fees under S.C. Code 15-77-300; and such further relief as the Court deems just and proper;

(b) Second Cause of Action, for lost wages in amounts to be determined by the Court; post-judgment interest; costs; and such further relief as the Court deems just and proper;

(c) Third Cause of Action, three times the full amount of unpaid wages, in amounts to be determined by the Court; pre-judgment and post-judgment interest; costs; and attorney fees under S.C. Code 41-10-80(C) and 15-77-300.

JUSTICE WALLER: This case involves interpretation of S.C. Code Ann. Sections 24-3-40, 24-3-410, and 24-3-430 (Supp. 2002) (the Prevailing Wage statutes). Appellants, Inmates confined within the South Carolina Department of Corrections (DOC), instituted this action asserting they were entitled to certain wages pursuant to the statutes. The circuit court ruled the statutes provided no private right of action for Inmates. We affirm in result.

FACTS

Inmates, while housed at Tyger River Correctional Institute, were employed in a Prison Industries/Private Sector Program, for Standard Plywoods, making "Anderson Hardwood Floors." At the time of their initial employment, Inmates were paid a .25 per hour "training wage." After 160 hours, they were paid a .75 per hour "training wage."[1] After completion of 320 hours, Inmates were paid the minimum wage of $5.15 per hour.

Inmates filed this Tort Claims action,[2] maintaining their training wages and hourly wages did not satisfy the Prevailing Wage statute, S.C. Code Ann. § 24-3-430(D);[3] they contended the prevailing wage for work of a similar nature ranged from $9.00-$14.00 per hour, and that DOC's failure to pay wages in accordance with the statute was grossly negligent.

The circuit court ruled the applicable statutes did not give rise to a private cause of action in Inmates. The court further held the DOC was paying Inmates in accordance with the statutes, and that, in any event, Inmates had not established DOC's method of payment was grossly negligent, as required to maintain a Tort Claims action.

ISSUE[4]

Did the circuit court err in holding the Prevailing Wage statutes did not create a private right of action in Inmates?

DISCUSSION

In 1995, the General Assembly enacted § 24-3-430, authorizing the DOC to use inmate labor in private industry. Section 24-3-430 provides:

[1] The policy of paying a training wage ended July 1, 1999.

[2] S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-10 et seq.

[3] Section 24-3-430 (D) provides that "[n]o inmate participating in the program may earn less than the prevailing wage for work of similar nature in the private sector."

[4] In light of our holding, we need not address Inmates' claim that the trial court erred in denying their motion to transfer the case to the jury roster.

(A) The Director of the Department of Corrections may establish a program involving the use of inmate labor by a nonprofit organization or in private industry for the manufacturing and processing of goods, wares, or merchandise or the provision of services or another business or commercial enterprise considered by the director to enhance the general welfare of South Carolina. . . . Inmates participating in such labor shall not benefit in any manner contradictory to existing statutes.

(B) The director may enter into contracts necessary to implement this program. The contractual agreements may include rental or lease agreements for state buildings or portions of them on the grounds of an institution or a facility of the Department of Corrections and provide for reasonable access to and egress from the building to establish and operate a facility.

(C) An inmate may participate in the program established pursuant to this section only on a voluntary basis and only after he has been informed of the conditions of his employment.

(D) No inmate participating in the program may earn less than the prevailing wage for work of similar nature in the private sector.

(E) Inmate participation in the program may not result in the displacement of employed workers in the State of South Carolina and may not impair existing contracts for services.

(F) Nothing contained in this section restores, in whole or in part, the civil rights of an inmate. No inmate compensated for participation in the program is considered an employee of the State.

(G) No inmate who participates in a project designated by the Director of the Bureau of Justice Assistance pursuant to Public Law 90-351 is eligible for unemployment compensation upon termination from the program.

(H) The earnings of an inmate authorized to work at paid employment pursuant to this section must be paid directly to the Department of Corrections and applied as provided under Section 24-3-40.[5]

Inmates assert the circuit court erred in ruling the "the prevailing wage statute did not create a right to sue for [them] and was not enacted for [their] benefit."

Initially, we note that the DOC's failure to pay a certain wage simply does not constitute a tort so as to be cognizable under the Tort Claims Act. Further, even if this were a Tort Claims case, the circuit court correctly ruled the DOC was immune from liability under S.C. Code Ann. § 15-78-60(5)(governmental entity not liable for loss resulting from the exercise of discretion or judgment by the governmental entity or employee or the performance or failure to perform any act or service which is in the discretion or judgment of the governmental entity or employee). In any event, we agree with the circuit court that the statutes relied upon by Inmates do not give rise to a private, civil cause of action.

The primary consideration in deciding whether a private cause of action should be implied under a criminal statute is legislative intent. Dorman v. Aiken Communications, Inc., 303 S.C. 63, 398 S.E.2d 687 (1990). "The legislative intent to grant or withhold a private right of action for violation of a statute or the failure to perform a statutory duty, is determined primarily from the language of the statute. . . . In this respect, the general rule is that a statute which does not purport to establish a civil liability, but merely makes provision to secure the safety or welfare of the public as an entity is not subject to a construction establishing a civil liability." Whitworth v. Fast Fare Markets of South Carolina, Inc., 289 S.C. 418, 420, 338 S.E.2d 155, 156 (1985). Where a statute does not specifically create a private cause of action, one can be implied only if the legislation was enacted for the special benefit of a private party. Citizens for Lee County v. Lee County, 308 S.C. 23, 416 S.E.2d 641 (1992) (emphasis supplied). Given that the overall purpose of the prevailing wage statute is to prevent unfair competition, and to aid society and the public in general, we cannot conclude that the statutes in question were enacted for the special benefit of Inmates.

Section 24-3-410 is entitled "Sale of prison-made products on open market generally prohibited; penalties." Violation of the statute is a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, a person must be fined not less than two hundred nor more than five thousand dollars or imprisoned for not less than three months nor more than one year, or both. S.C. Code Ann. § 24-3-410(C). Although section 24-3-430 does not specifically set forth criminal penalties, section 24-3-420 states that "Any person who willfully violates any of the provisions of this article other than § 24-3-410 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be confined in jail not less than ten days nor more than one year, or fined not less than ten dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or both, in the discretion of the court." Nothing in the statutes indicates a legislative intent to create civil liability for a violation of the statutes. Accordingly, they do not give rise to a private right of action.[6] Cf., Linder v. Insurance Claims Consultants, Inc., 348 S.C. 477, 560 S.E.2d 612 (2002) (criminal statutes which prohibit unauthorized practice of law do not give rise to private right of action); Dorman v. Aiken Communications, Inc., 303 S.C. 63, 398 S.E.2d 687 (1990) (construing § 16-3-730, prohibiting publication of name of victim of criminal sexual conduct, as a criminal statute created primarily for the protection of the public, such that it does not create a private right of action).[7] [6] The trial court relied upon federal cases interpreting the Ashurst-Sumners Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1761, to support its findings that the prevailing wage statute does not give rise to a private cause of action in inmates. In light of our holding, we need not address federal caselaw. However, we note the trial court's ruling is supported by the caselaw. See Harker v. State Use Industries, 990 F.2d 131 (4th Cir.), cert. denied 510 U.S. 886 (1993); McMaster v. Minnesota, 819 F.Supp. 1429 (D. Minn. 1993).

[7] The concurrence would hold inmates have a private cause of action under the South Carolina Payment of Wages Act. S.C. Code Ann. §§ 41-10-10, et seq. (Supp. 2003). However, S.C. Code Ann. § 41-10-80(C) provides that "[i]n case of any failure to pay wages due to an employee . . . the employee may recover in a civil action." Notably, section 24-3-430 (F) of the Prevailing Wage statute specifically states that "[n]o inmate compensated for participation in the program is considered an employee of the State." (emphasis added). In my view, this further evinces a legislative intent not to create a private right of action.

However, notwithstanding our holding that Inmates have no private civil cause of action, they are not without a remedy. In accordance with the companion case of Wicker v. State, Op. No. 25859 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed August 23, 2004), we hold Inmates may file an inmate grievance to protest DOC's failure to pay wages in accordance with the mandatory statutory provisions.

AFFIRMED IN RESULT.

TOAL, C.J., MOORE and BURNETT, JJ., concur. PLEICONES, J., concurring in a separate opinion.

