Dear Ms. Allen:

We received your June 26, 2015 letter concerning the transcript in the above-referenced case. We previously advised you by letter hand delivered June 17, 2015, that the transcript is not available because the court reporter's car was vandalized and all the court reporting equipment was stolen. As stated in that letter, we intend to file a Motion to Reconstruct the Record, and we hope to file that shortly. Please advise if you need any additional information or have any questions.

With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,
