Re: William Tomz v. Capital Investment Funding, LLC
Appellate Case No. 2013-002676

Dear Counsel:

We have received your correspondence regarding your representation of Capital Investment Funding, LLC. If you would like to intervene as a respondent in this appeal, you must serve and file a formal motion explaining your reasoning for doing so. The motion that you file must be served and filed in accordance with Rule 240 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. The Court will apply the filing fee received with the extension request to the motion that you file; therefore, an additional filing fee will not be necessary.

All parties are advised that the filing deadline for the respondents' initial brief and designation of matter will be set once this issue has been resolved.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