JUSTICE PLEICONES: I agree with the majority that the inmates in this matter do not have a cause of action under the Tort Claims Act. I conclude, however, that the Prevailing Wage Statute[8] was intended for the benefit of the Inmates.[9] Citizens for Lee County v. Lee County, 308 S.C. 23, 416 S.E.2d 641 (1992). In my opinion, the fact that the Legislature provided for the distribution of part of these wages to pay the inmate's legal obligations while incarcerated, and included a provision providing for the return of the wages escrowed for the inmate's benefit upon his release, is evidence that § 24-3-430 was intended for the welfare of the inmate, not the general public. S.C. Code Ann. § 24-3-40 (Supp. 2003). I would hold that an inmate who claims not to have been paid the prevailing wage is entitled to proceed under the South Carolina Payment of Wages Act. S.C. Code Ann. §§ 41-10-10, et seq. (Supp. 2003).[10] Accordingly, I concur in the majority's decision upholding the circuit court's dismissal of this Tort Claims suit, but do not join the holding that the inmates' remedy is an administrative grievance.

[8] S.C. Code Ann. § 24-3-430 (Supp. 2003).

[9] I agree that it was also intended for the benefit of private industries whose products or services could be impacted if unfair competition resulted from underpayment of wages to inmate laborers.

[10] Under the Payment of Wages Act, "Employer" is defined to include the employer and that employer's agents. § 41-10-10(1). The Prison Industries Act provides "the employer of a prisoner authorized to work . . . in a prison industry program . . . shall pay the wages directly to the Department of Corrections . . ." and then requires the Department to distribute those wages. § 24-3-40. In my opinion, the Department of Corrections, as agent of the employer, is subject to an inmate's claim made pursuant to the Payment of Wages Act.

AFFIRMED

Appeal From Newberry County
James W. Johnson, Jr., Circuit Court Judge

Opinion No. 25859
Submitted April 21, 2004 - Filed August 23, 2004

Lake Eric Summers, of Vinton D. Lide & Associates, of Lexington, for Appellant.

Bennie Wicker, Jr., of Bennettsville, pro se.

JUSTICE WALLER: This is a direct appeal from an order of the circuit court which affirmed the decision of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). The ALJ held that Respondent, Bennie Wicker, was entitled to be compensated the prevailing wage of $5.25 per hour for the time he was in training for his employment at the South Carolina Department of Corrections (DOC) Division of Prison Industries. We affirm.

FACTS

Wicker, while an inmate at Evans Correctional Institute, participated in the Prison Industries Program. During the first 320 hours of his employment, he was paid .25-.75 per hour; he was thereafter paid an hourly wage of $5.25. He filed an inmate grievance contending his training wages violated the Prevailing Wage Statute, S.C. Code Ann. § 24-3-430(D) (Supp. 2002). The DOC denied his appeal, and he appealed to the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). The ALJ reversed the DOC's decision, finding Wicker was entitled to the prevailing wage during his first 320 hours of employment, and finding no authority for the DOC to deviate from the plain requirement of § 24-3-430. Accordingly, the DOC was ordered to compensate Wicker at a rate of $5.25 per hour for his first 320 hours of work. The circuit court affirmed.

ISSUE

Did the circuit court err in holding Wicker was entitled to a $5.25 per hour training wage?

DISCUSSION

The statutes under which Wicker seeks relief are part of a statutory scheme creating a Prison Industries (PI) program to provide for employment of convicts and utilize their labor for self-maintenance and reimbursement of expenses. See S.C. Code Ann. § 24-3-310 (Supp. 2003). In 1995, the General Assembly enacted S.C. Code Ann. § 24-3-430, authorizing the DOC to use inmate labor in private industry. Section 24-3-430 (D) provides that, "[n]o inmate participating in the program may earn less than the prevailing wage for work of similar nature in the private sector." Wicker filed an inmate grievance with the DOC, alleging his training wage of .25-.75 per hour was in violation of the statute. The DOC denied his grievance and he appealed to the ALJ, who reversed. The ALJ found no statutory authority for DOC to pay Wicker less than the prevailing wage; the circuit court affirmed.

The DOC appeals, contending the statutes under which Wicker seeks relief do not entitle him to the prevailing wage, and asserting the ALJ was without subject-matter jurisdiction to hear his appeal.

As recognized in the companion case of Adkins v. South Carolina Dep't of Corrections, Op. No. 25860 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed August 23, 2004), we agree with the DOC that section 24-3-430 (D) does not give rise to a private, civil cause of action in Wicker. However, simply because Wicker may not file a civil claim for damages in circuit court does not mean he is without any remedy. There are numerous issues relating to inmates which, although not giving rise to a private, civil cause of action, are nonetheless grievable through DOC's internal grievance processes. For example, although inmates may not sue for civil damages on matters relating to parole, work release, or work credits, they may enforce such rights via DOC grievance procedures. We find no reason such procedures should not apply when an inmate challenges the wages he or she is being paid, particularly where there is a statute mandating payment of the prevailing wage. Accordingly, we hold that although Wicker has no claim for civil damages, he properly filed a grievance with the DOC.

The DOC also contends, citing the ALJD's en banc decision in McNeil v. South Carolina Dept. of Corrections, 02-ALJ-04-00336-AP (filed Sept. 5, 2001), that the ALJ was without subject-matter jurisdiction to review its denial of Wicker's grievance. We disagree.

We find that where, as here, the state has created a statutory right to the payment of a prevailing wage, it cannot thereafter deny that right without affording due process of law. Cf. Piatt v. MacDougall, 773 F.2d 1032, 1036 (9th Cir. 1985) (where state has established, by statute, a right of inmates to compensation for work performed for private parties, it cannot deny that right after they earned the wages, without affording due process of the law); Borror v. White, 377 F. Supp. 181 (W.D.Va.1974) (although there was no federal constitutional right to payment, inmate might be entitled to such compensation under state statute).

We are not unmindful of our opinion in Sullivan v. South Carolina Dep't of Corrections, 355 S.C. 437, 586 S.E.2d 124 (2003), in which we held the ALJ has jurisdiction to review DOC grievance proceedings only if they involve the denial of "state created liberty interests." There, we recognized that our opinion in Al-Shabazz v. State, 338 S.C. 354, 368, 527 S.E.2d 742, 750 (1999), held that administrative matters typically arise in two ways: (1) when an inmate is disciplined and punishment is imposed and (2) when an inmate believes prison officials have erroneously calculated his sentence, sentence-related credits, or custody status. However, we did not limit Al-Shabazz to these two instances. The Al-Shabazz Court explained that procedural due process is guaranteed when an inmate is deprived of an interest encompassed by the Fourteenth Amendment's protection of liberty and property. 338 S.C. at 369, 527 S.E.2d at 750.

We find the state's statutory mandate that inmates be paid the prevailing wage creates such an interest, which may not be denied without due process. Piatt v. McDougall, supra. Accordingly, in this very limited circumstance,[1] we hold the DOC's failure to pay in accordance with the statutes is reviewable by the ALJ.

Finally, we concur with the ALJ and the circuit court that there is simply nothing in the statutory scheme authorizing the DOC to pay Wicker a training wage less than the prevailing wage. Hodges v. Rainey, 341 S.C. 79, 85, 533 S.E.2d 578, 581 (2000) (If a statute's language is plain, unambiguous, and conveys a clear meaning, "the rules of statutory interpretation are not needed and the court has no right to impose another meaning"). Accordingly, the judgment below is affirmed.

AFFIRMED.

TOAL, C.J., and BURNETT, J., concur. PLEICONES, J., dissenting in a separate opinion. MOORE, J., not participating.

[1] We note that our holding today is extremely limited and is not to be viewed as expanding the jurisdiction of the ALJD in any other circumstance.

JUSTICE PLEICONES: As explained more fully in my concurring opinion in Adkins v. South Carolina Dep't of Corrections, Op. No. 25860 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed August 23, 2004), I would hold that respondent's remedy is found in the South Carolina Payment of Wages Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§ 41-10-10, et seq. (Supp. 2003). Accordingly, I dissent.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA COUNTY OF DORCHESTER	)	IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS FOR THE FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
Darrell Williams, Class Representative, et al., Plaintiffs, vs. South Carolina Department of Corrections and Williams Technologies, Inc., Defendants.	)	C.A. No. 02-CP-18-134 ORDER OF THE COURT (1) DISMISSING WITH PREJUDICE BOTH THE PLANITIFFS' ENTIRE AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT AS WELL AS THE PLAINTIFF CLASS, (2) DENYING THE PLAINTIFFS' "MOTION FOR ORDER UNDER SOUTH CAROLINA RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 23," (3) DIRECTING SCDC TO PROVIDE NOTICE OF ITS RULING DISMISSING THE PLAINTIFFS' COMPLAINT AND THE PLAINTIFF CLASS, AND (4) LIFTING THE STAY IT EARLIER IMPOSED BY WHICH IT FROZE SCDC'S PROCESSING OF GRIEVANCES FILED BY FORMER INMATE PLAINTIFFS

I. OVERVIEW OF THE COURT'S ORDER

This Court, after hearing argument from counsel for all parties on October 28, 2004, DISMISSES WITH PREJUDICE both the plaintiffs' entire amended class action complaint and, consequentially, DISMISSES WITH PREJUDICE the plaintiff class it certified earlier in this litigation. Additionally, this Court DENIES the plaintiffs' "Motion for Order under South Carolina Rule of Civil Procedure (SCRCP) 23."

This Court concludes that the South Carolina Supreme Court's decisions in Adkins, et al., v. South Carolina Department of Corrections, 360 S.C. 413, 602 S.E.2d 51 (2004) and Wicker v. South

Carolina Department of Corrections, 360 S.C. 421, 602 S.E.2d 56 (2004) bar the plaintiffs' present class action suit against both SCDC and WTI.[1]

This Court also DIRECTS SCDC to provide notice of its ruling dismissing the plaintiffs' amended class action complaint and the plaintiff class to the inmates who comprise the former plaintiff class.

Finally, this Court LIFTS THE STAY it earlier imposed by which it froze SCDC's processing of the grievances it received from plaintiffs' counsel and the inmates who comprise the former plaintiff class on or since September 22, 2004. This Court issued a previous order which directed, effective November 3, 2004, SCDC to stay all activity associated with the processing of these grievances.

II. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

Defendant WTI first moved for summary judgment by its motion filed December 12, 2003, and, on January 15, 2004, this Court first heard argument from the parties regarding WTI's summary judgment motion.

On July 15, 2004, this Court conducted a teleconference in which it addressed WTI's outstanding motion for summary judgment within the context of the Court's original scheduling order. At the conclusion of this teleconference, this Court extended by 60 days each of the deadlines it established in its original scheduling order in anticipation of the South Carolina Supreme Court issuing its opinions in Adkins and Wicker.

On August 23, 2004, the South Carolina Supreme Court issued its opinions in Adkins and Wicker, and, on September 13, 2004, SCDC filed its motion to dismiss the plaintiffs' amended class action complaint pursuant to SCRCP 12(b)(6). Between SCDC's September 13, 2004 filing of its 12(b)(6) motion and the motions hearing the Court conducted on October 28, 2004, WTI and the plaintiffs exchanged supplemental memoranda in support of and in opposition to WTI's original December 12, 2003 summary judgment motion. These memoranda, like SCDC's dispositive motion, focused on the impact of Adkins and Wicker on this litigation.

[1] This Court granted the plaintiffs' motion for class certification by its order dated January 8, 2004.

Additionally, on October 12, 2004, the plaintiffs submitted a "Motion for Order under SCRCP 23."

As stated above, this Court heard argument from the parties' counsel on October 28. The parties waived any and all objections regarding notice of the Court's hearing of their respective motions. Douglas H. Westbrook, Esquire, appeared on the plaintiffs' behalf. Lake Summers, Esquire, appeared on SCDC's behalf, and Marcus A. Manos, Esquire, and Jennifer E. Blythe, Esquire, appeared on WTI's behalf. The Court heard extensive argument from plaintiffs' counsel and SCDC's counsel regarding the plaintiffs' motion for order under Rule 23. The Court also heard argument from WTI's counsel regarding the third cause of action articulated by the plaintiffs in their amended class action complaint sounded under South Carolina's Payment of Wages Act.

This order reflects the Court's ruling after careful consideration of the memoranda submitted by counsel and of the arguments advanced by counsel at its October 28 hearing.

III. THIS COURT DISMISSES WITH PREJUDICE THE PLAINTIFFS' ENTIRE AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT AND, CONSEQUENTIALLY, THIS COURT DISMISSES WITH PREJUDICE THE CLASS OF PLAINTIFFS IT CERTIFIED EARLIER IN THIS LITIGATION

A. THE DEFENDANTS ARE ENTITLED TO JUDGMENT ON ALL THREE OF THE PLAINTIFFS' CAUSES OF ACTION AS A MATTER OF LAW

1. No Private Cause of Action Exists as a Matter of Law in Favor of the Plaintiffs Against either SCDC or WTI, a Private Industry Participating in a Prison Industries Project Created Under South Carolina's Prison Industries Statutes

The South Carolina Supreme Court concluded that the General Assembly did not intend to create a private right of action in favor of inmates when it enacted the statutes creating the prison industries program in our state. Adkins and Wicker (citations omitted). The statutes at issue in the instant action and in Adkins and Wicker are South Carolina Code Section 24-3-40 and Section 24-3-310, et seq. (Cum. Supp. 2003).

Our Supreme Court held that "[w]here a statute does not specifically create a private cause of action, one can be implied only if the legislation was enacted for the special benefit of a private party." Adkins, at 54, 602 S.E.2d at 418, citing Citizens for Lee County v. Lee County, 308 S.C. 23, 416 S.E.2d 641 (1992). Based on application of that rule, the Court concluded:

> Given that the overall purpose of the prevailing wage statute is to prevent unfair competition, and to aid society and the public in general, we cannot conclude that the statutes in question were enacted for the special benefit of Inmates. . . . Nothing in the statutes indicates a legislative intent to create civil liability for a violation of the statutes. Accordingly, they do not give rise to a private right of action. Id. at 54-55, 602 S.E.2d at 418-19. [emphasis added]

While Adkins and Wicker reflected our Supreme Court's analysis of prevailing wage claims filed by inmates against SCDC, its ruling in these two (2) cases applies equally to the analysis of whether or not the General Assembly intended to create a private right of action in favor of inmates against a private industry, such as WTI, participating in a prison industries project under a contractual agreement with SCDC. No provision of the applicable prevailing wage statutes, and specifically 24-3-430(D), evidences a separate legislative intent to create a private cause of action for inmates against the private industry participating in such a project regarding the wages the inmates receive for their labor.

Accordingly, the statutes upon which plaintiffs base their first cause of action do not create a private cause of action in their favor against either SCDC or WTI, and, therefore, both defendants are entitled to judgment as a matter of law regarding the plaintiffs' first cause of action.

2. No Cause of Action Exists as a Matter of Law in Favor of the Plaintiffs against either SCDC or WTI under the South Carolina Tort Claims Act

Plaintiffs' second cause of action alleges that both defendants violated the South Carolina Tort Claims Act by failing to pay the plaintiffs the prevailing wage for their prison industries labor under Section 24-3-430 and, specifically, under Section 24-3-430(D).

Our Supreme Court addressed this precise issue in Adkins. "Initially, we note that [SCDC's] failure to pay a certain wage simply does not constitute a tort so as to be cognizable under the Tort Claims Act. Further, even if this was a Tort Claims case, the circuit court correctly ruled [that SCDC] was immune from liability." Adkins at 54, 602 S.E.2d at 417-18. [emphasis added] Furthermore, WTI simply is not an agency, department, subdivision, or employee of the State of South Carolina, and, therefore, it is not a governmental entity subject to suit under the Tort Claims Act. See, e.g., Fleming v. Asbill, 326 S.C. 49, 43 S.E.2d 751 (1997) (finding that court appointed guardian ad litem was not an employee of the State nor subject to the South Carolina Tort Claims Act).

Accordingly, both SCDC and WTI are entitled to judgment as a matter of law regarding the plaintiffs' second cause of action.

3. No Cause of Action Exists as a Matter of Law in Favor of the Plaintiffs Against Either SCDC or WTI under South Carolina's Payment of Wages Act

The South Carolina Supreme Court specifically discussed the South Carolina Payment of Wages Act in both Adkins and Wicker. Justice Pleicones, concurring separately in Adkins, indicated that he would provide the Adkins inmates a remedy under the Payment of Wages Act against SCDC, because he viewed SCDC as the agent of the private industry participant, Standard Plywoods, Inc. Adkins at 55, 602 S.E.2d at 420 and note 10. However, Justice Waller, writing for himself and the three (3) other justices who joined in his majority opinion, specifically rejected the Payment of Wages Act as a remedy for the Adkins inmates. Id., 602 S.E.2d at 419 and note 7.

Instead, Justice Waller advised the Adkins inmates that they possessed a remedy against SCDC as set forth in Wicker, the Court's companion case to Adkins. Id. Wicker recognizes for the first time that Section 24-3-430(D) creates a liberty interest for inmates who participate or at one time participated in the prison industries projects at issue in both Adkins and Wicker, and, consequentially, Wicker directs the Adkins inmates to prosecute any and all prevailing wage disputes arising against SCDC under Section 24-3-430(D) or, for that matter, any of the "prevailing wage" statutes through SCDC's inmate grievance process. Furthermore, under Wicker, the Adkins inmates may appeal the denial of any such grievances by SCDC to the Administrative Law Court, and Wicker explicitly states that the Administrative Law Court possesses subject matter jurisdiction by which to adjudicate their appeals.

While neither Adkins nor Wicker specifically addressed whether inmates, such as the Adkins plaintiffs and the plaintiffs in the instant litigation, could maintain an action under the Payment of Wages Act against the private industry participant alone, the readily apparent logic underlying Adkins and Wicker bars such an action. On the one hand, the plaintiffs could file a separate action for back wages pursuant to the Payment of Wages Act against the private industry participant, while, on the other hand, the plaintiffs could file grievances for identical relief against SCDC in accordance with Wicker. Clearly, our Supreme Court did not provide the plaintiffs such a double remedy in either Adkins or Wicker.

Moreover, courts around the country have concluded that inmates in prison industries programs are not employees of private parties, such as WTI, who contract with corrections officials to provide work for the inmates. Harker v. State Use Industries, 990 F.2d 131 (4th Cir. 1993); Henthorn v. Department of Navy, 29 F.3d 682, 686, (D.C. Cir. 1994); Lentz v. Anderson, et al., 888 F. Supp. 847, 849 (W.D. Ohio 1995); Young v. Cutter Biological, A Division of Script Miles Laboratories, 694 F. Supp. 651, 658 (D. Ariz. 1988); Sims v. Parke Davis & Co., 334 F. Supp. 774, 787 (E.D. Mich. 1971).

Judge Joseph Anderson of the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina addressed a similar claim under the Payment of Wages Act in Williams v. Grime Aerospace Co., 988 F. Supp. 925, 941 (D.S.C. 1997). In that case, an employee of a temporary agency sued the firm that used her services as well as the temporary agency for violations of the Payment of Wages Act. Judge Anderson granted summary judgment finding that a business using an employee from an employment agency could not be held liable for unpaid wages under the Payment of Wages Act where the employment agency had the contractual responsibility to pay wages and was the actual employer of the temporary worker. Id.

The Payment of Wages Act, specifically Section 41-10-80, makes clear that an employee (not a contractor) may bring an action for failure to pay wages. Section 41-10-10 defines "wages" as any amount "due to an employee under any employer policy or employment contract." The record shows only that the inmate plaintiffs voluntarily participated in the SCDC prison industries project at issue for wages determined exclusively by SCDC. WTI never "employed" the plaintiffs. Thus, the plaintiffs possess no claim against WTI as a matter of law under our state's Payment of Wages Act.

Consequentially, this Court concludes that SCDC's inmate grievance procedure, as prescribed in the majority opinion in Wicker, is the remedy for the plaintiffs against SCDC and only SCDC regarding any purported violation of the prevailing wage statutes, i.e. Sections 24-3-40, 24-3-310, et seq., and, specifically, Section 24-3-430(D). As a result, both SCDC and WTI are entitled to judgment as a matter of law regarding the plaintiffs' third cause of action.

B. SUMMARY OF THE COURT'S DISMISSAL OF THE PLAINTIFFS' ENTIRE AMENDED COMPLAINT AND THE PLAINTIFF CLASS

Succinctly put, this Court concludes that the South Carolina Supreme Court, in its decisions in Adkins and Wicker, clearly rejected a private right of action based on the "prevailing wage" provision of the applicable prison industries statute, Section 24-3-430(D). This Court further concludes that our Supreme Court, in its decisions in Adkins and Wicker, determined that the circuit court is not the appropriate forum for disputes arising under the "prevailing wage" provision of Section 24-3-430(D). Instead, in Wicker, our Supreme Court determined that the appropriate forum for the adjudication and resolution of such disputes is SCDC's inmate grievance system.

Accordingly, this Court GRANTS the defendants' respective dispositive motions regarding all three of the plaintiffs' causes of action and DISMISSES WITH PREJUDICE the plaintiffs' entire amended class action complaint. Furthermore, this Court determines that the class of inmate plaintiffs it certified by order dated January 8, 2004 is no longer viable, and, consequentially, the Court DISMISSES THE CLASS WITH PREJUDICE.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IV. THIS COURT DENIES THE PLAINTIFFS' "MOTION FOR ORDER UNDER SOUTH CAROLINA RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 23"

A. RELIEF SOUGHT BY THE PLAINTIFFS' MOTION

The plaintiffs primarily sought an order from this Court requiring SCDC to process the plaintiffs' administrative grievances without further delay. On September 22, 2004, plaintiffs' counsel submitted nearly 200 grievances to SCDC's Inmate Grievance Coordinator at Lieber Correctional Institution.

At the top of the large stack of materials submitted by plaintiffs' counsel appeared a grievance jointly signed by plaintiffs' counsel and the plaintiffs' class representative in the instant litigation, former SCDC inmate Darrell Williams. In this "tandem" grievance, Mr. Williams and plaintiffs' counsel demanded that SCDC effectively recognize the class structure certified by this Court earlier in the instant litigation. Along with this "tandem" grievance, plaintiffs' counsel submitted to the SCDC staff at Lieber approximately 200 grievances on behalf of individual inmate plaintiffs who participate or at one time participated in the prison industries project located at Lieber in which WTI is the private industry participant.

Most if not all of these grievances invoked Adkins and Wicker, as well as Section 24-3-430(D), and demanded from SCDC back wages for the grieving inmate(s). The back wage award demanded by the grieving inmates consisted of the difference between the wage SCDC has historically paid the inmates and the purported "prevailing wage" advocated by the grieving inmates. Most if not all of these grievances also demanded that SCDC increase the current wage it pays to inmates who participate in the prison industries project located at Lieber.

As components of such an order, the plaintiffs specifically sought the following relief:

1. An order directing SCDC to immediately process all grievances, whether filed by class counsel, the class representative, or individual inmates;

2. An order recognizing the aforementioned "tandem" grievance filed on September 22, 2004 as a "class" grievance on behalf of the entire plaintiff class with respect to any demand for back wages;

3. An order, under authority the plaintiffs cited from Newberg on Class Actions, recognizing that any and all grievances previously filed would exhaust the administrative remedies for all the class members;

4. An order directing SCDC to maintain a complete record and chronology of all submissions offered by plaintiffs' counsel and members of the plaintiff class including the original grievances and exhibits submitted on and since September 22, 2004;

5. An order directing SCDC to forward any of its responses to these grievances to plaintiffs' counsel.

Alternatively, the plaintiffs sought an "order of appealability of SCDC's non-processed grievances as 'final decisions' subject to appeal to the [Administrative Law Court] pursuant to [Administrative Law Court] Rule 33 and 51, and SCDC grievance rule GA-01.12, item 9." The plaintiffs further requested a reasonable extension of any deadlines within which they could appeal any grievances SCDC did not initially process.

The plaintiffs also moved the Court to appoint substitute class representatives for the class certified by this Court by its order dated January 8, 2004, as SCDC released the original class representative, Darrell Williams, from its custody on October 1, 2004. The plaintiffs finally moved the Court for an order by which plaintiffs' counsel would be allowed "to post status [memoranda] in the various prison libraries to keep class members informed of case progress."

B. AUTHORITY RELIED UPON BY THE PLAINTIFFS IN THEIR MOTION

In their motion, the plaintiffs specifically invoked the following language from SCRCP 23(d)(2):

> The court may at any time impose such terms as shall fairly and adequately protect the interest of the persons on whose behalf the action is brought or defended.

The plaintiffs also invoked Eldridge v. Greenwood, 308 S.C. 127, 127, 417 S.E.2d 532 (1992), which, according to the plaintiffs, "recognized the 'broad power' of the Circuit Court to issue orders under Rule 23(d)(2) to protect the class members' interests." Finally, the plaintiffs invoked various provisions of Newberg on Class Actions in support of its motion.[2]

C. THE GROUNDS UPON WHICH THIS COURT DENIES THE RELIEF SOUGHT BY THE PLAINTIFFS IN THEIR MOTION

Succinctly put, this Court does not find sufficient grounds or sufficient authority by which to involve itself in the mechanics associated with the filing and processing of grievances under SCDC's Inmate Grievance System Policy Number GA-01.12. Additionally, this Court does not find sufficient grounds or sufficient authority by which to involve itself in the determination of any substantive questions associated with the adjudication of grievances filed under this policy.

As stated above, our Supreme Court determined in Wicker that SCDC's inmate grievance system is the appropriate forum for the adjudication and resolution of the prevailing wage disputes articulated in the grievances filed on and since September 22, 2004. As our Supreme Court also stated in Wicker, inmates, such as the plaintiffs in the instant litigation, may appeal the denial of any such grievances by SCDC to the Administrative Law Court, and Wicker explicitly states that the Administrative Law Court possesses the requisite subject matter jurisdiction by which to adjudicate such appeals.

[2] The plaintiffs referenced Sections 5:15, 5:23, 23:16, 24:66 and 24:87 of Newberg on Class Actions.

Accordingly, this Court DENIES both the broad and specific relief sought by the plaintiffs in their motion for order under SCRCP 23.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

V. THE COURT'S ORDER DIRECTING SCDC TO PROVIDE NOTICE OF ITS RULING DISMISSING THE PLAINTIFFS' AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT AND THE PLAINTIFF CLASS TO THE INMATES WHO COMPRISE THE FORMER PLAINTIFF CLASS

This Court hereby directs SCDC to conspicuously post notice of its above described order in the library of every SCDC confinement facility including, of course, Lieber Correctional Institution. SCDC should provide Plaintiffs' counsel with all former Plaintiff inmates last known addresses.

This notice shall consist of a "flier," a single sheet of standard 8 ½" by 11" paper, and this "flier" shall be double sided. Counsel for SCDC shall prepare this "flier" subject to the review and objections of plaintiffs' counsel, and the final format of this "flier" shall be subject to review by this Court.

The front side of this "flier" shall include the following substantive information:

1 Notice that, as of the date of instant order's execution, the Court has dismissed with prejudice the entire class action suit filed against both SCDC and WTI by former SCDC inmate Darrell Williams on behalf of inmates who currently participate or at one time participated in the SCDC Division of Industries project located at Lieber Correctional Institution in which WTI is the private industry participant.

2. Notice that, as a consequence of dismissing the entire suit, the Court has dismissed with prejudice the class of inmate plaintiffs it certified on January 8, 2004.

3. Notice that the Court's dismissal of both the suit and the class resulted from the August 23, 2004 opinions issued by the South Carolina Supreme Court in Adkins, et al., v. South Carolina Department of Corrections, 360 S.C. 413, 602 S.E.2d 51 (2004) and Wicker v. South Carolina Department of Corrections, 360 S.C. 421, 602 S.E.2d 56 (2004).

4. Notice that the inmates who comprise the former plaintiff class may now, if they have not done so already, file a grievance against SCDC in which they may demand relief from SCDC for any purported non-compliance by SCDC with the prevailing wage statutes, i.e. Section 24-3-40 and Section 24-3-310, et seq.

5. Notice that such grievances must conform to the procedures, substance, and deadlines established in SCDC's Inmate Grievance System Policy Number GA-01.12. SCDC revised this policy effective November 1, 2004.

6. Notice that any and all such grievances must be filed no later than 45 days after the date this "flier" is posted.

7. Notice that the information reflected on this "flier" applies only to the instant litigation.

The reverse side of this "flier" shall provide a summary of both the Adkins and Wicker opinions. The Court envisions two (2) columns on the reverse side of the "flier." One column will provide bullet points summarizing the Adkins opinion and the other column will provide bullet points summarizing the Wicker opinion. Additionally, SCDC shall provide complete copies of the Adkins and Wicker opinions in all of its libraries along with this "flier."

IT IS SO ORDERED.

VI. THE COURT'S ORDER LIFTING THE STAY IT PREVIOUSLY IMPOSED BY WHICH IT FROZE SCDC'S PROCESSING OF GRIEVANCES FILED BY THE INMATES WHO COMPRISE THE FORMER PLAINTIFF CLASS

This Court next addresses the status and processing of the approximately 200 to 300 grievances SCDC received from the inmates who comprise the former plaintiff class on or since September 22, 2004. This Court issued an order which, effective November 3, 2004, stayed all activity associated with SCDC's processing and adjudicating these grievances.

This order reflected the Court's ruling issued at the conclusion of a teleconference it conducted on November 3, 2004 in which counsel for both the plaintiffs and SCDC participated. By this order, this Court simply halted all action regarding these pending grievances and "froze" them in the status in which they existed on November 3, 2004. In its stay order, this Court directed that its stay would remain in effect until it issued the instant order.

Thus, in light of the Court's earlier order dismissing with prejudice both the plaintiffs' entire class action suit and the plaintiff class itself, THIS COURT HEREBY LIFTS THE STAY IT IMPOSED REGARDING SCDC'S PROCESSING OF THE GRIEVANCES SCDC RECEIVED ON OR AFTER SEPTEMBER 22, 2004. Accordingly, SCDC shall continue processing these grievances in accordance with the provisions of SCDC Inmate Grievance Policy Number GA-01.12.

The ultimate processing and adjudication of these grievances falls under SCDC's Inmate Grievance System Policy Number GA-01.12 and, of course, our Supreme Court's opinions in Adkins and Wicker. The inmate plaintiffs' grievances did not name and, under SCDC's above referenced Inmate Grievance Policy, cannot name WTI as a respondent.

This Court emphasizes that the directives issued here apply only to the chronology by which SCDC may either begin its processing or continue its processing of these grievances under its Inmate Grievance System Policy Number GA-01.12. This Court also emphasizes that the directives issued here apply only to the grievances and grievance response forms filed by inmate plaintiffs regarding the wage structure associated with the prison industries project located at Lieber Correctional Institution and for which WTI is the private industry participant. The Court's directives in no way apply to any grievances or grievance response forms filed by inmates concerning any other SCDC prison industries project.

This Court specifically declares that the deadlines applicable both to the grievants and SCDC officials under the provisions of SCDC Inmate Grievance System Policy Number GA-01.12 apply without modification or alteration. This Court also specifically declares that the provisions reflected in SCDC's Inmate Grievance System Policy Number GA-01.12 regarding the processing and adjudication of grievances filed by former inmate plaintiffs are in no way modified, altered, or affected by the terms of the instant order.

Thus, this Court simply restores both the grieving inmates and SCDC to the positions they held regarding their respective grievances and responses as of November 3, 2004. This restoration of the parties to their respective November 3, 2004 positions, however, takes effect approximately 60 days from the date of the instant order's execution, and the stay shall be lifted as of June 20, 2005.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Re: SCDC's Position Regarding SCACR 225(a)'s Automatic Stay and Its Application to the Relief Provided the Plaintiffs in Judge Goodstein's April 19, 2005 Order in Williams, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc., 2002-CP-18-0134

Dear Doug:

Pursuant to the request you made of me during our telephone conversation yesterday, I write this letter to definitively advise you that SCDC will observe the automatic stay contemplated in South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 225(a) regarding the relief Judge Goodstein provided the plaintiffs in her April 19, 2005 order in the above captioned case.

I first expressed this position in my May 27 letter to Judge Goodstein. As I stated my letter to her, Rule 225(a) reads as follows:

> As a general rule, the service of a notice of appeal in a civil matter acts to automatically stay matters decided in the order on appeal, and to automatically stay the relief ordered in the appealed order, judgment, or decree. This automatic stay continues in effect for the duration of the appeal unless lifted by order of the trial judge, appellate court, or judge or justice thereof. The lower court retains jurisdiction over matters not affected by the appeal including the authority to enforce any matters not stayed by the appeal. [emphasis added]

SCDC contends that you triggered this stay by filing your original and amended Notices of Appeal. In accordance with Rule 225(a), SCDC considers as stayed the following relief Judge Goodstein afforded the plaintiffs in her April 19, 2005 order:

Re: SCDC's Position Regarding SCACR 225(a)'s Automatic Stay and Its Application to the Relief Provided the Plaintiffs in Judge Goodstein's April 19, 2005 Order in Williams, et al., v. SCDC and Williams Technologies, Inc., 2002-CP-18-0134

- SCDC's posting of the notice "flier" in all of SCDC's institutional libraries;
- SCDC's collection and transmittal to you of all available last known addresses of members of the former plaintiff class whom SCDC has released from its custody; and
- SCDC's June 20, 2005 resumption of its processing of grievances filed by the plaintiffs on and since September 22, 2004.

Furthermore, SCDC shall observe the stay as it applies to the above listed remedies unless and until you successfully move either Judge Goodstein or the Court of Appeals, under SCACR 225(c)(1) and (d)(1), to lift this automatic stay.

I trust this letter satisfies your request for a clear and distinct statement of SCDC's position regarding this matter. As always, I remain

Very respectfully yours,

JUSTICE MOORE: This class action was commenced on behalf of inmates in custody of respondent South Carolina Department of Corrections (DOC). These inmates participated in a prison industry program operated pursuant to DOC's contract with respondent Williams Technologies, Inc. (WTI). Appellants (Inmates) claim they were underpaid for their labor and seek "lost wages." The trial judge dismissed Inmates' complaint with prejudice based on our decision in Adkins v. South Carolina Dep't of Corrections, 360 S.C. 413, 602 S.E.2d 51 (2004). We affirm.

FACTS

In Adkins, we considered a suit by inmates against DOC as the sole defendant. The suit alleged a violation of S.C. Code Ann. § 24-3-430(D) (Supp. 2005) which provides that "no inmate participating in [a prison industries] program may earn less than the prevailing wage for work of similar nature in the private sector." We held there is no private cause of action for a violation of this statute.[1]

Inmates here alleged a cause of action under the South Carolina Payment of Wages Act, S.C. Code § 41-10-20 et seq. (Supp. 2005) claiming lost wages because they were not paid the "prevailing wage" as specified in § 24-3-430(D).[2] They claim the trial judge should not

[1]In the companion case of Wicker v. South Carolina Dep't of Corrections, 360 S.C. 421, 602 S.E.2d 56 (2004), we further held that inmates may not be deprived of this property interest without due process; accordingly, inmates were directed to file grievances if they wished to protest DOC's failure to pay a prevailing wage.

[2]Inmates concede that DOC was authorized to negotiate wages for inmate labor at less than the prevailing wage pursuant to budget provisos passed by the General Assembly for fiscal years 2001-2002 and 2002-2003. There are similar provisions in each budget passed to the present.

have dismissed this cause of action against WTI.[3]

ISSUE

Do inmates have a cause of action under the Payment of Wages Act?

DISCUSSION

The Payment of Wages Act requires that every employer "notify each employee in writing at the time of hiring of the normal hours and wages agreed upon, the time and place of payment, and the deductions which will be made. . . ." § 41-10-30. Every employer shall pay wages due at the time and place designated by this notice. § 41-10-40(D). There is no provision regarding the payment of a statutorily required wage.

Whether a private industry sponsor and the inmates in a prison industries program have an employer-employee relationship for purposes of the Payment of Wages Act is a novel issue. Inmates ask us to find such a relationship based on the test for employment set out in Felts v. Richland County, 303 S.C. 354, 400 S.E.2d 781 (1991). This test includes four factors: (1) the right to, or exercise of, control; (2) method of payment; (3) furnishing of equipment; and (4) right to fire. Inmates point to provisions in the contract between DOC and WTI that indicate WTI's right to control inmate workers. For instance, the contract provides that WTI provides worker training and supervisory staff to oversee work product quality, and WTI furnishes the equipment upon which the work is performed. Although DOC screens and selects the inmates who will participate, WTI "reserves the right to have [DOC] remove and replace inmate workers based on job performance."

[3]In Adkins, we noted § 24-3-430(F) provides that an inmate is not considered an "employee" of the State and therefore no cause of action could be maintained against DOC under the Payment of Wages Act. 360 S.C. at 420, n.7, 602 S.E.2d at 55, n.7.

Inmates contend the contract provisions stating that inmates are not to be considered employees of WTI do not control.

We find the Felts four-part test is not determinative of employer status in the context of the Payment of Wages Act. This Act, by its very title, is concerned specifically with the payment of wages and is directed to the entity responsible for such payment. See Williams v. Grimes Aerospace Co., 988 F. Supp. 925, n.13 (D.S.C. 1997) (holding that corporation for whom work was performed was not liable under South Carolina Payment of Wages Act where temporary agency "handled all payment of wages").

Here, the payment of inmate wages is exclusively within the control of DOC and not WTI. The contract provides that WTI will pay DOC a flat rate of $4.00 per hour per inmate and that DOC is responsible to pay inmate workers and handle payroll deductions. Of even greater significance is the fact that the legislature has specifically mandated how inmate wages for prison industry labor are to be handled. Section 24-3-40 (Supp. 2005) provides:

> Disposition of wages of prisoner allowed to work at paid employment.
> (A) Unless otherwise provided by law, the employer of a prisoner authorized to work at paid employment . . . in a prison industry program provided under Article 3 of this chapter shall pay the prisoner's wages directly to the Department of Corrections.

(emphasis added). This section also includes specific deductions from inmate wages that are to be made by the Director of DOC, including restitution to victims, payment to the State Office of Victim Assistance, child support, and state and federal taxes. Clearly, by contract and by statute, DOC is the only entity responsible for the payment of inmate wages.

Other state courts have held for purposes of wage statutes that inmates compensated by the prison are not the employees of prison industry sponsors. See Manville v. Bd. of Governors of Wayne State Univ., 272 N.W.2d 162 (Mich. App. 1978) (rate of compensation for prison labor determined under state Correctional Industries Act, not Minimum Wage Law where Department of Corrections unilaterally set wage scale and work hours); Prieur v. D.C.I. Plasma Center of Nevada, Inc., 726 P.2d 1372 (Nev. 1986) (prison laborer barred from pursuing claim against prison industry sponsor under state wage and hour law where Department of Prisons determined rate and method of compensation). Federal courts have come to the same result under the Federal Labor Standards Act. E.g., Henthorn v. Dep't of Navy, 29 F.3d 682 (D.C. Cir. 1994); Harker v. State Use Indus., 990 F.2d 131 (4th Cir. 1993); Gilbreath v. Cutter Biological, Inc., 931 F.2d 1320 (9th Cir. 1991); George v. SC Data Center, Inc., 884 F.Supp. 329 (W.D. Wis. 1995).

In conclusion, Inmates cannot maintain an action against WTI under the Payment of Wages Act since WTI is not the entity responsible for paying their wages. We affirm Inmates' remaining issues under Rule 220(b)(1), SCACR. See Adkins, supra (prevailing wage statute was not enacted for the special benefit of inmates but was intended to prevent unfair competition and aid the public in general).

AFFIRMED.

TOAL, C.J., WALLER and BURNETT, JJ., concur.
PLEICONES, J., dissenting in a separate opinion.

JUSTICE PLEICONES: I respectfully dissent. As I explained in my concurring opinion in Adkins v. South Carolina Dep't of Corrections, 360 S.C. 413, 602 S.E.2d 51 (2004), I would hold that the inmates' remedy is found in the South Carolina Payment of Wages Act, S.C. Code Ann. §§ 41-10-10, et seq. (Supp. 2005).

To hold that the payment of wages is exclusively within the control of the DOC ignores the language of S.C. Code Ann. § 24-3-40 (Supp. 2005). That statute provides "the employer of a prisoner authorized to work....in a prison industry program....shall pay the prisoner's wages directly to the Department of Corrections" and then requires the DOC to distribute those wages to inmates on behalf of the employer. Thus, the ultimate responsibility for paying wages falls on the prison industry sponsor, while the DOC merely acts as a conduit for payment to the inmates.

Under the Payment of Wages Act, "Employer" is defined as "every person, firm, partnership, association, corporation, receiver, or other officer of a court of this State, the State or any political subdivision thereof, and any agent or officer of the above classes employing any person in this State." S.C. Code Ann. § 41-10-10(1). In my opinion, this definition includes both the employer, WTI, and its agent, the DOC. Accordingly, I would hold that both WTI and the DOC are subject to the inmates' claims made pursuant to the Payment of Wages Act.

Introductory remarks by the Court	3
Remarks by Mr. Westbrook	6
Remarks by Mr. Summers	13

THE COURT: Well, this is Mr. Westbrook's motion and I think the gist of it is you want me to order the Department of Corrections to accept amended grievances from inmates who are raising questions about their pay while they were working at the industries, at prison industries at Lieber.

MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir. Very briefly, sir, I don't know if you got the fax. I faxed in a motion to quash this morning.

THE COURT: I got all your motions, and I got all this much motions.

MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, it's quite the door stop so I wanted to make sure the Court had that, yes, sir.

THE COURT: I have that. And let me just say this, we had two telephone conferences yesterday ---

MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: ---in regard to this matter. The first one -- after the first one, and I initiated the first one because I knew Judge Goodstein had had some previous involvement in the case and the motion asks that her order be enforced and so I inquired of you two whether or not she needed to hear that motion and we didn't really resolve that so I called her back. I tried to call her, was unable to get her yesterday, but then we called back and I said, well, I will hear that but I'm not inclined to enforce a motion of another judge that's not in writing. And so I told both of you that yesterday and that also I seriously question whether I have any jurisdiction in this case at all. Yesterday -- I -- I mean, this morning, I finally was able to talk to Judge Goodstein and apparently y'all had a telephone conversation with her back in March. In fact, I noticed that in Mr. Summers' brief; I didn't know that yesterday. But Judge Goodstein also -- and she said in the telephone conversation she advised that the two of y'all, she was not inclined to enforce any type of motion unless it was in writing, there was an order in writing. So that -- and but my main question to her was whether she thought this was something she needed to hear and she said emphatically, no, it was nothing that she needed to hear.

So Mr. Westbrook, that's my position on an order that's not in -- alleged order that's not in writing. I would deny your motion on that ground. I don't know what else you can say to change my mind; it's pretty simple. I mean, I don't want to cut you off. If you think there's something else that might change my mind I'll be glad to hear you, but I'm certainly inclined to deny the motion on that ground.

The second ground is I think just asking the Court through its inherit powers to order Department of Corrections to accept amended petitions; isn't that -- wouldn't that be the second part of your motion?

MR. WESTBROOK: That's correct, Your Honor, analogizing the Rule 15.

THE COURT: Right. And I have two questions about that. We just as well put it under the table and then I'll hear from you. Number one, you filed this as a motion in this case number 2002-CP-18-134. That case there was a final order issued by Judge Goodstein; that order was appealed. The appeal was -- the case was affirmed. The remittitur has been returned to the Court. I can't see where that case is pending anymore. I don't think there's any such case in existence as 2002-CP-18-134 so that causes me concern that this Court doesn't have any jurisdiction because the case doesn't exist anymore. And secondly, I question how this Court would have jurisdiction to order the Department of Corrections to change their administrative procedures. I just don't think that -- I'm just not sure I've got jurisdiction to do that so let me hear you on those two issue.

Let me hear him first, Mr. Summers, and then I'll let you respond. I mean, I know that's a little backward, but I mean, the reason I asked you to send me all this stuff, both of you, so I can read it, be familiar with it, it saves us an awful lot of time. So how about address those issues for me, Mr. Westbrook.

MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, would you prefer I come up here?

THE COURT: Doesn't matter. Wherever you're comfortable will be fine.

MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, the first issue about the case being in existence, since we talked yesterday I very quickly looked for some authority as well as I could. The case has been remitted back from the Supreme Court, and therefore, the Circuit Court re-acquires jurisdiction as I understand the rule on that. The order that is involved with these filing of grievances went up on appeal, the entire order as we discussed yesterday by phone.

THE COURT: Yes, sir.

MR. WESTBROOK: That has now been sent back. And the Circuit Court, you and/or Judge Goodstein, now have re-acquired jurisdiction of the enforcement of that order as I understand the law. And Judge Goodstein's order in paragraphs 4, 5, and the last paragraph which talks about resumption of grievance process, all deal with the right to file grievances, how to file them, and when to file them, and the last page deals with resumption of the grievance process. So her order is in depth and in detail involved with this grievance process which now is back in this Court's jurisdiction. The order that she says is to file grievances. These amendments are grievances. In fact, as I pointed out in my written motion, they -- the amendments are the same for everybody, all 150, ever how many there are, with exception of the calculations at the bottom of the page. And they track the language very closely, not verbatim but very closely, of the amendment of the grievances that were filed in -- on September 30th of 2004, almost three years ago. So they are not new grievances. They are amendments adding meat on the bones, if you will, to the previously acquired filed grievances. So the case, I would submit, is in existence. It is back in this Court to enforce that process which was part of the order which went up on appeal and has now been remitted to this Court. And these amendments, in spite of what Lake says, in all due respect, are not new grievances; they are grievances. And so, if the grievance process has been sent back to this Court which I think it has, for enforcement because that is part and parcel of her order, then I think you have jurisdiction.

THE COURT: Well, ---

MR. WESTBROOK: I found, Your Honor ---

THE COURT: ---I think this Court would have, the Circuit Court would have authority to enforce its own order even after the case was ended. I think you're probably right about that. Of course, there's nothing in this order of Judge Goodstein which grants you the relief you're requesting today.

MR. WESTBROOK: Not in the sense that it mentions amendments.

THE COURT: All right. And in fact, your letter to her after the draft of the order was circulated you specifically ask her to add a language using the word amendments ---

MR. WESTBROOK: Right.

THE COURT: ---and she declined to do that.

MR. WESTBROOK: That's correct.

THE COURT: So it appears to me that she ruled against you. Of course Mr. Summers cited some other things not quite as direct but with the same result if you accept his theory, some other ways that he thinks she denied your motion at that time or your request. But there's no question you wrote her a letter and said, add this paragraph which specifically says we can amend, and she declined to do that. So wouldn't that be the law of the case now?

MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I -- she was silent on that and to -- whether it's the law of the case as that term is meant as a term of art, I don't know. I would argue that it's not; that her silence did not mean that she would not approve amendments, she just didn't mention it. I reiterate if -- and I implore the Court to look at the substance of what I'm asking the Court to do; and the substance is whether or not you call it amendments, whatever you call it. And I think when you -- when the Court interprets pleadings I think the law is fairly clear the well, whatever that term is, the well-meaning intent of the complaint, whatever it is, but I think the point is the substance here is if you put the amendment side by side with the previously filed grievance it almost verbatim tracks that language.

What I did after September of '04, I personally did it, was to go back and calculate the hours based on their records that each inmate worked and I did that following the Wicker case where Mr. Wicker, you know, submitted his hours in his grievance. And that is really the only substantive change in the grievances that were filed. So you know, I would submit that as their counsel I am simply trying to make sure that all of the elements of proof for their claims are in there. And these were inmates filing their own grievances in September, and I simply tried to expand on that to make it more worthy of proof. And so, I found a case about remittitur and it's been cited by Justice Toal in her guide book and apparently this is sort of the standard that the Supreme Court looks at on remittitur and enforcement of judgment. It's the Muller versus Myrtle Beach Golf And Yacht case, 438 Southeast Second 248. And the holding is, is this. It says once a remittitur is sent down from the Supreme Court, the Circuit Court acquires beyond a reasonable doubt to enforce the judgment and take any action consistent with the Supreme Court ruling. And for the life of me, given the fact that these so-called amendments are almost verbatim, the same as previously filed grievances, I don't see how these amendments are anything but entirely consistent with the grievances that have already been filed before Judge Goodstein's order was ever issued.

And so, you know, I think that this matter is still in existence; it's before the Court. She did not say that I could file amendments except in the oral meeting six months before the order; she did not put it in the order. But I think that -- I think her intention was to not stray from the boilerplate language and just use the word grievances. I know what she told us we could do on the telephone, and I don't think Lake has denied that.

And so, you know, the second part of your -- about ordering DOC to change their administrative procedure, I'm not -- I don't see that I am ordering, asking the Court to do that. The grievance procedure does not say you can file amendments; it doesn't say you can't. It doesn't speak to amendments. It is geared obviously toward inmates. And the grievance procedure explicitly states that policy grievances are an exception to the 15 day rule, which Mr. Summers mentioned yesterday about filing grievances. There is no time for filing policy grievances which is clearly what this is. So I don't -- with the possible exception arguably of asking the Court to file amendments which in substance are basically what has already been filed, I don't see where I'm asking the Court to ask DOC to change their administrative procedure. I can tell the Court, as an officer of this court, that they have changed procedure against their own policy in several instances. Not that tit-for-tat is necessarily the right way to go, but it's difficult to play by the rules when the agency is not playing by the rules and they have not always done this in this case.

These amendments are about ten pages thick when you add the exhibits after we filed grievances in September of '04. Now the grievance policy says that inmates are supposed to tender a grievance to a designee of the warden; that's step one. Step two, they are supposed to give it to the inmate grievance coordinator. After we filed grievances in September of '04 Lieber put up a box that has a slit about a half-inch wide. Nobody ever said why they did that, but I think the reason and the purpose of it was obvious. My -- two of the grievances we filed in September had exhibits which were hundreds of pages thick, and they obviously wanted to prevent lengthy grievances from being filed. So the rules have not always been followed by SCDC, and we need the Court's protection to help these inmates file what I believe they have a right to file. And if we don't -- if we don't get it I do not have the confidence that the agency is going to abide by its own policy.

THE COURT: Well, if they don't accept the amendments ---

MR. WESTBROOK: And they won't.

THE COURT: ---wouldn't your avenue be to appeal to the administrative law judge rather than this Court?

MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, I thought about that and I have not found anything in the procedure under the rules which allow me to do that.

THE COURT: Well ---

MR. WESTBROOK: If I could I would.

THE COURT: But wouldn't that be a ground -- I mean, if they deny the grievance you have to appeal that to the administrative law court, right?

MR. WESTBROOK: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Why would that not be additional grounds to raise at the time you appeal it to the administrative law court?

MR. WESTBROOK: Well, I've wondered how I can get it in the record if they don't let me file it. I have thought about having the inmates tender the grievance. I tried last year to tender them -- pursuant to agreement with Mr. Summers we made two or three years ago I agreed to coordinate with him any future filings. Pursuant to that obligation I contacted him last March and said, Lake, I'd like to file these amendments. He came back and he said, no, I'm recommending that you can't do that. Later on in October they send me the letter which is appended as an exhibit stating we will not now or any time accept these amendments. So I don't know how I can get it in the record to go up to the ALJ. And if they refuse it it'll never get in the record. I'm not asking for anything but just to file it and let the courts decide. That's all I'm asking for. And they won't let me file it.

THE COURT: Mr. Summers.

MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, quite a bit to chew on. First and foremost, I don't know how to respond to some of the allegations that Mr. Westbrook made. Safe to say that he has a far different characterization recollection than I did. For example, this agreement that we had where he could file amendments or work through me to file documents ultimately, Judge, there's nothing in the policy that allows an attorney to go to a particular institution and drop documents off. That's how this whole thing started back in September of 2004 and was ultimately when Mr. Westbrook called Judge Goodstein out of concern about how the mechanics of the delivery of this grievance would occur that Judge Goodstein really took a look at the initial process by which grievances will be filed. And we have -- what we have by way of the orders that she signed and the stay that was imposed, etc. I, very respectfully, Mr. Westbrook I don't think he really had a full understanding at all of how the grievance policy supposed to work, how it's not supposed to work. He keeps talking about how something won't be able to be in the record for review. He can simply submit it to the administrative law court as part of any appeal and say SCDC did not properly consider these documents or these materials. The ALC as the Court I think foreshadowed would certainly be able to look at that. And if the Court determines that we did something wrong by not accepting the amended grievance, the administrative law court can make its decision based upon that.

Mr. Westbrook talked at some length about whether or not this is a matter that involves an appeal or whether or not he's challenging or whether or not this case represents a challenge to SCDC's policies and procedures when it comes to whether or not back wages are due or higher wages are due. I've got a case from the administrative law court that's directly on point that says that a similar case in which we invoked the procedural guidelines from the policy does not involve an appeal challenging the Department's policies or procedures. So these issues have been meted at least in some degree by the administrative law court, Your Honor.

THE COURT: So did the court hear that one?

MR. SUMMERS: Sir?

THE COURT: In the one you have?

MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, I can hand that ---

THE COURT: Did the administrative law court hear the complaint?

MR. SUMMERS: Oh, yes sir, yes, sir. It determined that the grievance was not timely filed for many of the same reasons that we're ultimately going to litigate before the administrative law court in these proceedings. I think Your Honor has hit the nail on the head.

Ultimately what -- I think the Court certainly accurately stated the reality. The case has come back. The order that Judge Goodstein signed certainly is viable from the standpoint of the enforcement of that order. What Mr. Westbrook wants the Court to do, however, is to allow the filing of, quote, amended grievances which the Court accurately indicated was subject to some consideration by Judge Goodstein. She did not include that language in her final order; I thinks she's ruled on that. Also, that I think the Court accurately assessed the situation from the standpoint of whether or not there's any jurisdiction inherently before the Circuit Court to allow this kind of, if you want to call it intervention, or allow this kind of role for the Circuit Court in procedural disputes, for lack of a better term, and I think there's material in my memorandum to that effect.

Ultimately, Judge, Mr. Westbrook wants to have the Court step in on two levels where the Court should not do so. The administrative law court is the appropriate form. If Mr. Westbrook seeks to have any kind of relief he can certainly file some kind of motion perhaps in its original jurisdiction to do so. And again, let me be very clear, if an inmate seeks to file any kind of supplemental document, SCDC will take a look at it and accept it but it won't be, quote, an amendment. As I think we heard from Mr. Westbrook during our teleconference yesterday he wants the admin -- he wants SCDC under it's policy, or under its practice, to consider the amendment to be a new document. In other words, well, any grievance that was filed say in September of 2004, well, that has been superceded by this amendment that's going to come down in April of 2007.

There's nothing in our policy in any way, shape, or form that even contemplates such a result. We'll collect those documents; but ultimately, from the standpoint of processing the grievance, the first date, the date upon which that grievance was filed back in September of 2004 is going to be the effective date. The reason why Judge Goodstein issued the stay in the manner in which she did in this matter and the reason why her order reads the way it does is she said, I'm not going to get involved nor do I think the Court should be involved in the manner with which SCDC processes these grievances. The origin of the stay to begin with, Judge, is when Mr. Westbrook called me and ultimately wound up calling Judge Goodstein and said -- this is back in late October, early November of 2004. He asked Judge Goodstein to extend the deadlines that were in our policy. Judge Goodstein declined to do so. Instead, she just simply froze everything. She issued the stay; everything is going to be frozen until this case gets resolved. And as I think both of my submissions to the Court highlight, the chronology by which we find ourselves now flow from there. She ultimately heard a motion to dismiss, granted the motion to dismiss. Mr. Westbrook took the appeal up. A stay from the South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 225(a) kicked in. And finally now after the remittitur has been sent down, we find ourselves in the process of the Court looking at to enforce the order.

But again, going back to what the Court said originally, Mr. Westbrook wants this Court to do far more than enforce the order. He wants the Court to expand the order. He wants the Court to take action that Judge Goodstein considered but did not include his action in the order that she signed, the two orders that she signed back in 2005. So I think the Court is certainly in tune with the issues in this case. And just as vigorously as Mr. Westbrook wants the relief I think on behalf of SCDC, I just as vigorously dispute that, number one, jurisdiction exists by which such relief could be granted; and number two, if this Court should issue this kind of relief. At some point we have to let the policy work itself out. The deadlines that are established in the policy need to be allowed to continue. That's why the grievance processing will resume 60 days from the day of the remit, and that's why Judge Goodstein did what she did.

So very respectfully, Your Honor, I would submit that the reasons that I've articulated a moment ago and in the submissions that I've put before the Court, specifically the not motion to quash for lack of jurisdiction, should be the position the Court adopts in this instance. Thank you, sir.

THE COURT: Well, wait a minute. What is the harm and why won't the Department accept the delivery of the documents and just say, okay, we've got them and this is what we got but we're not going to consider it, if that's your position. Now it appears to me that your position is you're not going to consider any new ---

MR. SUMMERS: No, sir, I ---

THE COURT: ---new allegations made or any new evidence. It seems to me that's the crucial thing, whether it's filed or not filed.

MR. SUMMERS: Well, sir, number one ---

THE COURT: But that gets it into the record, it protects the inmate, it protects Mr. Westbrook's position. And I mean, I've had things presented to me and I'll say, I'm sorry, you're out of the deadline, I'll mark it as an exhibit and hand it to the court reporter but I'm not going to consider it. Why can't you do that?

MR. SUMMERS: Yes, sir, and I -- what I wanted to, hopefully I made that clear. I'm willing -- SCDC is willing to do that but there may be some confusion about some letter I sent in the context of what Mr. Westbrook was talking about. Again, we'll consider it, but as far as it restarting the clock, as far as it being an amendment in the context of a civil procedure ---

THE COURT: So you're saying you will consider it?

MR. SUMMERS: Oh, yes, sir.

THE COURT: Well then what's the problem, Mr. Westbrook?

MR. WESTBROOK: Your Honor, he's told me in the letter October 19th they won't accept any of my grievances. If he will accept it ---

THE COURT: He's telling me now that he will physically accept whatever it is that you want to submit, and he's telling me now that they will consider whatever you submit on the merits but they will not go back and change any deadlines. And I don't ---

MR. SUMMERS: Or any submission dates from the original step one or step two grievance.

THE COURT: I do not have any knowledge about any of the deadlines that we're talking about so I can't even enter into that discussion. I'm just not -- I just don't have enough knowledge about the whole situation to know whether that's what we're talking about when deadlines. But what he's saying is he will consider your submissions on the merits, but he's not going to change any of the procedures that set deadlines and set numbers of days to do certain things; they're going to all be in place just like they were prior to Judge Goodstein's order. They were suspended for that period which is like two or three years and then start back 60 days from now. All of that
